M'PHERSON FINES IRK

Uncle Sam Will Get $277

Why Pay Duty on Old Worn Slippers or Pajamas Still in Ireland? She Asks

Journey Was Marvelous Although She's Homesick for Angelus Temple

NEW YORK, June 15. (Exclusive)—Swathed in a Turkish robe with a small fez clinking with coins on her golden locks, Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson said tonight that if Uncle Sam wants $277 of her money in customs fines and penalties she will be very glad to contribute the small sum, as she understands the country has been having a bad time of it while she was on her pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

Nevertheless, the cloaked evangelist of Angelus Temple in Los Angeles is at a loss to understand why the customs men, who were very nice to her, she said, could find material for fines in her old black satin slippers scuffed by the Sea of Galilee, or the embroidered pajamas bought for $2.97 in Constantinople which she left with her daughter, Roberta, now in Ireland.

MOTORS IN CATSKILLS

After a day's motoring in the Catskills Mrs. McPherson returned to [illegible] New Yorker to find that her little encounter with the customs on her return from abroad already had become public knowledge.

"Really, I'm amazed," murmured Mrs. McPherson, looking with distinct chagrin at sundry clippings spread out on the bed along with robes from Turkey, Bethlehem and Jerusalem, "the customs men were so nice. I had no idea this was going to happen. And $87 was the sum by which they said I had exceeded my allowance."

Mrs. McPherson insisted that it was all a misunderstanding. She [illegible] her bills and then [illegible] found them in a drawer of [illegible] and charged her with purchases which she had left with [illegible].

HEELS RUN DOWN

"Look, this is absolutely all I brought home with me," said Mrs. McPherson, indicating the brilliant embroidery of her three costumes and their accessories. She dove into a suit case and brought out the black satin slippers badly the worse for wear, with run-down heels and cracked sides.

"Imagine! That's what they're fining me for," she said. "I did not have enough to declare something I had worn out. And this"—flinging a soft straw with a [illegible] band on the bed—"I bought it in Budapest for $3.97 to save my [illegible]. Then they tackled me for the dress, which was made in Los Angeles."

"And what about that French gown the customs men discovered," the evangelist was asked. Her eyes gleamed like smoldering coals and her sunshine gospel smile was slightly dimmed.

"French gown—and I'm an evangelist," snapped Mrs. McPherson. "That doesn't sound very nice. I didn't even look in a French store, but

Will Rogers Remarks:

BOSTON, June 15. [To the Editor of The Times:] Been looking at the pictures in the papers today of some woman that killed a lot of big game in India.

I wish the humane society would take up one thing—after killing a poor dumb animal you are not allowed to sit on it to have picture made. That's awful humiliating to a wild animal. I believe they got the same old stuffed lion and elephant and tiger over there that they all have their pictures taken on.

If anybody hasn't had an offer to deliver one of these baccalaureate addresses to some college graduating class they must be pretty low down.

Yours,

WILL ROGERS.

Ford Delves Into Cost of Living

How $7-a-Day Worker Uses Money in Detroit Traced in Minutest Detail

Data Will be Made Basis for European Study to Find "Equal" Pay There

WASHINGTON, June 15. (Exclusive)—A survey showing for the first time how a $7-a-day worker and his family live in Detroit on the minimum wage now being paid in the Ford plants has just been completed by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics and forwarded to the international labor office in Geneva. On this basic survey comparative statistics will be assembled by the international office in seventeen European cities, the primary purpose of which will be to supply the Ford company with data on which it may base wages paid and to be paid abroad equal in purchasing power to those paid in Detroit.

The Detroit survey, in which six experts of the Department of Labor have been engaged for the last five months, was conducted under the supervision of J. C. Bowen, chief statistician of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The investigation to be made abroad by the international labor office will be directed by its chief statistician, and financed by the Twentieth Century Fund.

The value and significance of the Detroit survey in itself and as a basis for the comparative studies of living conditions abroad, was emphasized today by Ethelbert Stew-

TARIFF BILL SAFE NOW

President Says He'll Sign It

Hoover Makes Statement of Reasons for Approving Increase in Duties

Farmer Said to Get Most of Aid, With Flexible Plan Permitting Reforms

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 15. (Exclusive)—President Hoover announced tonight that he will sign the tariff bill. It is not a perfect measure, he said in effect, but its advantages to the country far outweigh whatever disadvantages may be found in its schedules while improvement in the administrative provisions provides the means for adjustment of inequalities and points the way toward a scientific business-like method of tariff revision.

In this connection Mr. Hoover expresses the belief that the new flexible provision not only will be successful in adjusting inequalities but represents a progressive advance and "gives hope of taking the tariff away from politics, lobbying and log rolling." It should, he said, operate to free the country from further general tariff revision for many years. He emphasizes, however, that if the flexible provisions should prove insufficient for effective action he will ask for further authority for the Tariff Commission.

OBJECTIVES OBTAINED

After lengthy analysis of the bill, Mr. Hoover expressed the opinion that it fulfills the purposes for which he sought revision in accordance with the platform pledges of the Republican party.

The President quotes a statistical estimate of the bill by the Tariff Commission indicating that while the average duties collected under the Fordney-McCumber Act of 1922 were about 13.8 of the total value of all imports the new law if applied would have increased this to 16 per cent. The proportion of imports which will be free of duty under the new law, he places at 61 to 63 per cent.

In general, the increases in duties in the bill, he points out, are largely directed to the interest of the farmer. He quotes the Tariff Commission as estimating that 93.73 per cent of the increases are on products of agricultural origin measured in value as distinguished from 6.25 per cent on nonagricultural commodities.

TEXT OF STATEMENT

The text of President Hoover's statement announcing he will sign the tariff bill follows:

"I shall approve the tariff bill. This legislation has now been under almost continuous consideration by Congress for nearly fifteen months. It was undertaken as the result of pledges given by the Republican party at Kansas City. Its declarations embraced these obligations:

"The Republican party believes that the home market built up under the protective policy belongs to the American farmer, and it pledges its support of legislation which will give this market to him to the full extent of his ability to supply it. . . .

"There are certain industries which cannot now successfully compete with foreign producers because of lower foreign wages and a lower cost of living abroad, and we pledge the next Republican Congress to an examination and where necessary a revision of these schedules to the end that the American labor in these industries may again command the home market, may maintain its standard of living, and may count upon steady employment in its accustomed field."

Platform promises must not be empty gestures. In my message of April 16, 1929, to the special session of the Congress I accordingly recommended an increase in agricultural protection; a limited revision of other schedules to take care of the economic changes necessitating increases or decreases since the enactment of the 1922 law, and I further recommended a reorganization both of the Tariff Commission and of the method of executing the flexible provisions.

A statistical estimate of the bill by the Tariff Commission shows that the average duties collected under the 1922 law were about 13.8 per cent of the value of all imports, both free and dutiable, while if the

HUGE ORDER GIVEN FOR AIRPLANES

War Department Awards $6,000,000 Contracts; Douglas Share $2,221,623

WASHINGTON, June 15. (AP)—Award of contracts for nearly $6,000,000 of airplanes, engines and accessories was announced today by the War Department.

A total of 402 new airplanes and 128 new engines, both with spare parts, will be added to the air corps force under these contracts. The engines to be supplied by the Wright Aeronautical Corporation of Patterson, N. J., at a cost of $742,643.13, are to be used in bombardment planes already contracted for, while the new planes are to be powered with Pratt and Whitney air-cooled engines, purchase of which is still being negotiated.

The Douglas Company of Santa Monica, Cal., received a $2,221,623.60 contract for 146 basic training planes and forty-four pursuit planes. A $1,543,183.90 contract for 131 pursuit planes was awarded the Boeing Airplane Company of Seattle; the Thomas-Morse Aircraft Corporation of Buffalo is to construct seventy-one observation planes at a cost of $1,018,120.20, and the Sikorsky Aviation Corporation of Bridgeport, Ct., will build ten amphibian planes for $473,832.65.

Suicide Leaves Legacy of Hate

NEW YORK, June 15. (Exclusive) Lonely widowhood and tuberculosis and accrued bitterness from these tragedies and the always-growing conviction that her relatives thought nothing of her pressed down on Mrs. Rosalie Barabell, 43 years of age, early today, and she took, for her, the easiest way out—suicide by gas.

But before she calmly went about the preparations for her death she arranged to leave behind her a dreadful legacy of hate. She wrote six notes to various members of her family, expressing the wish that "all the harm in the world will happen to you and your children," and more specifically, hoping they would be in auto crashes and would suffer broken legs, ill health and other misfortunes.

Three Killed as Army Plane Crashes Auto

HAMMOND (Ind.) June 15. (AP)—A man and his wife and their grand-daughter were killed today when an army observation plane trying to take off crashed into their sedan in Robertsdale, Ind., a suburb. Their daughter was perhaps fatally injured.

The dead are: Peter Brockman, 50 years of age, of Chicago; Mrs. Catherine Brockman, 45, his wife, and Virginia Sterling, 3, their grand-daughter.

The injured are: Mrs. Ernestine Sterling, 22, a widow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brockman. Lieut. Wilson V. Newhall, 28, the pilot, and Sergt. James Van Meter, 25, observer.

Newhall and Van Meter were not seriously injured and are both held in jail here. Police said they plan to confer with the Lake county Coroner relative to placing manslaughter charges against them after an investigation has been held.

Storm Wrecks Penal Colony

MEXICO CITY, June 15. (AP)—The Ministry of Communications was advised today that recent heavy storms in the Pacific severely damaged buildings on Tres Marias Islands, Mexico's penal colony, and caused great hardship to the 1000 inmates.

Great waves swept the islands, destroying the radio antennae and cutting off communication with the mainland. The salt deposits were flooded and work was suspended. All houses on the island occupied by women prisoners were destroyed and roads under construction ruined by the rushing waters.

Lightning Bolt Burns Off Hair

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS (Mo.) June 15. (AP)—A bolt of lightning today struck Fred Shelton, 36 years of age, a farmer here while he was asleep in his bed, reduced his pillow to fragments, completely burned his heavy shock of hair, and left him unconscious for an hour.

He suffered slight burns on the right arm and scalp and considerable shock, but the attending physician said he probably will recover.

The farmer's 2-year-old daughter, asleep in the room, was uninjured.

For the first time in several weeks he had to forego his outdoor period in a wheel chair.

TWO TAKE BUDDHIST VOWS

Idaho Men Ordained as Celibate, Homeless Monks Who Hope to Draw East and West Closer

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15. (Exclusive)—Two young Americans, the first ever to be ordained in this country as celibate and homeless Buddhist monks, took their vows this afternoon in the place of worship of the Zen Buddhist organization here.

Nyogen Senzaki, Buddhist monk and teacher and for the last ten years leader of the movement here, administered the vows and went through the picturesque ceremony of holding a knife above the heads of the neophytes and casting rose leaves upon them at the close of the ceremony.

The two men are L. A. Colburn, 21 years of age, and F. M. Ormsby, 2[illegible], both of Boise, Idaho. Colburn was given the Japanese name of Mokusai, and Ormsby, Koun. In taking their vows the men foreswore family and personalities, names, country and possessions. Their lives, it was explained, are to be devoted to religious study and teaching with the ideal of ultimately helping to bring Occident and Orient closer together, through the understanding of the similarity of ideals of the two worlds.

The holding of the knife over the bowed heads of the young monks symbolized the cutting away of worldly desires and when they actually don the yellow robes of Buddhist monks their heads will be shaved. The casting of the rose leaves symbolized the acceptance of the sweet spirit of Buddha into their lives. Buddha, according to tradition, was born in a rose arbor.

About fifty Americans and Japanese members of the Zen Buddhist organization were in attendance.

STORM AND FLOOD TAKE NINE LIVES

Seven Drown, Two Killed by Lightning, Others Hurt in West Texas

By the Associated Press

Nine persons were dead Sunday night, as a result of sudden floods and electrical storms in West Texas, which followed a general downpour of rain over that section during the last three days.

Mrs. Noris Durham and Mrs. Cora Whitaker of La Mesa were killed Saturday night, when a bolt of lightning struck Mrs. Durham's home during a severe electrical storm. Five others in the home, there for an ice-cream supper, were injured.

The injured were "Red" Best, Tom Best, Mrs. E. Vandivere, the baby son of Mrs. Whitaker and the baby daughter of Mrs. Durham.

The storm near La Mesa wrecked bridges, ruined many crops and blew down utility lines.

The bodies of Oscar Tidwell, his wife and their two children, Oscar, Jr., 8 years of age, and Edna Bell, 17, were recovered Saturday from the waters of Lake Creek in Knox county after a sudden freshet washed away the Tidwell home near Goree.

The body of Mrs. W. M. Gilliland, 80, mother of Mrs. Tidwell, was recovered today from Lake Creek.

Lindsey Phillips, 15, of near Kirven, was drowned Saturday when his automobile ran off the road into Tehuacana Creek, near Fairfield. P. C. Lee of Luling drowned Friday night when his automobile was swept from a creek crossing near San Angelo.

TORRENTIAL RAINS FLOOD OKLAHOMA

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 15. (AP) Torrential rains, accompanied by electrical displays, flooded Central, Eastern and Northeastern Oklahoma last night and early today, doing damage estimated at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Streams were sent out of their banks. Flood conditions on Bird Creek, Pawhuska, forced more than 250 Negroes to flee from their homes.

An unestimated amount of damage was done to ripened wheat. Traffic was paralyzed for hours in several sections.

DESTROYERS DISPATCHED TO MALTA

Seriousness of Situation Indicated by Britain's Latest Naval Move

LONDON, June 15. (Exclusive)—That the situation in Malta is more serious than first believed is indicated by a statement issued tonight announcing that the Third Destroyer Flotilla, comprising Great Britain's latest destroyers, left Gibraltar for Malta.

Lord Strickland of Sizergh, Prime Minister of Malta, who recently narrowly escaped assassination, at present is en route to London in a destroyer to confer with the Colonial Office, to which it is understood he will give the details of the incidents leading up to the present religious disturbances and attempt on his life.

A cable from Malta tonight states that a new police order has been issued prohibiting all demonstrations and gatherings of three or more persons in any public place.

CHICAGO MAY OUST MAYOR; POLICE HEAD WILL QUIT

Deputy Commissioner Under Fire; Action Sought to End Asserted Gangster-Politician Pacts

BY JOHN P. GALLAGHER
"Times" Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, June 15. (Exclusive)—Developments in the Lingle murder case today centered around movements for the ousting of Mayor Thompson, while Commissioner of Police Russell, who has been the center of aroused public opinion since the murder of the Chicago Tribune reporter last Monday, it was learned authoritatively tonight, will resign tomorrow, and a demand for the immediate resignation of Deputy Commissioner Stege in charge of detectives will be asked for tomorrow morning.

The move to oust Mayor Thompson and demand the resignation of Stege is to clean up the city from top to bottom and to break up the asserted alliances between the police, politicians and gangsters.

Quite as important as the capture of Reporter Lingle's assassins, in the view of prominent civic leaders who are behind the movement, is a clean-up of underworld activities—speakeasies, vice resorts and gambling places and various rackets—the vast revenues of which provide the sinews of war for the gang leaders and their hordes of hoodlums and racketeers.

STRONG MAN NEEDED

For strong and decisive remedial action it is recognized that Chicago must have a Mayor whose single purpose must be to clean up the city in all its administrative bureaus, the police department in particular, but all others also in which graft and laxity have contributed to the low morale of the city government.

Mayor Thompson has been singularly silent until the last day or two in all the furore and discussion which have followed the Lingle murder, but now his advisers have been forced into reserved action. The "big four" of the City Hall organization are conferring daily as to what course to pursue as the result of insistent demands of some of the daily newspapers, many civic organizations and anti-Thompson members of the City Council that Russell and Stege be ousted.

CITY'S "BIG FOUR"

The "big four" are County Treasurer Harding; Municipal Court Bailiff Snow, who also is Republican county chairman; Corporation Counsel Ettelson and Eugene R. Pike, former City Controller and former president of the Lincoln Park board. Indications are that they will advise the Mayor to toss Russell and Stege overboard.

The only way in which Mayor Thompson can be removed from office is by indictment and conviction on charges of malfeasance, nonfeasance or misfeasance of office. And it is rumored tonight that a suit specifying those charges is to be filed with State's Attorney Swanson.

In the event of Thompson's being ousted or resigning, the law is that the Council must fill the vacancy from its own membership where the unfinished term is less than one year. Ordinarily Thompson's term expires next April and as the uncompleted portion is less than a year an Alderman would succeed to the Mayor's chair.

CLARK FAVORED

Alderman Clark, a potential candidate in the next Democratic Mayoralty primary, is regarded by many of the Aldermen as the choice of the Council if the resignation is effected. Clark is now chairman of the Finance Committee and chairman of the Committee on Committees.

Some concrete expression of public opinion is expected to result from a closed-door meeting tomorrow of official, industrial and civic leaders at the call of Col. Robert I. Randolph, president of the Association of Commerce.

Chief Stege said he is ready to give an accounting of his year and half as head of the detective bureau with its 900 picked men and welcomes the opportunity of doing so. As to the Lingle case he said he believes he will be able to convince the Aldermen that the inquiry has progressed at top speed and with more than a hope of success.

Aldermen interviewed today could not predict what may happen but they say the general belief is that a thorough scrutiny of all the wheels of municipal government cannot help but be beneficial. They said they do not want to prejudice Stege or Russell but want to hear all the evidence for and against.

Numerous groups of ministers will meet tomorrow, as well as some civic organizations, and the same problems are to be discussed at all meetings, advance notices said. A later merging of all groups into one large meeting might result, it was

KILLERS AIM AT DRAMA

Chicago Stage in Grim Show

Gangsters Arrange Their Murders With Regard for Spectacular

Forces of Law and Order Evidence Like Trend With "Secret Six"

This is the second of a series of six articles in which Edwin Balmer, famous novelist, short story writer, reporter and editor of a national magazine, describes the crisis confronting Chicago and perhaps the nation in the gang warfare which has reached a climax in the killing of Alfred Lingle, newspaper reporter. Mr. Balmer is a native Chicagoan.

BY EDWIN BALMER
[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance.]

CHICAGO, June 15. (Exclusive)—A sense of showmanship afflicts Chicago. Even its gangsters have it; or especially the gangsters. As an art, murder flourishes and is rivaled, in its technical excellence, only by the more recently developed art of massacre.

Chicago really has not as many murders per hundred thousand possibilities as Memphis, for instance, or some other American cities which seldom or never achieve headlines of horror in newspapers from coast to coast. But the murders in Chicago and the massacres almost invariably are staged to make them memorable.

They are not merely utilitarian; there is a seeking by instinct for a splash of the spectacular. Some local genius of the gun nourishes the soul of a bloodthirsty Belasco. It was a stage manager at heart who arranged the setting for the seven who died with their faces to the wall and machine-gun bullets sweeping back and forth across them on the morning of St. Valentine's Day in 1929. The choice of the day alone smacked of the spectacular.

CASE OF HYMIE WEISS

Then there was the demise of Hymie Weiss in the shadow of the cathedral. He could have been killed much more simply. Anyone can.

There was both added expense and extra risk involved in the long and careful preparations for the thorough taking-off of Weiss. An upper room was engaged, opposite the cathedral; a machine gun was emplaced and carefully screwed to the floor. And, at the precisely most effective moment it sprayed bullets down and across the street through and through the human target and pock-marking the cathedral walls.

There was a gesture in this; the assassin required something more of himself than mere assurance of his enemy's destruction.

It was so, also, with the killer of Alfred Lingle. This was impressed upon me during a visit I paid to the Chicago Tribune. Lingle, being a reporter, was a singularly easy man to kill. If his mere murder were wanted, no one would have had to go to any great trouble about it, for Lingle's very occupation took him constantly to remote and unsafe places where he could not protect himself from a bullet and where there would be no witnesses.

ATTENTION SOUGHT

But his murderer chose a most public place and a time for the killing when he was surrounded by witnesses. He meant, therefore, not merely to put out of the way this reporter who had, presumably, in some way annoyed him; he meant

DAWES BRANDS GANGSTERS

Ambassador Says There'll be New Chicago Soon as Result of Clean-up Agitation

ENGLEWOOD (N. J.) June 15. (Exclusive)—Ambassador Dawes took the lead today in urging his fellow-Chicagoans and the nation in general to arrest the murderers of Alfred (Jake) Lingle, Chicago Tribune police reporter, shot from behind in Chicago one week ago tomorrow.

"Within a few months you'll see a new Chicago—the time has come for Chicago to act," the Ambassador to Great Britain declared today at the home of his fellow-Ambassador, Dwight W. Morrow, in Englewood.

"This certainly was a most barbarous outrage and it is time to act," Ambassador Dawes added.

The former Vice-President discussed the Lingle murder while he was speaking to a crowd on the Morrow lawn.

Ambassador Dawes said he did not know the slain veteran crime reporter of the Chicago Tribune personally, but they had many mutual friends. He was interested because he had always heard Lingle highly praised by these friends.

Ambassador Dawes, here on a visit partially in behalf of the cause of his friend, Morrow, would not discuss the report from Chicago that he will be asked to take the helm in an unprecedented revolution against crime rule in his home city.

HOOVER READY TO SIGN TARIFF

new law had been applied it would have increased this percentage to about 16.6 per cent.

This compares with the average level of the tariff under:

The McKinley law of 23 per cent.
The Wilson law of 20.9 per cent.
The Dingley law of 25.8 per cent.
The Payne-Aldrich law of 19.3 per cent.
The Fordney-McCumber law of 13.83 per cent.

Under the Underwood law of 1913 the amounts were disturbed by war conditions varying 6 per cent to 14.8 per cent.

The proportion of imports which will be free of duty under the new law is estimated at from 61 to 63 per cent. This compares with averages under:

The McKinley law of 52.4 per cent.
The Wilson law of 49.4 per cent.
The Dingley law of 45.2 per cent.
The Payne-Aldrich law of 52.5 per cent.
The Fordney-McCumber law of 63.8 per cent.

Under the Underwood law of 1913 disturbed conditions varied the free list from 60 per cent to 73 per cent, averaging 66.3 per cent.

MOSTLY FOR FARMER

The increases in tariff are largely directed to the interest of the farmer. Of the increases, it is stated by the Tariff Commission that 93.73 per cent are upon products of agricultural origin measured in value, as distinguished from 6.25 per cent upon commodities of strictly nonagricultural origin. The average rate upon agricultural raw materials shows an increase from 38.10 per cent to 48.92 per cent in contrast to dutiable articles of strictly other than agricultural origin which show an average increase of from 31.62 per cent to 34.31 per cent. Compensatory duties have necessarily been given on products manufactured from agricultural raw materials and protective rates added to these in some instances.

The extent of rate revision as indicated by the Tariff Commission is that in value of the total imports the duties upon approximately 22.5 per cent have been increased, and 77.5 per cent were untouched or decreased. By number of the dutiable items mentioned in the bill, out of the total of about 3300 there were about 890 increased, 235 decreased, and 2170 untouched. The number of items increased was, therefore, 27 per cent of all dutiable items, and compares with 83 per cent of the number of items which were increased in the 1922 revision.

This tariff law is like all other tariff legislation, whether framed primarily upon a protective or a revenue basis. It contains many compromises between sectional interests and between different industries. No tariff bill has ever been enacted or ever will be enacted under the present system, that will be perfect. A large portion of the items are always adjusted with good judgment but it is found to contain inequalities, and inequitable compromises. There are items upon which duties will prove too high and others upon which duties will prove to be too low.

Certainly no President, with his other duties, can pretend to make that exhaustive determination of the complex facts which surround each of these 3300 items, and which has required the attention of hundreds of men in Congress for nearly a year and a third. That responsibility must rest upon the Congress in a legislative rate revision.

FLEXIBLE PROVISION

On the administrative side I have insisted, however, that there should be created a new basis for the flexible tariff, and it has been incorporated in this law. Thereby the means are established for objective and judicial review of those rates upon principles laid down by the Congress, free from pressure inherent in legislative action. Thus, the outstanding step of this tariff legislation has been the reorganization of the largely inoperative flexible provision of 1922 into a form which should render it possible to secure prompt and scientific adjustment of serious inequities and inequalities which may prove to have been incorporated in the bill.

This new provision has even a larger importance. If a perfect tariff bill were enacted today, the increased rapidity of economic change and the constant shifting of our relations to industries abroad, will create a continuous stream of items which would work hardship upon some segment of the American people except for the provision of this relief.

Without a workable flexible provision we would require even more frequent Congresional tariff revision than during the past. With it the country should be free from further general revision for many years to come. Congressional revisions are not only disturbing to business but with all their necessary collateral surroundings in lobbies, log rolling and the activities of group interests, are disturbing to public confidence.

Under the old flexible provisions, the task of adjustment was imposed directly upon the President, and the limitations in the law which circumscribed it were such that action was long delayed and it was largely inoperative, although important benefits were brought to the dairying, flax, glass and other industries through it.

The new flexible provision establishes the responsibility for revisions upon a reorganized tariff commission, composed of members equally of both parties as a definite rate-making body acting through semi-judicial methods of open hearings and investigation by which items can be taken up one by one upon direction or upon application of aggrieved parties.

AUTHORITY GIVEN

Recommendations are to be made to the President, he being given authority to promulgate or veto the conclusions of the commission. Such revision can be accomplished without disturbance to business, as they concern but one item at a time, and the principles laid down assure a protective basis.

The principle of a protective tariff for the benefit of labor, industry and the farmer is established in the bill by the requirement that the commission shall adjust the rates so as to cover the differences in cost of production at home and abroad—and it is authorized to increase or decrease the duties by 50 per cent to effect this end. The means and methods of ascertaining such differences by the commission are provided in such fashion as should expedite prompt and effective action if grievances develop.

When the flexible principle was first written into law in 1922, by tradition and force of habit the old conception of legislative revision was so firmly fixed that the innovation was bound to be used with caution and in a restricted field, even had it not been largely inoperative for other reasons.

Now, however, and particularly after the record of the last fifteen months, there is a growing and widespread realization that in this highly complicated and intricately organized and rapidly shifting modern economic world, the time has come when a more scientific and businesslike method of tariff revision must be devised. Toward this the new flexible provision takes a long step.

These provisions meet the repeated demands of statesmen and industrial and agricultural leaders over the past twenty-five years. It complies in full degree with the proposals made twenty years ago by President Roosevelt. It now covers proposals which I urged in 1922.

If, however, by any chance the flexible provisions now made should prove insufficient for effective action, I shall ask for further authority for the commission, for I believe that public opinion will give whole-hearted support to the carrying-out of such a program on a generous scale to the end that we may develop a protective system free from the vices which have characterized every tariff revision in the past.

FOREIGN COMPLAINTS

The complaints from some foreign countries that these duties have been placed unduly high can be remedied, if justified, by proper application to the Tariff Commission.

It is urgent that the uncertainties in the business world which have been added to by the long-extended debate of the measure should be ended. They can be ended only by completion of this bill. Meritorious demands for further protection to agriculture and labor which have developed since the tariff of 1922 would not end if this bill fails of enactment. Agitation for legislative tariff revision would necessarily continue before the country. Nothing would contribute to retard business recovery more than this continued agitation.

As I have said, I do not assume the rate structure in this or any other tariff bill is perfect, but I am convinced that the flexible provisions can within reasonable time remedy inequalities; that this provision is a progressive advance and gives great hope of taking the tariff away from politics, lobbying and log rolling; that the bill gives protection to agriculture for the market of its products and to several industries in need of such protection for the wage of their labor; that with returning normal conditions our foreign trade will continue to expand.

HOOVER'S ANCESTORS TRACED

Forebears Lived in German Village

[Copyright, 1930, North American Newspaper Alliance and The Frankfurter Zeitung]

Ancestral Home Located

ELLERSTADT (Germany) June 15. (NANA)—Investigation by Profs. Macco of Berlin, and Haeberle of Heidelberg, have determined that the ancestral home of President Hoover was in Ellerstadt, and the old house still stands.

Ellerstadt is a little village near Bad Duerkheim, a region known for its fruit and wine. And it was from that town that Andreas Huber, forebear of Herbert Hoover, emigrated across the seas. Huber was born in Ellerstadt January 29, 1723, and he went to America when he was 15 years of age.

Huber's birth certificate has been preserved, and the old "christening stone" is still in existence. So is the church where Huber was christened. The house where he was born will be marked by a memorial plaque, to be placed there by the village community.

It is planned to make President Hoover an honorary citizen of Ellerstadt, and an invitation to visit the place of his ancestry will be sent him.

DRAMA GOAL OF GANGSTER

Chicago Serving as Stage for Grim Show

Spectacular Effect Feature in All Murders

Forces of Law and Order on Same Track

to get attention for his murder. Well, he got it.

Stagecraft, however, can be claimed by the other side; and here enters the "Secret Six." I understand that the title already has been copyrighted by some ambitious scenario writer. But the fact is, and it is vouched for by the president of the Chicago Association of Commerce, that the "Secret Six" exists in very actual and effective form, and day and night this group is doing its bit against the gangsters.

The scheme of the "Secret Six" certainly is the most original and entertaining idea by anyone on the side of law and order, and it has caught on decidedly. Other cities are beginning to copy it.

PLAN OF "SECRET SIX"

So far as it can now be told, this is the plan and personnel of the famous "Secret Six" and how they came about.

A few months ago a young man named Meagher was alive and alert at his job as contractor's superintendent, watching the erection of a building in Chicago. His business was to check materials and labor and so on. A couple of men drove up and calmly and deliberately shot him dead. Then they drove off.

The police failed to find these murderers, but they developed enough facts to show that the cause of the killing was displeasure at Meagher's alertness and watchfulness.

The Employers' Association appealed to the Association of Commerce to do something to discourage such terrorism. The Association of Commerce offered $5000 reward for evidence against the murderers, and organized a subcommittee on the punishment for crime.

This committee consulted State's Attorney Swanson, who said they could aid him most by providing a real secret service which would both find criminals and find evidence against them which he could take to court.

ONE KNOWN MEMBER

Now the reward and the idea of a citizens' secret service brought no results in the Meagher case, but they did lead to the formation of a permanent and secret committee of six, of which Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Association of Commerce, is the only known member.

The other members are known to each other, but to no one else. Not even the executive committee of the Association of Commerce knows them.

They employ a chief operative, or detective, who in turn employs a secret service force that reports only to him. No one but he knows who these operatives are or where they are or what they are doing.

They are paid with private contributions from leading merchants in Chicago, who do not know the men they pay or what they do for the money. The operatives are for the most part unknown to each other, and it is believed that they are wholly unknown to the police.

KIDNAPING CASE

They do not make arrests. Their business is to get evidence; and they have obtained it very effectively in certain cases. For instance, in a kidnaping case which the victim was afraid to bring to the police lest the kidnapers would know he was obtaining aid.

The kidnaping occurred February 23, last, and the case was brought to Col. Randolph March 5. By March 8, the operatives of the "Secret Six" had evidence which brought arrests, and June 4 three men were up for twenty years each for the crime.

In a case of terrorism by bomb the "Secret Six" caught the bomber on a Sunday, and on Friday of the same week he was starting a twenty-year sentence.

But all their work does not go into court. They were on a gangster case which came to a climax when four special police from the State's Attorney's office found themselves in a room with four gangsters who decided, more or less simultaneously, to shoot their way out. Two dead gangsters were the result.

In none of these cases did the "Secret Six" in any way appear. Indeed, competent newspaper men have told me that they class the six with Santa Claus; in other words, it is a pleasing name for processes which would have happened, anyway.

But Col. Randolph, who by profession is an engineer, and was a colonel in the engineers in France, assures me that there is such a "Santa Claus," and, more than that, that Kansas City is copying the idea, and that other cities fighting terrorism are thinking about it.

Police Commissioner Russell and Commissioner of Detectives Stege would not discuss the matter with me at all; they would neither deny nor confirm the useful existence of the "Secret Six."

Russell and Stege are direct, matter-of-fact men who are receiving a lot of criticism just now, and this is no place to pan them. It is far more fascinating to look about a little and listen a little more and find out what they are up against.

BADGES OF HEROES

Just outside Commissioner Russell's door is a large glass case which covers half a good-sized wall. In the case, placed close together, are the stars of Chicago policemen, who in recent years have been killed in line of duty. There are a mighty lot of them, each with the man's name and the date upon which he fell.

Look over the dates and you see them coming mighty fast, one after another, in recent months. And there is not room for the last score or so.

Here, surely, is a roll of honor to remind a Chief, who himself came up from the ranks, that his force is far different from what the critics say.

These stars speak only of the men who shot it out with gangsters and were slain. The stars of the police whose pistols shot a little quicker and a little straighter than the gangsters' guns are still upon their breasts.

CLEAN-UP SQUADS

These are the men leading the special clean-up squads Stege and Russell have sent forth. They are the "execution squads," so-called. They are led by Lieut. Frank Reynolds, credited with having killed eleven criminals; Lieut. Al Booth, who is said to have killed six; Lieut. Walter Storms, five; Lieut. William Cusack, four; Lieut. Pat O'Connell, five, and Lieut. Andy Barry, six.

Few, few indeed have been the convictions in court of gangsters in Chicago, but many are the police guns that have dealt double-deserved death.

You cannot get a clear picture of what is going on in Chicago or in any other American city until you see how a city looks to a policeman. And this I will try to tell you tomorrow.

The tenor of all organization notices was that Chicago must be renovated, and that such characters as George "Bugs" Moran, "Scarface" Al Capone, the O'Donnels, and less important gang chiefs must go at once.

GAMBLING DISCLOSED

Efforts to establish a motive which might have caused the murder of Lingle have led to an investigation of his private financial affairs. It has been discovered that he was in the habit of carrying large sums of cash about his person; that he plunged on horse races; that he speculated in stock, winning and losing with the ups and downs of the recent turbulent stock market days.

These facts, along with many rumors, are the subject of a minute investigation which is being conducted to determine whether Lingle's money affairs had any connection with his death. At present the information is intangible, but the inquiry is to be completed so that full and definite information may be in the hands of the authorities. Investigation has shown that Lingle borrowed money from a large number of persons. Pending the discovery of all his debts and of all his assets it was impossible to estimate the condition of his estate, but it is now believed that the debts will far exceed the assets.

SURVEY SHOWS COST OF LIVING

art, United States commissioner of labor statistics.

REPORT QUOTED

Mr. Stewart in his report called: "An International Survey of Real Wages," says in part:

"In May, 1929, the international labor office received from the Ford Motor Company a request which involved a problem of extraordinary interest to labor and industry in both the United States and Europe. The request was for information as to what minimum wage rates it would be necessary for the Ford Motor Company to pay in each of several European cities in order to permit of a standard of living equivalent to that enjoyed by the Detroit employees who received the minimum wage of $7 per day.

"The Detroit study has now been completed and will be published in the immediate future. The study covered 100 families, each consisting of a husband, wife, and two or three children. The husbands were receiving approximately $7 each per day during the year 1929, working an average of 250 days during the year, and having total annual expenditures averaging $1719.83.

NUMEROUS ITEMS

"For each of these 100 families a schedule was obtained showing the expenditure for every item purchased during the year and, as far as possible, the physical quantity of each item purchased. The schedule was very detailed, containing no less than 480 items varying in economic importance from rent and coal to canned milk and matches.

"The averages for the 100 schedules are a picture of the standard of living of these families. As regards money costs, it was found that the average total expenditure of $1719.83 was divided as follows: "Food, $551.12 (32.3 per cent;) clothing, $210.67 (12.2 per cent;) housing, $388.81 (22.6 per cent;) fuel and light, $103.20 (6 per cent;) furniture and furnishings, $88.55 (5.2 per cent) and minor and miscellaneous items, $372.48 (21.7 per cent.)"

YES, EVANGELIST WILL PAY FINES

But It Doesn't Seem Right to Fezzed Preacher

people will think that I bought a French gown."

The mere suggestion that Mrs. McPherson had been caught removing a label from a French gown adding to the frivolity of having been suspected of buying a French gown brought another snappy denial.

"If I were going to remove labels I'd do it before I came in," she said, banging the lid of a suit case shut. "The customs men never even mentioned fines to me. But if the country needs money I'm glad to chip in. I understand it's been having a hard time."

Next time she comes in Mrs. McPherson will declare everything, even things that are worn to rags like the black satin slippers and the hat from Budapest, now jaded and rumpled. She made that clear as she draped herself in the most becoming of the oriental robes to have her photograph taken.

Her hair, once titian and abundantly piled on top of her head, is now pure gold and bobbed. Mrs. McPherson droped many pounds on her pilgrimage and the lines of her face are thinner and her figure more modish than in the past.

HAIR "NEVER CHANGED"

"Nonsense," she laughed when asked if her hair had not been bobbed. "My hair has always been the same. It's never been changed."

She planted the Turkish fez securely on the stray locks that were once securely fastened with hair pins and draped an embroidered sash around her waist. She said she will wear the robes in Angelus Temple but denied she has already appeared in public in her oriental trappings. A heavy silver necklace studded with turquoises and hung with coins was swung around her neck. It came in under the "accessories" of her costumes.

Roberta, her daughter, who is also an evangelist, fell from one deck to another on the steamer as it approached Constantinople, said Mrs. McPherson. She was badly injured and was in a hospital for three weeks. Then her mother deserted her followers for the time being to take Roberta to Grandmother Semple in Ireland where she will stay for a year.

STATIONS ALL OVER

"Roberta is visiting all our Gospel stations," her mother explained. "We have them in Africa, India, all over."

The pilgrimage was marvelous, she said, with prayer meetings and complete accord among her followers. They all returned ahead of her, most of them bringing bottles of Jordan River water home with them.

"I'm sorry I did not think of doing that," said Mrs. McPherson, who was reported to have some Jordan water among her confiscated possessions. However, she bought some Bibles, lamps and sundry odds and ends for the temple which are coming subsequently and are going through in bond to Los Angeles.

Mrs. McPherson was continually being offered cigarettes by Turks and Arabs who plied her with perfumes, coffee and all their wares.

"But I told them I never smoked," she declared. "I visited the homes of the people. They always manage to get something out of you. Friends who were with me became interested in two Arabs boys and arranged to pay for their schooling."

ILLUSIONS NOT LOST

Mrs. McPherson had been warned that she ran the risk of losing her illusions about the Holy Land by visiting it, but this was not her experience, she said.

"I have longed all my life to see those hills and dales," she said. "I had prayed that I would have the time and the money to go. People told me I was a dreamer and idealist and that I would regret my trip. When I got there I found railroads and automobiles, but 'Jerusalem the Golden' had remained untouched. The walls and the gates were there as one had pictured them. Camels and donkeys laden with incense, spices and silks moved along the narrow streets. The colors were bright and arresting. Biblical figures moved in droves in bright embroideries and the sun went down over domed roofs. It was marvelous."

Mrs. McPherson's capable hand swept her brow. She is tired, she said, and a little homesick for Angelus Temple. As soon as she settles her little difficulties with the customs officials she will leave for California and expects to arrive there on Saturday.

Racer Killed in Tuning-up

PORTLAND (Or.) June 15. (AP)—Charles McGinnis, 31 years of age, of Gresham, Or., automobile racer, was killed here today when his racing car overturned and crashed through a fence. He was tuning up his car preparatory to entering one of the events at the Portland speed bowl.

McGinnis, who conducted a service station at Gresham, was known in amateur racing circles in the Northwest.

GILBERT OFFERS BERLIN WARNING

Radical Reform for Budget Declared Essential

Final Report Rendered by Reparations Chief

Nation Found Capable of Meeting Obligations

BERLIN, June 15. (AP)—Warning that Germany can meet her obligations under the Young plan and develop industrially, only by immediate and radical budget reform, was sounded today by S. Parker Gilbert, agent-general for reparations under the Dawes plan, in his final report.

Mr. Gilbert's report points with satisfaction to the accomplishments under the outgoing Dawes plan, and expressed conviction that Germany is able to meet the Young-plan obligations. The agent-general, whose task ends with the start of Young-plan operations, also said Germany is capable of a great industrial future. The document summarized the course of reparations during the five years of Mr. Gilbert's stewardship.

COLLAPSE AVERTED

"When the experts of the Dawes committee here called together at the beginning of 1924, Germany was on the point of collapse after an unprecedented period of inflation," says the report.

"Reparations were not being paid and prospects for future payments were uncertain. With stabilization of currency and adoption of the Dawes plan, there came the turning point in German reconstruction, and in the succeeding years German economy has made remarkable progress.

"Germany's credit has been re-established both at home and abroad, her industries have been reorganized, and her productive capacity has been restored, and the general standard of living has greatly improved.

"This result has been achieved primarily through the industry and energy of the German people, but the people of other countries have also asisted in a large measure by making their savings available for rebuilding of German economy.

DEFINITE TASK

"The Dawes plan, as was its object, also cleared the way for complete and final settlement of the reparations problem, which is embodied in the Young plan and The Hague agreements of January 20, 1930. The new plan is an act of confidence in the good faith and financial integrity of Germany, and Germany now has a definite task to perform on her own responsibility, without foreign supervision and without the transfer protection provided by the Dawes plan.

"Under the new conditions Germany has both the whole responsibility and the normal incentive to put her public finances in order, and there is no doubt that this problem, which is now the most urgent one confronting the German people, can also be solved, and solved on sound basis if anything like the same efforts are now applied to the reform of the public finances as has been devoted during the period of the Dawes plan to the general rebuilding of the German economy."

The budget for 1929-1930, with an apparent gross deficit of about 1,075,000,000 of marks is characterized in the report as perhaps the most unsatisfactory since stabilization.

UNWILLINGNESS SHOWN

"There is evidence of unwillingness on the part of both government and Parliament squarely and promptly to face the situation by taking the necessary steps either to control expenditure or to provide adequate resources to cover them," the report says. "The budget of the Reich, it is clear, has not suffered from lack of revenues though it has been shown in the past year that the great increases of previous years cannot be counted on to recur indefinitely and that there are practical limits beyond which taxation cannot well be pushed. But the actual returns for 1929-1930 still show the same high revenues from taxation as in 1928-1929, and with sources of revenue which are released under the Young plan, and increased taxes recently imposed, the Reich is budgeting in the current year for total revenues from all sources about 11,000,000,000 reichsmarks. It remains to be seen to what extent these estimates may be affected by the world-wide fall of commodity prices and the recession in business, but even with full allowance for these factors, it is abundantly clear that the essential material exists, on the revenue side, for sound development of a budget.

"The difficulties from which the budget of the Reich has been suffering are on the side of expenditure."

ITEMS COVERED UP

The Gilbert report incidentally complains of unnecessary complication in budgetary presentation, which "is ideally calculated to obscure the real position, and there is no doubt it has been responsible largely for persistent growth in public expenditure beyond the limits of resources available."

The report suggests regular publication of financial statements such as are usually issued by other governments, adding that "the statements now published show constant confusion between the budgetary position and the cash position."

The court says the Reich's public debt rose 1,043,000,000 during the past year to 10,353,000,000 marks with the German national income standing at 70,000,000,000 marks, which latter sum is about 30 per cent higher than the national income five years ago. Allowances being made for growth in population and changes in price level, the national income has risen by 15 per cent per capita.

Savings bank deposits at the end of 1929 aggregated 9,000,000,000. Regarding wages, the average level increased about 3 per cent in the past year, which is less than half the previous year's rise.

SOCIAL OUTLAYS

Social expenditures, says the report, constitute one of the principal budget charges. They have grown from 259,000,000 to 1,345,000,000 in the course of the last five years as a result of the Reich's becoming involved in subsidizing and contributing to social insurance organizations, and making good the shrinkage of their assets caused by inflation. Widespread unemployment also has been a factor.

Constantly new measures of relief have been adopted without adequate consideration of the financial consequences, the report observes.

On the other hand, the maintenance of the foreign trade balance may be regarded, the report states, as the most promising commercial development. On the whole, the value of exports has risen steadily ever since the re-establishment of orderly conditions after the inflation period.

LARGE INCREASE

Statistics show the average year-to-year increase to be about 1,000,000,000 marks. During the final month of 1929 and the beginning of 1930, the report notes a recession mainly through uncertainty regarding the public finances and the fact that "capital which otherwise would have been available for productive business has been largely absorbed by the ever-pressing demand of the public authorities."

NEW YORK, June 15. (Exclusive) How Mrs. Maude D. Lord and private detectives saw an impromptu Hollywood love scene—with Kenneth Lord, New York cotton millionaire, churchman, and Josephine Norman, flicker star, are described in divorce papers in an action launched today by the New York matron.

The papers, filed in Supreme Court, will be brought from the court's archives at New City, Rockland county, tomorrow, when Justice Morschauer at White Plains is asked to sign an order substituting Denman, Bevier & Scottie as counsel for Mrs. Lord, who weighs 285 pounds.

BORED PEEP HOLES

According to the society woman's charges, Lord, a leader in activities of the Episcopal Church in New York, was trailed by herself and hired detectives through the movie colonies of Los Angeles on warm midsummer nights in 1926.

Their sleuthing was rewarded one evening, it is stated, when the pursuers learned that Lord and the brunette film beauty planned a tete a tete in a suite at a small hotel on the outskirts of Hollywood.

Accompanied with mechanics armed with augers, the peeping party engaged rooms on either side of that to be occupied by Lord and the mechanics got down to business. One foot above the floor peek holes were drilled and Mrs. Lord and her hirelings peeped, according to the affidavits, observing Lord, scarcely looking his 50 years, entering the room, accompanied by Miss Norman and a hip flask, filigreed in silver.

WATCHERS BURST IN

A few moments later, the affidavits set forth, they were in each other's arms. Soon the watchers burst in on the love birds.

Mrs. Lord, who was accompanied on the raid by Mrs. Elaine Davis Anderson and Allen Davies, two children by a former marriage, in addition to the detectives, left shortly after for the East to begin preparations for severing her marital ties.

Under a separation agreement Mrs. Lord has been receiving until recently, $2000 monthly temporary alimony, but a short time ago this figure was reduced to $700.

GIANTS OF PAST FOUND IN MOUNDS

West Virginia Yields Skeletons From Seven to Nine Feet Tall

SALEM (W. Va.) June 15. (AP)—Excavation of two mounds near Morganville, about twelve miles west of here, has revealed what Prof. Ernest Sutton, head of the history department of Salem College, believes is valuable evidence of a race of giants who inhabited this section of West Virginia more than 1000 years ago.

Skeletons of four mound builders, indicating they were from seven to nine feet tall, have been uncovered. Prof. Sutton believes they were members of a race known to anthropologists as Siouan Indians.

Data on the discovery will be submitted to the Smithsonian Institution.

In one mound was a lone skeleton, believed by Sutton to be a tribal chief or ruler, while in the other larger mound three skeletons were found together.

The tribal leader was found completely incased in a chamber carefully prepared from large, flat rocks, sealed with clay.

Court Upholds $46,025 Award in Love Theft

HARTFORD (Ct.) June 15. (Exclusive)—The Connecticut Supreme Court has decided that $46,025 is not an excessive amount of damages to soothe the feelings of a Yale medical student who returned to his apartment to find his bride in the arms of a wealthy rival. Divorced as a result, the ex-wife has entered a convent.

In announcing the decision, the court reversed the judgment of Superior Judge Peasley, who held that the jury which heard the tale of the student, young Vincent Dorosseka, was moved by "excessive sympathy," and cut the verdict to $14,000.

The man who must pay is Harry Lavine, millionaire hotel owner.

PASSENGER KILLED AS PLANE CRASHES

POTTSTOWN (Pa.) June 15. (AP) A passenger was killed and a pilot seriously injured in an airplane crash near here today. Hansyl Johnson, 24 years of age, of Clearfield, died soon after being taken to a hospital. Milton Fritsche, 24, Merion, suffered fractures of the skull and legs. The men, executives of a restaurant chain in Philadelphia, were attempting to land at a farm to visit Fritsche's parents, when the plane fell.

NAVY CRAFT ASSIGNED FOR HERMOSA FETE

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 15. (Exclusive)—At the request of Senator Shortridge, the Navy Department today assigned the U.S.S. Greer to participate in the July 4 celebration at Hermosa Beach, Cal. The vessel is commanded by Admiral Frank H. Schofield.

No SUBSTITUTE for a BANK Account

THE WORD "BANK" in California is protected by law. It cannot be used except by institutions which conform with the law...State or National...designed to make a BANK a SAFE place to put your money.

The bulwark of thrift in the United States for more than a century has been the Savings Account in a BANK. For more than forty years, present officers of Security-First National Bank have been successfully investing savings deposits. The last published statement of the Bank showed Savings Deposits of $334,728,976; Capital and Surplus $45,000,000; Total Resources over $580,000,000.

We have never consented to any lowered standards of safe investment for savings deposits. We feel that we cannot preserve our standards and pay depositors more than 4%, compounded semi-annually, on Term Savings Accounts.

Are you accumulating a competency? Do you have a Savings Account in Bank for emergency or for opportunity? There is no substitute for a Bank Account.

LA VIDA FOR LIFE

A FRANK TALK ON YOUR HEALTH

By The Health Man

Illness is more than a pain—more than suffering—more than mere inflammation in one part of the body. Illness is a disordered and upset condition of the ENTIRE SYSTEM.

* * * *

Each particular ailment is the outcropping of that upset condition — and if you are to recover your health, you must get your entire system back to normal.

* * * *

One condition of the system leads all others as a cause of trouble. That condition is called the excess acid condition—it means excessive acidity of the blood, of the tissues, of every part of the body.

* * * *

And such ailments as various forms of stomach, digestive and intestinal disorders, rheumatism, arthritis, neuritis, kidney and bladder ills, liver troubles, diabetes, high blood pressure and stomach ulcers, are very often accompanied by the excess acid condition, which MUST be altered for restoration of health.

At last there has been found in the United States—right here in Southern California—a remarkable natural mineral water that is similar to the world-famous European mineral waters which have been used for centuries by millions of people in restoring their health.

* * * *

Noted scientists in Europe and America say that LA VIDA MINERAL WATER, which flows hot from the earth at Carbon Canyon, 30 miles from Los Angeles, is in some ways superior to the famous European springs, such as Vichy and Carlsbad—and its work is to neutralize, counteract and eliminate excess acid conditions, and to help bring the entire system back to normal.

* * * *

It is pleasant and palatable — and there is no other water like it in the United States.

* * * *

The discovery of the value of LA VIDA MINERAL WATER has caused a sensation.

* * * *

Thousands of men and women have used it and are using it today, and it is their actual experience with LA VIDA in the ailments enumerated above that leads me to urge you to give it a chance to help YOU.

NATIONALISTS RALLY ARMIES

Counter-Offensive Against Rebels in Preparation

Kwangsi Province Troops Inflict Heavy Losses

State of Anarchy Reported in Coastal Territory

SHANGHAI, June 15. (AP)—Nationalist armies defending the tri-cities of Hankow, Wuchang and Hanyang from the assaults of rebel troops, reorganized tonight for a counter-offensive after having suffered severe losses before a drive by Kwangsi troops.

The Nationalists suffered heavy losses yesterday before the advance of rebel troops from Kwangsi Province, but the exact state of hostilities is unknown because of the strict military censorship. Vigilance of the censors has resulted in a virtual stoppage of telegraph communication between Hankow and the coast.

Advices from Southeast Hupeh Province state Communist troops have evacuated Tayeh and Hwangshihkang after plundering the cities, and conditions there are said to be quiet. About 1000 refugees fled to Hankow.

ANARCHY IN FUKIEN

While Nationalist troops are striving to stem the advance of rebel armies on widely separated fronts, other reports indicate that the coastal Province of Fukien is in a state of anarchy.

Dispatches from Amoy say widespread disorders apparently are increasing steadily as bandits and Communists move incurbed through the countryside, harassing the population. Former dispatches from this area said the bandits killed farmers in batches as a warning against retaliation. As a result a steady influx of refugees has descended on port cities, especially Amoy and Foochow.

Conditions inland from Amoy seem especially confused, because the Communists appear to be strengthening their power, while around Foochow, a strong body of anti-Nanking independent soldiery is challenging the power of the Nationalists. The limited forces of the latter have been able only to prevent the rebels from occupying the city of Foochow itself.

DESTROYERS RESENTED

Presence of British and American destroyers in Chinese waters has drawn sharp criticism from Chinese radicals who assert "the imperialistic gunboat policy of the foreigners under quiet conditions is more harmful than good."

Chinese dispatches from Mukden received here today quote Chang Hsueh-liang, military Governor of Manchuria, as threatening to hurl Manchurian forces into the civil war against the northern alliance rebels, unless rebel leaders accept Chang's offer of mediation.

Chang, son of the late Manchurian war lord, Chang Tso-lin, already has begun mobilization preparatory to setting his troops in action, the dispatches say.

The militarist, in his new role of peace-maker, assertedly brands the present civil war as a "disgrace to national prestige and a hindrance to the progress of the Chinese people."

His offer, with its accompanying threat, is said to have been contained in telegrams sent to northern rebel leaders, Feng Yu-hsiang and Yen Hsi-shan.

ANTIPIRATE MOVE

Ravages of pirates on coastal and transoceanic shipping plying along the Chinese coast resulted today in announcement of the organization of a squadron of especially trained antipirate guards. The guards, numbering 200, whose organization has just been completed, will assume their duties July 1. next.

Detachments of the guard, organized by owners of four British coastwise and transoceanic lines, will be assigned to vessels carrying passengers between Shanghai and Singapore, to protect them from the ever-present danger of attacks from Chinese pirates. For centuries these freebooters have victimized commercial vessels on the eastern shore of Asia.

The patrol, organization of which is a new departure in the long-existing battle against China's daring buccaneers, will be known as "the Hongkong antipirate guards."

CHINESE GOVERNOR VICTIM OF ASSASSIN

CANTON (Kwangtung, China) June 15. (AP)—Lin Liu Huan Yen, Governor of Kwangsi Province, which adjoins Kwangtung on the west, was assassinated today by a bodyguard as he was eating at the Asia Hotel. He was shot in the back.

Liu's assassin fled into the street and was captured by police. He said the commander of the Kwangsi rebel group had offered him $10,000 and the rank of colonel in the rebel army if he would kill Liu, who was here on a visit.

RACE BEGINNINGS SET BACK

Ruins of Ancient City Unearthed by Road Builders in Mexico Add New Chapters to Dim Past

[Copyright, 1930, by the Chicago Tribune]

MEXICO CITY, June 15.—Finds along the highway which the government is building to connect Oaxaca with the famous ruins of Monte Alban in the neighboring mountains, has set back the origin of the race greatly, according to a statement from Oaxaca today.

In a cut in the mountains which ran through conglomerate rock composed largely of volcanic ash, clay and river stone, the road builders came upon the remains of what appears to be a very ancient buried city which existed before the lava flows that covered large sections of Western Mexico in the prehistoric ages.

While the clay figures found are Mongolian in appearance, the headdresses and their symbolism are different from anything heretofore found in America. Moreover the pottery and figures show a much more advanced civilization than any previously found among the races to which the early Mongol-appearing peoples of Mexico belonged. According to the report the Zapotecas, a highly civilized artistic race of ancient origin still inhabiting the State of Oaxaca, inherited the culture of the early races who lived in Southern Mexico before the great volcanic activity and accompanying lava flows and volcanic ash showers.

All this makes the Zapotecas candidates for the honors of possessors of the oldest civilization in Mexico, leaving in the rear Toltecs, Aztecs and Mayans.

Modern Zapotecan pottery is strangely figurative, with complicated designs on the headdresses and ornaments. This has puzzled archeologists. So the story comes from Oaxaca that the same design is found in the recently uncovered primitive city, whose inhabitants had almond eyes and high cheek bones like the modern Chinese.

Cannon Urges Speed for Dry Bills' Passage

WASHINGTON, June 15. (AP)—Scarcely out of the hands of the Senate Lobby Committee, whose efforts to question him on his anti-Smith activities of 1928 he successfully defied, Bishop James Cannon, Jr., has petitioned the Senate to pass before adjournment the law enforcement commission measures already approved by the House.

The bills in question would permit juryless trials of minor violators before United States commissioners. The Judiciary Committee is the parent body which was assigned the lobby investigation. Its chairman, Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, appointed the Lobby Committee with which Bishop Cannon has been in conflict.

AMERICAN CORN PEST FOUND IN MISSOURI

QUINCY (Ill.) June 15. (Exclusive)—The American corn borer has been discovered in some sections of Missouri in the vicinity of Shelbina. The little worm starts at the top of the plant and works down toward the root. The American corn borer is unlike its European cousin in that it appears about June 10 while the European corn borer does not appear until mid-July and the former can be eliminated by crop rotation. They are very destructive, however, the year they appear.

Hunt Begun for Seven Men Lost on Boating Trip

TOLEDO (O.) June 15. (AP)—Searching parties were organized here tonight to visit Lake Erie islands to hunt for seven Toledo men who may have drowned yesterday while racing in a speedboat to Pelee Island to attend the Elks' annual picnic.

The speedboat was found this morning, drifting near West Sister Island. In it were three life preservers and a hat. No trace of any bodies was found.

The men missing are Charles H. Nauts, internal revenue collector for the Toledo district; Franklin B. Jones, former member of the Lucas County Board of Elections; Herbert Nauts, an attorney and brother of Charles H. Nauts; Arthur Kruse, president of the Kruse-Burman Mortuary Company; Frank Miller, former city water commissioner; Henry Heinbush, assistant County Engineer, and John Myers, who was piloting the speedboat.

Mother Seeks Famous Youth

SACRAMENTO, June 15. (AP)—The State Department of Education has been asked to assist in locating one of the country's most widely known youths. Probably few know his name, but his face is familiar to almost every magazine reader, for his picture has appeared in advertisements of the Staunton Military Academy in many publications of national circulation.

The boy is Robert Lee Goss, Jr., and he was last seen with his father, a member of the Schell Brothers' Circus, in Los Angeles.

The request for aid came from the boy's mother, Mrs. Robert Lee Goss, 4123 Belle avenue and Palace Boulevard, Bayside, Long Island, N. Y. She claims to be a niece of a former New York Governor. She stated her husband deserted her to join the circus and took the boy with him.

THREE COUNTIES CENSUS STRAWS

Fresno, Madera and Merced Show 20 Per Cent Gain

Oregon State Increase Set at More Than Fifth

Louisville, Ky., Adds Rank by Taking in Suburbs

FRESNO. June 15. (AP)—According to preliminary figures prepared by Glen V. Slater, census supervisor of California District No. 11, embracing Fresno, Madera and Merced counties, a gain of 19.8 per cent is shown in the 1930 census over 1920.

The combined total of the three counties for 1930 is 198,421, as against 165,561 in 1920, a gain of 32,860. Fresno county's population is now 144,369, a gain of 15,590 over the 128,779 in 1920, or 12.1 per cent.

Merced county has a population of 36,900, as against 24,579 in 1920, a gain of 12,321, or 50.3 per cent.

Madera county has a population of 17,152, as compared with 12,208 in 1920, a gain of 4949, or 24.6 per cent.

Fresno city and adjoining territory is shown to have a population of 78,167, as against 63,924 in 1920. This is a gain of 22.2 per cent.

OREGON'S ESTIMATED INCREASE 22 PER CENT

PORTLAND (Or.) June 15. (AP)—Census returns from twenty-six of the thirty-six counties in Oregon show a population of 757,328, an increase of 135,177, or 21.7 per cent over the 1920 census.

In 1920 these same counties represented 84.5 per cent of the total population of the State. Estimated on this basis the total population of Oregon now is approximately 953,000. If returns bear out these figures the increase during the past decade will be greater than has ever been reported for the State in any previous census.

LOUISVILLE ADDITIONS GAIN HIGHER RANK

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) June 1. (AP)—The 1930 population of Louisville was announced today as 307,808, an increase of 72,917, or 31.12 per cent.

The city had a population of 234,891 ten years ago and its growth enabled it to pass Columbus and Toledo, O.; Providence, R. I., and Portland, Or. Extension of the city limits added about 35,000, this being finally approved in 1923.

Today's announcement was on preliminary figures but Robert E. Woods, Supervisor, said it had been delayed to insure making it as nearly accurate as possible.

OKLAHOMA POPULATION SHOWS 13 PER CENT GAIN

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 15. (AP) Oklahoma's 1930 population was set at 2,388,955, when official figures and census estimates were released on State counties tonight. This year's figure represents an increase of 360,702, or 12.75 per cent over the 1920 count of 2,028,283.

KING'S DIVORCE MORALLY NULL

Rumanian Church Synod not to Recognize Decree

Legal Action Still Needed to Unite Royal Pair

Mme. Lupescu to Remain Out of Carol's Realm

BUCHAREST, June 15. (AP)—It was learned today that the divorce of King Carol II and Queen Helen has been morally but not legally annulled.

The Holy Synod of the Rumanian Orthodox Church announced to the King, through a delegation of high prelates, that it has decided not to recognize the divorce, thus making it morally nonexistent, but added that full legal annulment can come only through the courts that granted the decree to Helen two years ago.

Hence to all intents and purposes the divorce is out of the way of a reconciliation, and legal action to remove the decree entirely is considered to be the next step.

Meanwhile friends of the royal family believe that a reconciliation of the King and Queen is not far off.

King Carol is said to be ill from overwork and tomorrow may go to Castle Pelesch, in Sinaia, for a three-day rest. His departure has not been definitely fixed, and depends on his condition.

KING'S DIVORCE MORALLY NULL

Rumanian Church Synod not to Recognize Decree

Legal Action Still Needed to Unite Royal Pair

Mme. Lupescu to Remain Out of Carol's Realm

BUCHAREST, June 15. (AP)—It was announced today that the divorce of King Carol II and Queen Helen has been morally but not legally annulled.

The Holy Synod of the Rumanian Orthodox Church announced to the King, through a delegation of high prelates, that it has decided not to recognize the divorce, thus making it morally nonexistent, but added that full legal annulment can come only through the courts that granted the decree to Helen two years ago.

Hence to all intents and purposes the divorce is out of the way of a reconciliation, and legal action to annul the decree entirely is considered to be the next step.

Meanwhile friends of the royal family believe that a reconciliation of the King and Queen is not far off.

King Carol is said to be ill from fatigue and tomorrow may go to Castle Pelesch, in Sinaia, for a [illegible]-day rest. His departure has not been definitely fixed, and depends on his condition.

Denial that Mme. Magda Lupescu, companion of Carol when he was a prince in exile, has any intention of returning here at present was issued by a high official today.

The statement said the report that Mme. Lupescu was hurrying here to prevent a reconciliation between Carol and Queen Helen originated with newspaper correspondents here and at Budapest, Hungary. One rumor was that she would be made one of Queen Helen's ladies of honor, while another credited Mme. Lupescu with planning the coup which brought Carol home from exile in his successful bid for the throne.

JAZZ FOUND TO HURT EARS

Many People Suffer From High Vibrations of Popular Music

GUNNISON (Colo.) June 15. (AP)—A possible reason why some persons dislike jazz is found in hearing peculiarities discovered by E. Russell Wightman.

He says in a report to the southwestern division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science that there is a large variation in the high notes which can be heard by different individuals.

Some persons can hear nothing higher than 4000 vibrations a second, while others hear 50,000 vibrations.

"HAIR ROOTS" never DIE!

H—HAIR SHAFT. P—PAPILLA from which the hair is nourished. The papilla is the "mother of hair" and from it new hair is born as the old hair falls out—IF the scalp is healthy. The Thomas' make and keep scalps healthy.

(©. 1927.

YOU men who have thinning hair or who are bald perhaps have been told that because your hair "roots" are dead you can never enjoy a healthy growth of hair. This is untrue, as the hair grows not from roots that come out when the hair comes out, but from papillae that are alive in the scalp as long as the body itself lives. These minute organs of hair production become inactive and do not grow new hair when the scalp is lacking in proper nourishment and stimulation.

New Growth of Hair is Possible

The Thomas' treatment removes all scalp disorders, including dandruff and falling hair, and promotes a growth of new hair visible on the scalp generally within a few weeks. With this distinctive sixteen-year proven method available you cannot afford to waste your time and money on experimental treatments and remedies. Nor can you afford to impair your personal appearance by remaining bald or partially bald. The Thomas' positively remove all scalp disorders and re-grow hair.

Seclusion of Women Custom Goes Into Discard

End of "Purdah" Hailed by Gandhi Followers

War on Liquor Also Looms as Further Outcome

CALCUTTA (India) June 15. (AP) Followers of Mahatma Gandhi in h's civil disobedience campaign today proclaimed that "Purdah," the seclusion of women, is doomed, since women have left the privacy of their homes to aid in the struggle for independence.

They exulted today in the fact that Indian women, who for centuries have preferred the seclusion of their homes, have been given what is considered a New World status by the Simon Commission, which took particular cognizance of women's part in the disobedience struggle. Spokesmen said women had shaken off the purdah chrysalis, enabling them to see and help in the Gandhi fight with unveiled eyes.

In furtherance of the movement Gandhi's subalterns today issued a new appeal as follows:

FREEDOM'S CALL

"Away with ancient purdah! Come out of the kitchens, quick! Fling the pots and pans rattling into corners! Tear the cloth from your eyes and see the new world. Let your husbands and brothers cook for themselves. There is much work to be done to make India a nation!"

The activities of the women in Calcutta, Bombay, Madras and other centers will soon be concentrated upon making a success of the Nationalist boycott against British materials. These include chiefly clothes, household articles and tobacco, simultaneously they will encourage Indians to use home-made fabrics, the women taking a leading part in picketing shops selling foreign dress goods.

FOR DRY INDIA

Various other movements are designed to deprive the government of excise duties. One of the women's themes will be advocacy of a dry India. Following Gandhi's lead they will appeal to men and women to cease drinking grog or toddy made from the juice of the palm. They will also urge the destruction of toddy palms throughout the country. The drawing of fermented toddy and its sale, controlled by the government, and license fees and excise duties form a prolific source of income for the government.

Women in the independence movement have been credited with stopping football games between Indians and Europeans on Calcutta's great open space in the city's center known as the Maidan. Thousands formerly assembled there evenings to watch the games.

LEAGUE DISRUPTED

Because of efforts made by women pickets and women members of the civil disobedience committee the Bengali clubs withdrew from the Monsoon League. All games they missed were canceled, the women contending that Indians should do picketing instead of playing football now.

The women's Indian Association of Madras considers the independence campaign the antithesis of the wars of the past. They proudly point to the resignation of a woman doctor, Muthulakshmi Ammal, from her seat in the Madras Legislative Council and from her office as deputy president of the council as a protest against Gandhi's imprisonment. The association boasts also that a woman, Sarojini Naidu, poetess, orator, "peacemaker of India, its Ambassadress to three continents," led the largest raid on the British salt monopoly.

MINNESOTANS BALLOT TODAY

Three-Cornered Republican Fight Primary Feature

Two Tariff Foes and Wet Waging Senate Contest

Battles Also Mark Campaign of Farmer-Laborites

ST. PAUL, June 15. (AP)—Minnesota Republicans will choose a United States Senatorial nominee tomorrow from among three men—two outspoken opponents of the Smoot-Hawley tariff bill passed by Congress and the third espousing only repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

It will bring to a head an old political feud between Senator Schall and Gov. Christianson, leaders of two powerful factions of the party in the State, who revealed no differences on major national issues during the campaign. Instead the campaign ended tonight in a blaze of personal bitterness, a note which predominated throughout the campaign after Schall in his keynote speech made a savage attack on Christianson's record as Governor. Both oppose the tariff revision, attacking it because it is not limited to farm products.

NEWCOMER'S APPEAL

John F. Selb, a newcomer in State politics, is the third aspirant for the Senatorial nomination, and made his appeal entirely to those favoring repeal or modification of national prohibition. His opponents support prohibition, but have kept the issue in the background.

In addition, Republicans will select nominees for State and Congressional offices in preparation for the general election in November.

Farmer-Laborites will choose between Knud Wefald and Ernest Lundeen in making their party Senatorial nomination. Einar Hoidale, unopposed Democratic candidate for the Senatorship, has precipitated the principal issue between the two Farmer-Laborites, Lundeen charging that Wefald contemplates withdrawing after the primary to bring about fusion of the two minority parties in the State in the general election campaign, with Hoidale to receive his support.

GUBERNATORIAL LINE-UP

For Governor, Republicans will choose between J. A. A. Burnquist, former Governor; Ray P. Chase, State Auditor; N. J. Holmberg, State Commissioner of Agriculture; Albert Lagerstedt, State legislator; Dr. Eivind Klaveness, a physician, and Paul F. Dehnel, a newspaper editor.

Farmer-Labor voters have a contest for Governor between Floyd B. Olson, outstanding leader of the party in the State, and Cal E. Taylor, a farmer who has made no serious campaign. Democrats have only one minor State contest to settle, and Edward Indrehus is unopposed for the nomination for Governor.

MAINE REPUBLICAN BATTLES TO BE DECIDED

PORTLAND (Me.) June 15. (AP)—Republican candidates for nomination in the Maine primary election today reached the end of the campaign trail signalized by an eleventh-hour attack by Representative White of Lewiston, Senatorial aspirant, against the "vacillations" of his opponent, Ralph O. Brewster, former Governor, on the tariff question.

In addition to naming one of three candidates for Senator Gould's seat in the national body, Republican voters tomorrow also will choose their nominee for Governor and a Congressional nominee from the second Maine district.

Gov. Gardiner and former Mayor Wilson of Bangor oppose each other in the Republican gubernatorial race. Wilson has assailed Gardiner's administration as being extravagant while the Governor has confined his campaign to the benefits he asserts his administration has produced.

CALIFORNIA STORK GAINS IN ACTIVITY

First Quarter of Year Shows Increase in Births Over Same Period of 1929

SACRAMENTO, June 15. (AP)—The year 1930 is bringing more babies to California than did the year 1929.

During the first three months of this year, 21,056 babies were born, compared with 19,298 during the corresponding period of 1929, Dr. Walter M. Dickie, director of Public Health, announced today. The increase was 1758, or more than 9 per cent.

All these new arrivals will appear in the Federal census totals, Dr. Dickie pointed out, because enumerators began their work April 1, last.

Possibility of raising the State's birth rate was seen by Dr. Dickie. The rate last year fell to 18.3 per 1000 population, the lowest mark in ten years. California's highest birth rate was in 1924, when 86,899 infants were born and the rate was 22.2 per 1000.

Birth of Mexican children continued to increase, both in numbers and percentage of population. During the first three months of this year, 3839 were born, compared with 3297 in January, February and March, 1929. Mexican births were 17.1 per cent of the total for the first quarter last year, and 18.2 per cent this year.

Former Minister of France Dies

PARIS, June 15. (AP) — Lucien Louis Klotz, former Minister of Finance in the cabinets of Georges Clemenceau and others, died unexpectedly today.

M. Klotz died while he was being shaved. Although he was in greatly reduced circumstance he had clung to some of the luxuries of the days when he was great, and always had a barber come in to shave him in his modest furnished flat.

His body was watched tonight only by the valet who had served him twenty years, through riches and poverty, and by a woman who lives across the hall.

PLANT SECRETS WILL BE SOUGHT

General Motors Official Gives $200,000 for Work of Research at Antioch

YELLOW SPRINGS (O.) June 15. (AP)—C. F. Kettering, vice-president of General Motors, has given $200,000 to study what many scientists regard as man's most interesting riddle, how plants make food and shelter.

The gift, announced last night, is made to Antioch College here for a ten-year research. The research seeks the secret of chlorophyll, the green coloring matter in plants, one of the world's commonest chemicals.

Dr. O. L. Inman, who has been head of the biology department and dean of Antioch College, has resigned his position to head the research development.

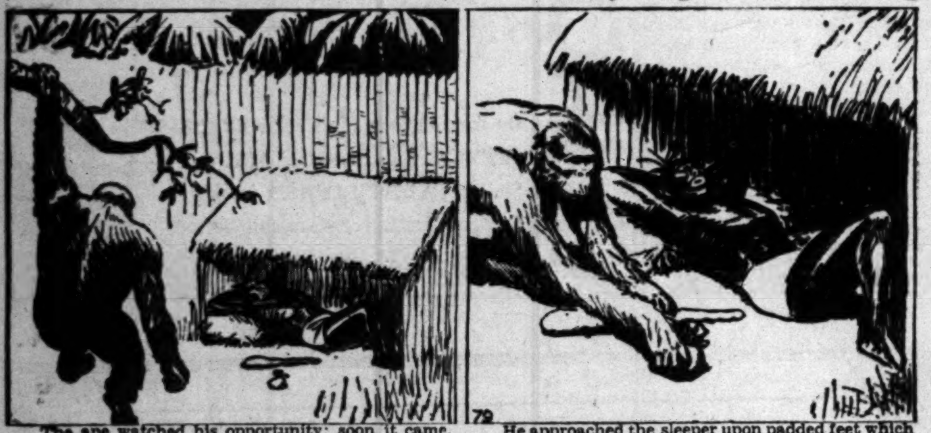
A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

TARZAN AND THE JEWELS OF OPAR

By Edgar Rice Burroughs



The ape watched his opportunity; soon it came. Feeling safe within his thorny enclosure, Mugambi was wont to stretch himself in the shade of his shelter during the heat of the day and sleep in peaceful security until the declining sun carried with it the enervating temperature of midday. Watching from above, Chulk saw the black warrior stretched thus in the unconsciousness of sleep one sultry afternoon. Creeping out from an overhanging branch, the anthropoid dropped to the ground within the boma.

He approached the sleeper upon padded feet which gave no sound, and with an uncanny woodcraft that rustled not a leaf or a grass blade. Pausing beside the man, the ape bent over and examined his belongings. Great as was the strength of Chulk, there lay in the back of his little brain something which deterred him from arousing the man to combat—a strange fear of man that rules even the most powerful of the jungle creatures at times. Beside the sleeping black lay his knobstick and the pouch. These Chulk grabbed.

Rex Maxon

Then he retreated with haste to the safety of the tree from which he had dropped and fled through the jungle . . . It was sometime after Mugambi awoke that he missed the pouch. Instantly he was all excitement. What could have become of it? He was sure it had been there—that precious pouch—when he had laid down to sleep. How then had it vanished? Mugambi's savage imagination began to get busy; perhaps the spirit of some departed enemy had taken it! Then he missed his knobstick and began a careful investigation.

In the trampled turf beside him was the faint imprint of huge, man-like feet. Mugambi raised his brows as the truth dawned upon him. Hastily leaving his boma, he searched in all directions for further sign of the tell-tale spoor. He climbed trees and searched for evidence of the direction of the thief's flight; but the faint signs left by a wary ape who elects to travel through the trees eluded the woodcraft of Mugambi. Tarzan might have followed them; but no ordinary mortal could perceive them, or, perceiving, translate.

WAR! A Book War Is Now on in Full Swing! A Band of N. Y. Publishers Has Declared War on Our Policy of Low Prices by Organizing a Drive to Cut Prices to $1---We Accept Their Challenge and Now Fight Back! WAR!

Until June 30th We Offer Little Blue Books at Amazing Cut Price of 30 Books for $1

We have sold 150,000,000 Little Blue Books at 5c per copy; 20 for $1. This was the greatest bargain in the history of printing. But now comes this vast price war in the book world! We meet the challenge and hurl defiance! During the month of June—until midnight of June 30, 1930—we shall let you take your pick of Little Blue Books at the rate of 30 books per $1, postpaid, instead of at the regular price of 20 books per $1. Never before was there an offer like this one.

Every order we receive will mean a loss, but we have put aside $1,000,000 for our June drive. We shall aim for the greatest sales in publishing history! Our goal is: 50,000,000 books sold during June! After that date we shall return to our policy of 20 books per $1. Orders may be mailed up to midnight of June 30. The postmark will show that your order was mailed before midnight of June 30, so even if your order arrives in Girard, Kansas, a few days after that date your order will still be filled at the rate of 30 books per $1, carriage charges prepaid by us.

This is your only chance to get a bonus of 10 free books—30 books per $1 instead of 20 books per $1. Can you afford to pass up this amazing bargain sale? It will NEVER be repeated, because this proposition means a financial loss, and we are doing it only because of the present price war in the book world, about which you have undoubtedly read in the newspapers.

Here's what you get during this June sale!

30 Little Blue Books for $ 1; 60 Little Blue Books for $2;
90 Little Blue Books for $ 3; 120 Little Blue Books for $4;
150 Little Blue Books for $ 5; 180 Little Blue Books for $6;
300 Little Blue Books for $10; and so on at the rate of 30 books for each dollar you send us. And we pay the carriage charges!

Pick Out Books at Rate of 30 Books for $1 While This Price War Lasts! Order Today! Sale Closes Positively at Midnight June 30---World's Biggest Bargain.

OPEN EVENT QUALIFYING TEST TODAY

Southern California Has Five Places in National Championship

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

Out of the fifty-five select amateurs and professionals, five will qualify today over thirty-six holes at the Wilshire Country Club for the 1930 national open championship.

Those fortunate enough to master Wilshire's elusive test will be leaving shortly for the East to join George (Jix) Von Elm of Rancho and Willie Hunter of Montebello Park at the Interlachen Country Club, Hopkins, Minn., on July 10, next, to give Southern California seven representatives in the open.

Outside of Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., the champion, Von Elm was the only amateur in the United States to finish among the low thirty at Winged Foot, making him exempt from qualifying; "Wee Willie" also won exemption at Winged Foot.

BEER ENTERED

Only one of last year's two qualifiers, Chet Beer of the Stockdale Country Club, Bakersfield, is entered today. Charley Guest also qualified at Lakeside in 1929, but is now in Detroit.

The Southland's leading professionals are planning to make a concerted attack at Interlachen next month. Fred Morrison of Midwick, Southern California open champion and national P.G.A. medalist, is anxious to make the trip. Fred is playing at the top of his game, and furnished most of the in the afternoon. Mickey three home runs and the runs and Dudley Lee started a triple play and two double-plays. He had only five chances in the game but he made them count heavily.

The triple play came in the seventh inning and broke up a Mission rally. The Missions had scored three runs and had two men on bases with none out. Johns had been batted out of the box and Yde was pitching. Bill Rodda went to bat for Wright and he socked a line drive over Lee's head. The hit looked good for two bases but Lee leaped in the air, speared the ball with his left hand and the triple killing was put on with neatness and dispatch.

Lee threw to Brannon before Boone could get back to second base, and Brannon threw to Heath before Burns could return to first, so the side was wiped out in a jiffy. The Missions could not get started after that.

Johns walked Hofmann in the second inning to fill the bases and bring up Caster. The latter whacked a home run to the bleach-

FREEBOOTERS RIDE TO VICTORY AT UPLIFTERS'

With Hal E. Roach, polo-playing motion-picture magnate, leading the way in impressive fashion the Freebooters rode to a 9-to-3 victory over the Uplifters' four yesterday at Rustic Canyon Field. Roach scored four goals during the afternoon, which was one more than the opposition could gather colectively. Will Rogers, Jr., tallied three times for the winners and Howland Paddock twice.

Dr. Duncan broke into the scoring column twice for the Uplifters and Clair Brunson once. Snowy Baker and T. Lyell Puckett, the other two members of the squad, did not score but they gave a nice account of themselves otherwise. The game was far better than the score would indicate. There were a number of spirited exchanges between men and mounts during the clash.

The line-ups:

Freebooters (9)		Uplifters (3)
Rogers, Jr. (3)	No. 1	Dr. Duncan (2)
Roach (4)	No. 2	Puckett
Paddock (2)	No. 3	Baker

BRAVES ON TOP

BOSTON, June 15. (AP)—Clever fielding and timely hitting by members of the Boston Braves' infield, gave the Warriors a 4-to-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds today. It was the Braves' third straight win. Every member of the Braves' infield hit safely, and between them they garnered seven of Boston's eight hits.

Four runs behind at the end of the sixth, the Reds rallied for two counters in the seventh and another in the ninth, when Ben Cantwell stopped them in time. The score:

INDIANS ANNEX DOUBLE-HEADER

Siwashes Take Two Games From Portland

SEATTLE, June 15. (AP)—Reversing the results of yesterday, the Seattle Indians won a brace of games from the Portland Ducks today and thereby climbed out of the Pacific Coast League cellar, where yesterday's reverses had sent them.

Seattle won the first game today by a score of 3 to 0 behind the masterful pitching of the veteran Ruether, who held its opponents to three scattered hits, while Kallio turned in a 7-to-4 victory for the Indians in the seven-inning second game.

Portland won four games of the seven-games series. Scores:

of the Ford Truck

WITH their ample loading-space and carefully planned dimensions, the new Ford truck bodies meet a wide range of haulage requirements. The platform body illustrated is the foundation-unit for several types which are designed for many industrial, commercial and agricultural purposes. Among them is the standard stake body with stakes 26 inches high.

The platform body may be used with either the open or enclosed cab. It is built of heavy, seasoned hardwood, enclosed in a pressed-steel frame.

In common with all Ford bodies, the platform type gains in appearance through the improvements recently made in the front of the truck. Radiator and hood are higher and narrower. Front fenders meet the running-boards in a more sweeping line. Cabs have been redesigned for better appearance and afford the driver full comfort.

A number of new and important features have been incorporated in the Ford truck chassis. Among them are a spiral bevel-gear rear axle, a four-speed transmission, a heavier front axle and spring, larger brakes and a power take-off opening. Dual rear wheels are optional at small additional cost. You have a choice of two gear ratios.

In addition to the important new mechanical features of the chassis, these strong, good-looking and serviceable bodies increase the value of the Ford truck and broaden its range of usefulness.

FAVORITES TRIUMPH IN MUNICIPAL TENNIS PLA

The huge number of entries in the Los Angeles municipal tennis tournament were considerably reduced yesterday when the first round of play was staged at Griffith Playground, and approximately fifty players were eliminated. The men's singles were the only matches played. The women's singles are scheduled to get under way next Sunday.

Practically all of the favorites survived the first and second rounds. Wheldon, Bartosh, Paige, Steiner, Clay and Miller are still being favored to battle it out for the title. Results:

F. Wacholz defeated Bob Crockett, 6-1, 6-1; H. Rindell defeated E. Richman, 6-1, 7-5; J. Davis defeated Joe Costello, 6-2, 6-8, 7-5; O. Schalz defeated F. Cooper, 6-4, 6-4; W. Constant defeated J. Husky Crews Will Battle Badger Eight

MADISON (Wis.) June 15. (Exclusive) — Preparing for their invasion of the East for the national championship regatta at Poughkeepsie, the University of Washington crew will meet Wisconsin here this afternoon. The Huskies, with a victory over California to their credit, are expected to beat the Badgers rather handily. In a time trial Saturday afternoon, the varsity eight was clocked in 10:35 for a two-mile spin, with the junior varsity several lengths behind.

CUBS LOSE

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP)—The Giants, with Donohue in the box, evened up the series with the Cubs at one each, winning the second game of the series with late-inning rallies. The score was 7 to 4.

Donohue after a shaky start settled down and held the Cubs at bay, getting three hits besides and driving in a run.

Blake, who started for the Cubs, held the Giants well in hand until the sixth, when they forged ahead. The New Yorkers kept up their hitting against Teachout, who relieved him. Hogan connected for a home run with two men aboard in the eighth. This blow settled the issue in favor of the Giants. Score:

FREEBOOTERS RIDE TO VICTORY AT UPLIFTERS'

With Hal E. Roach, polo-playing motion-picture magnate, leading the way in impressive fashion the Freebooters rode to a 9-to-3 victory over the Uplifters' four yesterday at Rustic Canyon Field. Roach scored four goals during the afternoon, which was one more than the opposition could gather colectively. Will Rogers, Jr., tallied three times for the winners and Howland Paddock twice.

Dr. Duncan broke into the scoring column twice for the Uplifters and Clair Brunson once. Snowy Baker and T. Lyell Puckett, the other two members of the squad, did not score but they gave a nice account of themselves otherwise. The game was far better than the score would indicate. There were a number of spirited exchanges between men and mounts during the clash.

The line-ups:

Freebooters (9)		Uplifters (3)
Rogers, Jr. (3)	No. 1	Dr. Duncan (2)
Roach (4)	No. 2	Puckett

BRAVES ON TOP

BOSTON, June 15. (AP)—Clever fielding and timely hitting by members of the Boston Braves' infield, gave the Warriors a 4-to-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds today. It was the Braves' third straight win. Every member of the Braves' infield hit safely, and between them they garnered seven of Boston's eight hits.

Four runs behind at the end of the sixth, the Reds rallied for two counters in the seventh and another in the ninth, when Ben Cantwell stopped them in time. The score:

Siwashes Take Two Games From Portland

SEATTLE, June 15. (AP)—Reversing the results of yesterday, the Seattle Indians won a brace of games from the Portland Ducks today and thereby climbed out of the Pacific Coast League cellar, where yesterday's reverses had sent them.

Seattle won the first game today by a score of 3 to 0 behind the masterful pitching of the veteran Ruether, who held its opponents to three scattered hits, while Kallio turned in a 7-to-4 victory for the Indians in the seven-inning second game.

Portland won four games of the seven-games series. Scores:

Sturdy bodies are a feature of the Ford Truck

WITH their ample loading-space and carefully planned dimensions, the new Ford truck bodies meet a wide range of haulage requirements. The platform body illustrated is the foundation-unit for several types which are designed for many industrial, commercial and agricultural purposes. Among them is the standard stake body with stakes 26 inches high.

The platform body may be used with either the open or enclosed cab. It is built of heavy, seasoned hardwood, enclosed in a pressed-steel frame.

In common with all Ford bodies, the platform type gains in appearance through the improvements recently made in the front of the truck. Radiator and hood are higher and narrower. Front fenders meet the running-boards in a more sweeping line. Cabs have been redesigned for better appearance and afford the driver full comfort.

A number of new and important features have been incorporated in the Ford truck chassis. Among them are a spiral bevel-gear rear axle, a four-speed transmission, a heavier front axle and spring, larger brakes and a power take-off opening. Dual rear wheels are optional at small additional cost. You have a choice of two gear ratios.

In addition to the important new mechanical features of the chassis, these strong, good-looking and serviceable bodies increase the value of the Ford truck and broaden its range of usefulness.

OPEN EVENT QUALIFYING TEST TODAY

Southern California Has Five Places in National Championship

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

Out of the fifty-five select amateurs and professionals, five will qualify today over thirty-six holes at the Wilshire Country Club for the 1930 national open championship.

OLIN DUTRA

Those fortunate enough to master Wilshire's elusive test will be leaving shortly for the East to join George (Jix) Von Elm of Rancho and Willie Hunter of Montebello Park at the Interlachen Country Club, Hopkins, Minn., on July 10, next, to give Southern California seven representatives in the open.

Outside of Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., the champion, Von Elm was the only amateur in the United States to finish among the low thirty at Winged Foot, making him exempt from qualifying; "Wee Willie" also won exemption at Winged Foot.

BEER ENTERED

Only one of last year's two qualifiers, Chet Beer of the Stockdale Country Club, Bakersfield, is entered today. Charley Guest also qualified at Lakeside in 1929, but is now in Detroit.

The Southland's leading professionals are planning to make a concerted attack at Interlachen next month. Fred Morrison of Midwick, Southern California open champion and national P.G.A. medalist, is anxious to make the trip. Fred is playing at the top of his game, and

Play by Sheiks Helps Beat Mission Club in Game as Heath Hits Three Homers

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15. (Exclusive)—The Missions won the morning game, 8 to 4, from Hollywood by hard hitting. They battled Hollerson out of the box in the third and treated Wetzel harshly.

Heath gave Hollywood a home run by hitting a home run with two on on the first inning.

The triple play came in the seventh inning and broke up a Mission rally. The Missions had scored three runs and had two men on bases with none out. Johns had been batted out of the box and Yde was pitching. Bill Rodda went to bat for Wright and he socked a line drive over Lee's head. The hit looked good for two bases but Lee leaped in the air, speared the ball with his left hand and the triple killing was put on with neatness and dispatch.

Lee threw to Brannon before Boone could get back to second base, and Brannon threw to Heath before Burns could return to first, so the side was wiped out in a jiffy. The Missions could not get started after that.

Johns walked Hofmann in the second inning to fill the bases and bring up Caster. The latter whacked a home run to the bleach-

FREEBOOTERS RIDE TO VICTORY AT UPLIFTERS'

With Hal E. Roach, polo-playing motion-picture magnate, leading the way in impressive fashion the Freebooters rode to a 9-to-3 victory over the Uplifters' four yesterday at Rustic Canyon Field. Roach scored four goals during the afternoon, which was one more than the opposition could gather colectively. Will Rogers, Jr., tallied three times for the winners and Howland Paddock twice.

Dr. Duncan broke into the scoring column twice for the Uplifters and Clair Brunson once. Snowy Baker and T. Lyell Puckett, the other two members of the squad, did not score but they gave a nice account of themselves otherwise. The game was far better than the score would indicate. There were a number of spirited exchanges between men and mounts during the clash.

The line-ups:

Freebooters (9)		Uplifters (3)

BRAVES ON TOP

BOSTON, June 15. (AP)—Clever fielding and timely hitting by members of the Boston Braves' infield, gave the Warriors a 4-to-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds today. It was the Braves' third straight win. Every member of the Braves' infield hit safely, and between them they garnered seven of Boston's eight hits.

Four runs behind at the end of the sixth, the Reds rallied for two counters in the seventh and another in the ninth, when Ben Cantwell stopped them in time. The score:

INDIANS ANNEX DOUBLE-HEADER

Siwashes Take Two Games From Portland

SEATTLE, June 15. (AP)—Reversing the results of yesterday, the Seattle Indians won a brace of games from the Portland Ducks today and thereby climbed out of the Pacific Coast League cellar, where yesterday's reverses had sent them.

Seattle won the first game today by a score of 3 to 0 behind the masterful pitching of the veteran Ruether, who held its opponents to three scattered hits, while Kallio turned in a 7-to-4 victory for the Indians in the seven-inning second game.

Portland won four games of the seven-games series. Scores:

FAVORITES TRIUMPH IN MUNICIPAL TENNIS PL

The huge number of entries in the Los Angeles municipal tennis tournament were considerably reduced yesterday when the first round of play was staged at Griffith Playground, and approximately fifty players were eliminated. The men's singles were the only matches played. The women's singles are scheduled to get under way next Sunday.

Practically all of the favorites survived the first and second rounds. Wheldon, Bartosh, Paige, Steiner, Clay and Miller are still being favored to battle it out for the title. Results:

Husky Crews Will Battle Badger Eight

MADISON (Wis.) June 15. (Exclusive) — Preparing for their invasion of the East for the national championship regatta at Poughkeepsie, the University of Washington crew will meet Wisconsin here this afternoon. The Huskies, with a victory over California to their credit, are expected to beat the Badgers rather handily. In a time trial Saturday afternoon, the varsity eight was clocked in 10:35 for a two-mile spin, with the junior varsity several lengths behind.

CUBS LOSE

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP)—The Giants, with Donohue in the box, evened up the series with the Cubs at one each, winning the second game of the series with late-inning rallies. The score was 7 to 4.

Donohue after a shaky start settled down and held the Cubs at bay, getting three hits besides and driving in a run.

Blake, who started for the Cubs, held the Giants well in hand until the sixth, when they forged ahead. The New Yorkers kept up their hitting against Teachout, who relieved him. Hogan connected for a home run with two men aboard in the eighth. This blow settled the issue in favor of the Giants. Score:

FREEBOOTERS RIDE TO VICTORY AT UPLIFTERS'

With Hal E. Roach, polo-playing motion-picture magnate, leading the way in impressive fashion the Freebooters rode to a 9-to-3 victory over the Uplifters' four yesterday at Rustic Canyon Field. Roach scored four goals during the afternoon, which was one more than the opposition could gather colectively. Will Rogers, Jr., tallied three times for the winners and Howland Paddock twice.

Dr. Duncan broke into the scoring column twice for the Uplifters and Clair Brunson once. Snowy Baker and T. Lyell Puckett, the other two members of the squad, did not score but they gave a nice account of themselves otherwise. The game was far better than the score would indicate. There were a number of spirited exchanges between men and mounts during the clash.

The line-ups:

Freebooters (9)		Uplifters (3)
Rogers, Jr. (3)	No. 1	Dr. Duncan (2)
Roach (4)	No. 2	Puckett

BRAVES ON TOP

BOSTON, June 15. (AP)—Clever fielding and timely hitting by members of the Boston Braves' infield, gave the Warriors a 4-to-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds today. It was the Braves' third straight win. Every member of the Braves' infield hit safely, and between them they garnered seven of Boston's eight hits.

Four runs behind at the end of the sixth, the Reds rallied for two counters in the seventh and another in the ninth, when Ben Cantwell stopped them in time. The score:

INDIANS ANNEX DOUBLE-HEADER

Siwashes Take Two Games From Portland

SEATTLE, June 15. (AP)—Reversing the results of yesterday, the Seattle Indians won a brace of games from the Portland Ducks today and thereby climbed out of the Pacific Coast League cellar, where yesterday's reverses had sent them.

Seattle won the first game today by a score of 3 to 0 behind the masterful pitching of the veteran Ruether, who held its opponents to three scattered hits, while Kallio turned in a 7-to-4 victory for the Indians in the seven-inning second game.

Portland won four games of the seven-games series. Scores:

Sturdy bodies are a feature of the Ford Truck

With their ample loading-space and carefully planned dimensions, the new Ford truck bodies meet a wide range of haulage requirements. The platform body illustrated is the foundation-unit for several types which are designed for many industrial, commercial and agricultural purposes. Among them is the standard stake body with stakes 26 inches high.

The platform body may be used with either the open or enclosed cab. It is built of heavy, seasoned hardwood, enclosed in a pressed-steel frame.

In common with all Ford bodies, the platform type gains in appearance through the improvements recently made in the front of the truck. Radiator and hood are higher and narrower. Front fenders meet the running-boards in a more sweeping line. Cabs have been redesigned for better appearance and afford the driver full comfort.

A number of new and important features have been incorporated in the Ford truck chassis. Among them are a spiral bevel-gear rear axle, a four-speed transmission, a heavier front axle and spring, larger brakes and a power take-off opening. Dual rear wheels are optional at small additional cost. You have a choice of two gear ratios.

In addition to the important new mechanical features of the chassis, these strong, good-looking and serviceable bodies increase the value of the Ford truck and broaden its range of usefulness.

Schmeling Says He Will Attend Bout Between Carnera and Godfrey in Philadelph

WANTS TO SEE BIG BOYS BOX

Figures He May Have to Meet Primo Some Day

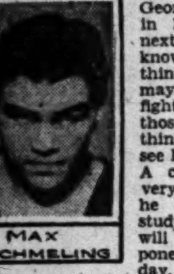
Doesn't Intend to Pass Up Any Opponents

Desires to Know How Rivals Handle Dukes

BY MAX SCHMELING
Heavyweight Champion of the World
As Told to Paul Gallico

[Copyright, 1930, by the News Syndicate Company, Inc.]

NEW YORK, June 15. (Exclusive) You know what I look forward to now? I go to see that fight between Primo Carnera and George Godfrey in Philadelphia next week. You know why? I think some day maybe I must fight one of those and I think I want to see how they do. A champion is very foolish if he does not study those who will be his opponents some day. You must use everything you can to protect yourself. Maybe when you are watching you see something. You forget it. But a year later when you are fighting with that same person you remember and it comes in good. Maybe it helps you to knock him out.



MAX SCHMELING

I would like it if this Carnera would be my opponent. I think you see some fight. Maybe it is again like Dempsey and Firpo. You know it is funny over in my country nobody thinks this Carnera is much. He fights with Diener and he does nothing with him—he wins on a foul. He fights with another fellow in Germany who stays ten rounds with him. You know, this fellow was so bad I could not even use him as my sparring partner. And then this little Bouquillon stays ten rounds with him. Yah, and over here he knocks everybody out.

Sure, I understand such business. Many fighters do it that way. My manager, Joe Jacobs, is smarter. He gives me no, how you call it, setups except one. I have not much more experience than Carnera when I come here, but he gives me such men as Sckyra and Risko. That is good. I beat them and I get a chance to fight for the championship. And that is the good way to do it.

But I tell you something about that Carnera. He must improve even to knock out how you say—bums, you must know how. I think a man is very foolish if he says to himself—"Oh, I saw that fellow fight two or three years ago. He was no good. He could do nothing. I pay no attention to him."

If it was not for something like that maybe Sharkey was fighting with Gene Tunney instead of Heeney that time. Sharkey beat Risko once, when he fights him again two years later he say to himself—"He is not good, I lick him with one hand, I do not have to train." He forgets that in two years Risko improves. Risko beats him and he loses the match with Tunney.

So I think maybe that Carnera improves, too. I better watch him. He is big, strong, fast. Things happen quick in your country with boxing. Suppose he knock out Godfrey and it is honest, and quickly he is matched with Campolo or Sharkey or Von Porat, and wins. There it is. The people say, "Let Schmeling beat him if he is champion." Then I guess I not so smart if I not know a lot about him. Yes?

While I am here I make it my business to study all your heavyweights. And I will tell you after they fight how I think they look to me.

Foul Tips

How Augie Walsh ever won twenty-one games last year becomes more and more of a puzzle as the opposing teams knock his offerings all over the lot these days. The general idea is that Augie would do better if he'd just buzz his fast one in there and forget about that wrinkle ball of his jokingly called a curve.

It looks as though George Harper has finally started hitting the ball as he figures to hit. Harper clicked out a homer, two doubles and two singles yesterday, and if he continues his clouting the Cherubs are liable to win the first half, anyway.

* * *

Schulmerich almost tore Elmer Jacobs's head off with a smash through the box in the eighth inning of the opener. Jake just ducked in time and did a little shadow boxing on the mound after he had made sure he hadn't been hit.

* * *

One of Sheely's home-run drives in the second game bounced in Thirty-ninth street and went through a window, for which the Angel manager will have to pay. "We don't mind paying for 'em when Angel players hit the homers, but it's tough to pay for damage done by opposing players," said Boots Weber.

Ray Jacobs failed to get a hit in either game and came up in a lot of good spots where bingles would have meant runs.

Art Delaney and Wilcarl (Dutch) Brandt will not leave with the Angels when they leave for the north today. Delaney has an injured leg and will not join the Angels until Sunday, when they leave San Francisco for two weeks in the Northwest. Brandt has been given his release.

* * *

Schulmerich got two doubles and a single in six times at bat yesterday, Sheely robbing him of a hit with a leaping one-handed catch of a line drive.

Haney came up with a great pick-up of Sheely's hot grounder in the eighth inning of the opener and threw the big fellow out at first.

Penebsky, the 19-year-old Seal catcher, hits the ball hard for a youngster. He rapped out a double and two singles yesterday.

Yerkes has been none too impressive in his two showings since joining the Angels. The Seals rapped him for four runs in two and one-third innings yesterday.

Bill Rumler, who was sent home from San Francisco Thursday to rest up from a sick spell, was a visitor in the press box yesterday. Rumler says he believes he'll be all right to open against the Missions tomorrow.

Earl Horne was due to hurl against the Seals yesterday, but is bothered with a lame arm. He expects to be all right for action this week.

one to right center that Donovan leaped up for but couldn't hold, the drive going for a double that tallied Moore. R. Jacobs walked to fill the bases. Schulmerich was out on an easy roller to Sheely, but Dittmar scored and the other runners advanced on the play. Haney popped to Sheely for the third out.

TIE BROKEN

The Angels broke the tie in the third when Moore led off with a solid shot to right, took second on Dittmar's bunt and counted on Harper's single past Sheely.

Another Angel run scored in the fifth, which Moore also opened with a single. Dittmar sacrificed and was safe when Sheely threw low to Caveney, who came over to cover first, Moore rambling to third on the error. Harper hit into a double play, but Moore came home while the double killing was being made.

The Seraphs got to Jacobs for two more runs in the sixth, making two hits and a walk good for the counters. Shulmerich slapped a double down the right-field line as an opening shot and scored when Haney followed with a single to center. Warren walked. Barfoot bunted the runners to second and third. Sigafoos's sacrifice fly to Sulik brought Haney across with the final Angel run of the opener.

Barfoot just breezed along until the seventh when the Seals staged a two-run uprising after Gaston and Jacobs had been retired. A walk to Crosetti was followed by Pinelli's single to center. Donovan slashed one down the first-base line for a double, Grosetti scoring and Pinelli also crossing the plate when Schulmerich bobbled the ball. Wingo hit to Haney, who tagged Donovan for the third out.

The second game was practically settled in the first inning by the Seals, who batted Walsh to the showers after he had retired Crosetti. Pinelli and Donovan singled and Wingo followed with a third hit to score a run. Then came Sheely with his first circuit clout and the Seals were out in front, 4 to 0. Sulik also singled but he was out when Caveney's sharp grounder hit him. Caveney was credited with a hit but the ball would have been a clean single had it not hit Sulik. Yerkes then came in and Penebsky greeted him with a hit to center. Davis fortunately ended it by forcing Caveney at third.

SIGGY HITS HOMER

Sigafoos homed over the left-field wall for the Angels in the home half of the first.

A walk to Wingo, Caveney's infield hit and steal of second and Penebsky's single produced two more Seal runs in the third. The Angels also scored one in the third on singles by Yerkes and Harper with a walk sandwiched in between.

Wingo and Sheely touched Yerkes for successive homers in the fourth to put the Seals farther out in front.

Schulmerich doubled in the Angel fourth and scored on Pinch-Hitter Art Parker's two-bagger. Harper homed in the fifth to make the score, 8 to 4.

SCORE OFF GABLER

Gabler started hurling in the fifth and in the sixth Crosetti nicked him for a circuit clout. Penebsky's double and a couple of sacrifice flies gave the Seals their final run in the seventh.

Moore provided the final run and homer in the seventh when he lofted one of Davis's offerings into the bleachers. The scores:

ers to score four runs and that gave the Missions a lead of 4 to 1. But Caster could not hold the lead. He was batted out of the box in the fourth when Hollywood scored six runs. Nelson was no help. Neither was Douglas. Ted Pillette finally went in and pitched the rest of the game.

PILLETTE STOPS HIM

Heath got a home run and a single off Caster. He hit Nelson for a home run in the fifth and he got his third home run off Douglas in the sixth. Ted Pillette got him out on a fly to Boone in the ninth.

Johnny Monroe hit two homers but the bases were unoccupied each time.

The triple play today was the second of the season here. Bill Rodda started one against Seattle several weeks ago and Bill was the victim today.

The Missions won the series, four games out of seven.

STRIBLING AND VON PORAT CLASH WEDNESDAY NIGHT

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP)—Rushing in where other boxing centers are beginning to fear to tread, Chicago and Detroit both have scheduled heavyweight shows this week and thereby assume the spotlight directed solely on New York and the Schmeling-Sharkey bout last week.

Heavyweight shows all over the country have been jinxed for more than a year, a good share of them ending in fouls or under other unsatisfactory conditions. However, the behemoths of the ring are sure-fire drawing cards and Chicago and Detroit promoters are willing to take a chance on the jinx.

At the Chicago Stadium on Wednesday night, Otto Von Porat, Norwegian belter, who lives in Chicago, battles W. L. (Young) Stribling of Macon, Ga., in the ten-round feature bout. This engagement may well determine to what degree both battlers must be reckoned "in" on the scrambled heavyweight situation. Von Porat is one of the hardest punchers in the business, but Stribling's experience and durability should swing the tide of battle his way. Hein Muller of Germany battles Armando De Carlos of Italy in the ten-round semifinal.

Johnny Risko and Paulino Uzcudun, two oldsters among the heavyweights, will swap punches in Detroit's big show on Thursday.

Jack Thompson, Negro holder of the world's welterweight championship, encounters Joe Cordoza of Los Angeles in a ten-round nontitle bout at Los Angeles on Tuesday night. Another big-time Coast battle will bring together Leo Lomski, Aberdeen (Wash.) heavyweight, and Armand Emanuel, Los Angeles barrister, in a ten-rounder at San Francisco Friday.

New York has three outdoor offerings. Ray Miller, Chicago left-hook artist, takes on Sammy White, clever Negro lightweight, in a ten-rounder at Dexter Park tomorrow night. On Tuesday, Tony Canzoneri, former featherweight champion, meets Tommy Grogan, lightweight slugger from Omaha, at the Queensboro Stadium. Ebbets Field's card on Wednesday will be headed by a ten-rounder between Pete Latzo, erstwhile welterweight champion, and Larry Johnson, hard-punching Chicago light-heavyweight.

Other bouts on the national schedule include:

Monday—At Tulsa: Kid Kober, Dallas, vs. Curtis Brown, Milwaukee, welterweights, ten rounds. At New York: Hubert Gillis, Belgium, vs. Solly Ritz, New York, lightweights, ten rounds.

Tuesday—At Denver: George Manley, Denver, vs. Cowboy Jack Willis, San Francisco, light-heavyweights, ten rounds. At Cleveland: Sammy Baker, New York, vs. Tommy Freeman, Cleveland, welterweights, twelve rounds. At New York: Ned Tarleton, England, vs. Frankie Marchez, New York, lightweights, eight rounds.

Wednesday—At Oakland, Cal.: Willard Dix, Bellingham, Wash., vs. Jack Stewart, San Francisco, heavyweights, ten rounds. At Cincinnati: Billy Rose vs. Midget Guery, Cincinnati, lightweights, eight rounds. At New York: Harry Smith, New York, Negro, vs. Yale Okun, New York, light-heavyweights.

Thursday—At Stockton, Cal.: Millio Milletia, Omaha, vs. Jimmy Owens, Oklahoma City, welterweights, ten rounds.

FIELD AT VENICE FACES PROBLEM

How to Handle Output With Profit Proves Puzzle

Two Small Operators Truck Oil to Refiners

Ohio Company Reported to Be Leasing Tank Space

Although drilling activities are increasing at a rapid rate in the Venice oil field, there still is doubt among some operators as to how the output, now estimated at 7000 barrels a day, is to be handled economically and with profit to the producer.

Two of the smaller operators have temporarily solved the problem. The Deuel Petroleum Company and Star Petroleum Company are trucking their production out in tankers to small refineries, one being located at Santa Fe Springs and the other near Hynes.

The Ohio Oil Company has sufficient storage for the present, but is reported to be leasing additional tank space because new wells are expected to be completed at an early date. The Board of Public Utilities and Transportation has approved the company's application for a twenty-one-year franchise to lay oil pipe line along Forty-third avenue and across other streets, and that is one step toward handling anticipated production at Venice. Just where this pipe line will be run to has not been definitely learned, since none of the major companies has indicated that it plans to buy oil from the Ohio organization.

The fact that there are no pipe lines in the Venice field may automatically slow up operations there. The Jergins Trust's No. 1 well is expected to be on production within a week. Neither tanks to handle its flow nor a pipe line to take it has been provided. It is thought probable that Jergins will truck the oil to his refining plant at Long Beach.

No announcement has been made as to how the Union Oil Company will handle its output if its Del Rey No. 1 should soon be completed, but it is expected that a pipe line will be laid to Rosecrans where the company is handling production from several leases.

OUTPUT OF HOBBS OIL ATTRACTS

Railroad Commission of Texas Considers Effect of Mounting Volume

AUSTIN (Tex.) June 15. (Exclusive)—The Railroad Commission of Texas is concerned in the increasing production of the Hobbs area of New Mexico and the possible effect it may have on the curtailment program of the major Texas pools. Information has been received by the commission that the companies which are operating in the Hobbs field have partically agreed to join in limiting their total daily production to 20,000 barrels.

The Atlantic Oil Producing Company expects to have its pipe line, now under construction from Midland, Tex., to Hobbs, completed and in operation early in July. This line will also tap the new oil pool in Andrews county. The Shell Pipe Line Company will soon start construction of an extension of its pipe line from the Hendrick pool in Winkler county to the Hobbs area. The Texas Pipe Line Company was disposed to defer the construction of its pipe-line extension to Hobbs, but it will probably start this work soon, especially if the proposed allowable production agreement for the field is adopted. The pipe-line runs would thereby be prorated on an equitable basis.

General Brings in New Project at Poso Creek

POSO STATION, June 15. (Exclusive)—The General Petroleum Corporation's Glide No. 21 in the Poso Creek field has been completed for 300 barrels daily. The oil is 15.8 deg. gravity. Total depth is 1794 feet.

General is drilling one project at Poso Creek and recently staked locations for two Heisen wells. The Glide completion is the last one for the Glide lease at present.

Preparations to recement are going ahead at Bruce Frame's Salisbury No. 1 on Sec. 27, 26-28, in the Poso Creek field.

MINE STOCK EXODUS ON TO NEVADA

Twenty-three Object to Recent Ruling of State Corporation Bureau

RENO (Nev.) June 15. (Exclusive)—Twenty-three out of forty Nevada mining companies listed on the San Francisco Mining Exchange have agreed to withdraw, according to officials. This action is due to a recent ruling of the California Corporation Commission requiring all foreign companies to maintain register and transfer offices in California.

The mining corporations object to an increase in calling and other fees on the exchange. It is proposed to either list stocks in Salt Lake City, or establish a mining exchange in Reno.

The Balfour & Guthrie Investment Company announces plans for immediate erection of a 300-ton washing plant on its leased holdings near Steamboat Springs, ten miles south of Reno. The plant will be largely used in washing glass sand, but will also recover quicksilver and other metals. An enormous tonnage of glass sand and kaolin is said to be exposed. The Nevada Quicksilver Company received $490,395 from the sale of quicksilver in the year ending April 30, according to its annual report. The report states that large and excellent deposits of cinnabar have been developed in the Juniper and Montgomery mines, with general conditions warranting an early expansion of production and the installation of additional equipment. The rich ore body uncovered three weeks ago on the Juniper No. 1 claim continues to develop splendidly, with ore sampling forty pounds of quicksilver per ton.

OPERATIONS IN KERN OIL FIELD TOLD

Survey for Week Shows Two Wildcats in Group of Seven New Wells

BAKERSFIELD, June 15. (Exclusive)—Seven new oil wells were spudded in last week in the Kern county oil fields, two of them being in unproved territory.

The Union Oil Company began drilling its No. 2 well on the N. & P. lease in the far western portion of the county, some miles from Maricopa, on Sec. 8, 11-24, and the Rio Cal Petroleum Corporation, Ltd., spudded in its Belridge-Carney No. 12 well on Sec. 2, 27-18, in the far northwestern part of the county.

Poso Creek is credited with two new wells—General Petroleum Corporation's Heisen No. 12 on Sec. 16, 27-28, and Pacific Western Oil Company's No. 6, on the Glide-Vedder lease, Sec. 15, 27-28.

The Standard Oil Company has a crew at work on Sec. 3, 32-24, of the Midway field, where its No. 68 well is in progress. The same company is drilling its No. 4 well in the Fruitvale field on Sec. 26, 29-27.

In the Comanche Point area southeast of Bakersfield W. W. Stabler is making progress in another wildcat well. His new site is on Sec. 4, 11-18.

Tests for water shut-off completed during the week number six and are as follows: Shell Oil Company No. 1, on Sec. 21, 28-29, and George F. Getty, Inc., Jewett No. 1, on Sec. 19, 28-29, Round Mountain; Standard Oil Company No. 25, on Sec. 11, 32-24, Midway, and No. 24, on Sec. 15, 28-27, Kern River; Standard's No. 47, on Sec. 9, 11-23, Sunset; Shell Oil Company's No. 1 on the Williams lease, on Sec. 17, 27-23.

Two Sunset wells are reported as redrilling jobs: Birch-Royer Oil Company No. 1 on Sec. 7, 11-23, and Doyle-Clune Oil Company No. 1 on Sec. 8, 11-23, Sunset. Standard Oil Company is deepening its No. 27 well in the Midway field on Sec. 7, 32-24.

Oil Production in Texas Fields Shows Increase

AUSTIN (Tex.) June 15. (Exclusive)—Production of crude petroleum in Texas made a substantial gain during May, according to Bervard Nichols of the bureau of business research, University of Texas.

"This is rather unfavorable, because the trend had been downward since last August as a result of the curtailment program put into effect at that time," Mr. Nichols said. "The increase offsets all the progress made in the past six months.

"Output in May totaled 26,877,000 barrels, against 25,350,000 barrels in April and 25,034,000 barrels in May, 1929. Daily flow averaged 867,000 barrels, an increase of 22,000 barrels from April, and compares with 808,000 barrels in May last year."

New Signal Hill Well Produces 1900 Barrels

Yesterday afternoon the Petroleum Securities Company completed its Wilson No. 1 on the southeast dip of Signal Hill for an estimated output of 1900 barrels a day. The hole was finished at approximately 6850 feet. The well is located at Molino and Twentieth streets.

This completion is just a block west of the recently completed Plymouth No. 9. Plymouth No. 10, a new well, has just been given a four-day potential of 2465 barrels a day. West of the Wilson No. 1 the Petroleum Securities Company is drilling its Painted Hills No. 1 well in the deep oil sand.

HOBBS PROJECT PROVES GUSHER

Shell Well Starts to Flow at Lively Clip

First Hour's Output Given as 450 Barrels

Field Believed Permanently in Major Class

ARTESIA (N. M.) June 15. (Exclusive)—The Shell Oil Company's State No. 1-A well, on Sec. 32, 18-28, which representatives of the State Land Office rate as being good for 10,000 to 15,000 barrels of oil a day, started flowing Saturday. The hole is down 4175 feet. It is producing gas at the rate of 37,000,000 cubic feet, and is believed to have put the Hobbs field permanently in the gusher class.

Some days ago Shell got nearly 3000 barrels of oil a day from this hole at 4004 feet, but decided to deepen it, and when it started to flow the second time it went at the rate of 450 barrels an hour.

Another surprise developed in the Hobbs field is the State. No. 1-A of the Amerada Petroleum Company on Sec. 32, 18-38, north of the Shell well. It topped the gas at 3132 feet and after blowing mud for many hours got completely out of control. All attempts to shut it in have been unsuccessful. It is spraying 100 to 200 barrels of oil a day over the Hobbs area and blowing 30,000,000 feet of gas. The gas was found approximately 500 feet higher than in any other well in the field.

OLD ARIZONA MINE SUIT IN COURT AGAIN

Tom Reed Revives 'Apex' Claim in Action Against United Eastern

KINGMAN (Ariz.) June 15. (Exclusive)—In the Mojave county Superior Court, the Tom Reed Gold Mines Company has filed suit for $2,000,000 against the United Eastern Mining Company. Service for the defendant is reported to have been accepted by the Arizona Corporation Commission.

The theory of the "apex," several times before brought into the courts by Oatman mining corporations, again is invoked, with assertion by the plaintiff that the defendant has appropirated ores and minerals owned by Tom Reed, this "by means of underground workings that had no outlet on the surface on plaintiff's property or on the Thomas B. Reed lode claim."

Corporation Commission records show that both corporations have their headquarters in Los Angeles. The annual report of United Eastern, recently filed by President Philip Wiseman of Los Angeles, shows assets of $1,583,577 and current liabilities of $220,577, with notation that the Oatman properties have been "written off the books."

Texas Second in Production of Rock Asphalt

AUSTIN (Tex.) June 15. (Exclusive)—It is shown by statistics collected by the Texas office of the United States Bureau of Mines that a total of 320,931 tons of rock asphalt, valued at $946,003, was quarried in Texas during 1929.

Kentucky, with a tonage of 340,346 and a value of $2,786,772, was the only State exceeding Texas in rock asphalt production. Other States in which quarries are located are Alabama, Oklahoma, Utah and California. Nearly all of the production in Texas comes from three quarries in the adjacent counties of Uvalde and Kinney in Southwest Texas. Kentucky and Texas together produced eight-ninths of the entire rock asphalt tonnage of the United States.

General Plans Start of Two Delano Wells

DELANO, June 14.—The General Petroleum Corporation will drill two more wells in the Poso Creek field of Kern county.

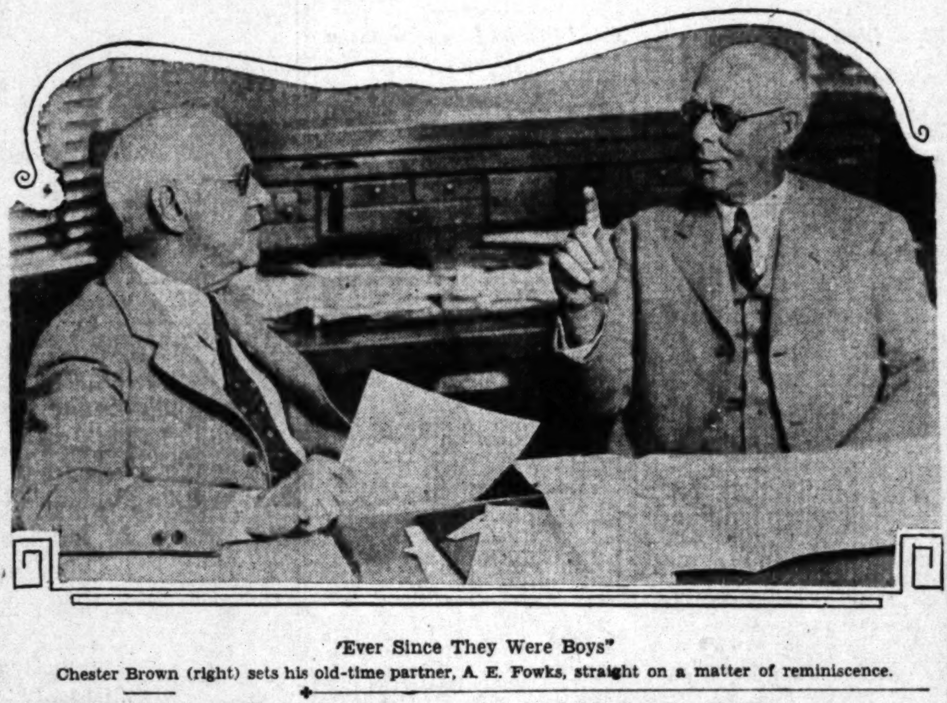
Heisen No. 31 has been staked out 1158 feet north and 150 feet west of the southeast corner of Sec. 16, 27-28.

Heisen No. 32 has been located 649 feet north and 150 feet west from the southeast corner of Sec. 16, 27-28.

General recently completed a well on the Heisen lease.

PICTURE OF FIDELITY PAINTED IN OIL

Partners in Petroleum for Thirty-five Years



'Ever Since They Were Boys"

Chester Brown (right) sets his old-time partner, A. E. Fowks, straight on a matter of reminiscence.

THIRTY-FIVE years ago Chester W. Brown, manager of exploration and production for the Union Oil Company, and A. E. Fowks, his assistant, ventured into the land of the Incas in the Peruvian Andes to mine gold, and though the intervening period has been an adventurous one not at any time since then have they been separated for more than a few weeks. Today they occupy adjoining offices in the Union Oil Building, Los Angeles.

Chester Brown has been identified with the oil business, except for a brief period when he turned to mining, since 1887, when as a youngster he came out to California from Maine to start work as a laborer for the Hardison and Stewart Oil Company at Santa Paula, the forerunner of the Union Oil Company. The company had been formed by Mr. Brown's uncle, W. L. Hardison, and the late Lyman Stewart.

BORN INTO OIL

Mr. Fowks likewise grew up in an oil atmosphere. His father, Edgar Fowks, was a pioneer Pennsylvania oil man who went to Northern Peru nearly forty years ago with Henry Meiggs, builder of the Peruvian railroads, and opened up the Negritos oil field. He later sold his holdings to British interests.

A. E. Fowks, then in his teens, spent a short time with his father in Peru, and after leaving school he returned to Peru to serve as an operator in the submarine cable service of the Central and South American Telegraph Company. During the five years he engaged in this work he served in Peru, Ecuador, Colombia and Panama.

Returning to New York, Mr. Fowks met W. L. Hardison and Chester Brown. They had just formed the Inca Mining Company and Mr. Brown was departing for Southern Peru as general manager. Because of his knowledge of Peru Mr. Fowks was invited to join him.

PIONEER STUFF

The mining property was high in the Andes, bordering a country that had never before been penetrated by white men. It was inhabited by hostile Indians.

By agreeing to build a road into a rubber producing country from the west slope of the Andes, a distance of about 150 miles, Brown and Fowks obtained a rubber concession on approximately 1,000,000 acres. In carrying out the project they shipped a small steamer, small sections at a time, on the backs of pack animals to Lake Titicaca, the highest body of navigable water in the world. The steamer operated on the lake and up the headwaters of the Amazon.

While in Peru they discovered oil in the Titicaca region but because there then was no demand for high gravity petroleum they did not go ahead with the development.

In 1909 Mr. Brown returned to California as assistant to the manager of field operations for Union, and he prevailed upon Fowks to join him. Since then they have worked side by side. Today only a thin wall separates the two men who have worked side by side for virtually thirty-five years.

Oil Exports in May Show Drop From Last Year

Bulk petroleum exports from Los Angeles Harbor last month were approximately 1,100,000 less than they were the same month last year. The total for last month was 9,301,960 barrels.

Vacation gasoline topped the list with 3,903,698 barrels, fuel oil taking second position with 3,093,837 barrels. Crude shipments amounted to 1,464,983 barrels. Diesel oil movements amounted to 419,719 barrels, kerosene totaled 399,695 barrels, while distillate amounted to 20,028 barrels.

The April movement of oils from this harbor amounted to 10,133,924 barrels. During the first five months of this year the harbor dispatched 41,412,721 barrels of bulk petroleum products.

Shell Project at Weed Patch Due for Test

WEED PATCH, June 15. (Exclusive)—Shell Oil Company is reaming hole in its Porter-Day well on Sec. 29, 30-29, to set casing and cement off for a production test. Shell a few days ago discovered more than forty feet of light oil sand in the hole between 4900 and 5000 feet.

Discovery of the sand is said to definitely prove the Weed Patch district as a probable light oil producing area. Leasing of land has been revived in the district and oil scouts are eagerly taking what property is available. If Shell should bring in a well there the east side of Kern county doubtless would witness a big drilling campaign.

Pioneer Bisbee Miner Passes

BISBEE (Ariz.) June 15. (Exclusive)—Of historical importance is the death of H. C. Stillman, 82 years of age, killed in an automobile accident near Coolidge Dam.

He came to Mule Gulch, the site of the town of Bisbee, in June, 1880, and was a member of the first crew of miners to start work on the Copper Queen claim, the first of the great properties now operated by the Phelps Dodge Corporation. For years he has lived in Douglas.

NEW CORNELIA CARRIES ON

Property Still Going Strong in Face of Forecast of End Made Thirteen Years Ago

AJO (Ariz.) June 15. (Exclusive)—Expert testimony has been given that New Cornelia still has at least a year's work ahead for its leaching plant, even if no extensions are found of its carbonate ores. When the plant was started there was estimate of 12,000,000 tons of such ores, the work to be ended within eight years. That was thirteen years ago, a period in which 16,000,000 tons have been handled with success and profit, mainly by the cheapest of steam-shovel methods. Incidentally, much rich ore has been uncovered, to be shipped direct to the Calumet & Arizona furnaces at Douglas.

A number of seams of remarkable high grade have been cut in recent workings. While the camp is marking time under present market conditions, the modern mill is in full readiness, capable of handling 16,000 tons of sulphides a day, in addition to the capacity of the leaching tanks. The high point of the company's prosperity came when less than 5000 tons a day were concentrated. A recent visitor of note in the mining world stated that he "inclines to the belief that New Cornelia quite possibly is second only to Utah Copper, as regards low-grade reserves, in the United States."

H. Greenway Albert, president and general manager, states that the Ajo Extension Mining Company will start this month on development of eighty-four claims, or nearly 1700 acres. The property lies about 8000 feet south of the main steam-shovel pit of the New Cornelia workings. Mr. Albert for a while was at Bisbee, brought to Arizona by his cousin, the late John C. Greenway, developer of New Cornelia. The first work here will be in outlining the ore bodies by diamond drilling. Forty test holes already have been bored, showing satisfactory showing of leaching ores, sampling an average of 1 1-2 per cent copper. Belief is expressed that the deposit is a continuation of that of the New Cornelia and that enough surface ore is in sight for 2500 tons of steam-shovel work a day for the next five years.

There is expectation that sulphides in quantity will be opened at greater depth. The property formerly was owned by a syndicate headed by Joseph A. Hunter, a Tucson attorney, who retains an interest and who is officer in the new corporation, which is a Denver organization. Mr. Albert has mining interests in Tombstone, where he will continue residence.

GOLD HILL MILL READY SHORTLY

July Fixed for Start of New 100-Ton Plant

Van Ness Cinnabar Mine Due to Open Soon

Bald Mountain Gold Strike Causes Stir

TONOPAH (Nev.) June 15. (Exclusive)—With more than 60 per cent of the work completed, the Gold Hill Development Company is rushing work on its new mill near Round Mountain. The plant will have a rated capacity of 100 tons daily, and is scheduled to go into commission in July. Developments will be resumed shortly on the lower levels, following enlargement and improvement of the 400-foot shaft. The company is controlled by stockholders in the Belmont and Tonopah Mining companies.

Production of quicksilver from the Van Ness cinnabar mine in the Spanish Belt district, above Belmont, is slated to commence about the 20th inst. The new furnace has been installed, connections completed between the new shaft and old workings, and water developed for the plant. A large tonnage of excellent ore is reported in sight.

A promising gold strike on Bald Mountain, four miles north of Ione, by Johnny Dick, Indian prospector, is claiming much interest. The ledge is said to be twelve feet wide at surface, with practically all the ore carrying good values. Engineers and miners have entered the district, and negotiations are reported to be proceeding for transfer of the discovery claims to a Tonopah corporation. Johnny Dick has discovered and sold several valuable properties in the past ten years.

The Pittsburgh-Goldfield Company has starte dwork on its projected deep shaft at Goldfield, and has commenced the assembly of powerful equipment. Two shifts are employed, and prospecting of a series of surface ledges has begun. Tonopah leasers have taken a lease on the Jumbo Extension, and will work through the old Claremont shaft of the Goldfield Consolidated. Goldfield Deep Mines Company reports that the rise from the 2150-foot level is advancing on a three-foot seam of quartz carrying values in gold, copper and silver and apparently nearing a large deposit of quartz.

RICH FIND REPORTED IN RACKENSACK MINE

PHOENIX, June 15. (Exclusive) L. E. Hewins, a pioneer mining man, last week cut three feet of remarkable copper-gold ore in his old Rackensack mine, in the Camp Creek district, about thirty miles northeast of Phoenix. Forty years ago the mine was a famous gold producer.

KETTLEMAN OIL AREA EXTENDED

Proven Length of North Dome Now Five Miles

General Completes Project for 5000 Barrels

Gas Output of 150,000,000 Cubic Feet Shown

Giving the north dome of the Kettleman Hills a proven length of five miles in a northwest and southeast trend, the General Petroleum Corporation's Ochsner No. 20-2 on Sec. 20, 22-18, started flowing yesterday at an estimated rate of 5000 to 6000 barrels a day, the output going through the gas traps along with a gas flow rated at 150,000,000 cubic feet per day. After permitting the well to flow for a few days to establish its potentialities, the company will shut it down to conform to the operating agreement with the Department of the Interior, which is binding till July 1, next.

General's new producer is said to be flowing black oil, which is regarded as an indication that it has far greater potentialities than any other project on the north dome. In other instances, the flow has been condensed gasoline instead of oil. Scouts believe that the new well will make a remarkable producer when allowed to flow as it probably will put out oil instead of spraying. The gravity has not been tested.

Ochsner No. 20-2 is about two and one-half miles due southeast of the Continental Oil Company's Elliott No. 12-8 producer and is about five miles northwest of General's Ochsner No. 2 on Sec. 26, which is shut down in the oil sand. The new producer is in a direct line with three other locations. It is offset by the Standard Oil Company's No. 58 on Sec. 17, 22-18, which is shut down on the top of the oil sand.

The Superior Oil Company's Huffman No. 1, on Sec. 29, 21-17, offsetting the Standard Oil Company's No. 65 may be the next producer on the north dome at Kettleman Hills. It has been coring ahead for several weeks far below 7000 feet.

With the Shell Oil Company's Dixon No. 1 spudded in to offset the Associated Oil Company's Whepley No. 1, the Petroleum Securities Company's Felix No. 2, now grading location, is expected to be under way within a short time. This drilling activity is a direct result of the completion of the Petroleum Securities Felix No. 1, later offset by Standard's No. 38 now producing to prevent its holdings from being drained.

In the meantime the Continental Oil Company's Elliott No. 2-13 on Sec. 2, 22-17, remains shut down in the oil sand, incapable of completion because it is on government property.

An Expanding
Natural Gas System

Companies in the Appalachian Gas Corporation Group now include:

Ohio Southern Gas Company
Wayne United Gas Company
Ohio Valley Gas Corporation
Southwestern Natural Gas Co.
Texas Gas Utilities Company
Ohio Kentucky Gas Company
Memphis Natural Gas Company
Allegheny Gas Corporation

Upon completion of certain developments already provided for, these Companies will own or control:

843 Miles of Pipe Lines
(Including distribution and gathering lines)

415 Producing Gas Wells
Either owned or under contract (not including the wells owned by the producing organization from whom Memphis Natural Gas Company purchases gas and from whom Southwestern Natural Gas Company will, upon completion of pipe line construction purchase gas).

136,426,000 cu. ft. Daily Open Flow Capacity from Wells
(As estimated by independent engineers)

Gas Leases or certain Gas Rights in about 614,570 Acres

3 Compressor Stations which develop 7,025 Horse-power

COPPER ESTATE KEEPS UP PACE

Greenhorn Reported Making Regular Shipments

Average Values Set at More Than 15 Per Cent

Most of High Grade Coming from Recent Find

SACRAMENTO, June 15. (Exclusive)—Despite the unfavorable copper market the Greenhorn Copper Company is shipping regularly from its properties west of Redding. Shipments going to the Tacoma smelter are reported to be averaging more than 15 per cent copper, with most of the high-grade product drawn from an ore body discovered last month. The ledge is said to be over forty feet wide.

The Mountain Copper Company, Ltd., Shasta county's oldest red-metal producer, continues to produce heavily from its holdings at Iron Mountain. Two plants are running steadily, with more than 600 tons of crude ore milled daily.

Building of a 250-ton mill is nearing completion at the Eiler gold property, near the old camp of Shasta. Retimbering of the two main tunnels has been finished, new sections of productive ground opened, and arrangements made for operations on a broad scale. Construction of an aerial tramline from mine to mill has begun. The property has been developed to a productive stage under ownership of the Shasta Hills Mining Corporation.

The noted old Baldwin gold mine near Placerville, owned by Anita M. Baldwin, is to be dewatered and worked by R. E. Miesse, a mining engineer, said to be backed by Southern Californians. The property was a famous producer in pioneer days, but has been idle since 1896.

With two steam shovels in commission the MacNamara Crescent and MacNamara Mining companies are vigorously working the Nash gravel property near Carrville in Trinity county. A good water supply has been developed, and the outlook is reported to be promising for a profitable season. The Nash is credited with containing one of the largest deposits of auriferous gravel in Trinity county.

Daily Output of Deepest Project in World Told

BIG LAKE (Tex.) June 15. (Exclusive)—From a depth of 8658 feet, the Big Lake Oil Company's well in Reagan county is producing at an average rate of 330 barrels of oil daily. It is the deepest producing oil well in the world, having taken that record away from the 8525-foot well of the Texon Oil and Land Company (Continental Oil Company) in the same field.

The daily gas flow from the deep well of the Big Lake Oil Company is nearly 10,000,000 cubic feet. The oil from this well is of 60.6 deg. gravity as compared with 56.3 deg. gravity of the Texon Oil and Land Company's deep well.

Shell to Deepen Fruitvale Hole

FRUITVALE, June 15. (Exclusive)—Shell Oil Company will deepen its Shepard No. 1 well on Sec. 14, 29-27, Fruitvale. Present depth is 3197 feet, with the drill in a shale formation. The well was brought in some days ago for about twenty-five barrels of oil and about sixty barrels of water after swabbing.

At Fruitvale, Getty, Standard and Superior each are engaged in one drilling job.

MEXICAN EAGLE EXPANSION DUE

Program Calls for Outlay of $8,000,000

Activity in Tampico Field to be Resumed

Pipe Line to Mexico City Part of Plans

MONTERREY (Mex.) June 15. (Exclusive)—An expansion program, involving the expenditure of approximately $8,000,000, will be started soon by the Compania Mexicana de Petroleo "El Aguila," better known as the Mexican Eagle Oil Company, which was built to something like its present greatness by the late Lord Cowdry.

With the resumption of development activities in the Tampico district, the company will construct a pipe line from Fubero, in the northern part of the State of Vera Cruz, to Mexico City, 146 miles, where it will build a large refinery.

The pipe line will have to mount from sea level to an altitude of more than 6500 feet to cross the intervening mountains, thus necessitating the installation of powerful pump stations. At Fubero the pipe line will connect with the company's line that runs to the northern fields of the Tampico district.

The company recently completed a ten-inch gas pipe line and an eight-inch oil pipe line from Tonala, situated in the extreme southeastern corner of the State of Vera Cruz, to its refinery at Minatitlan, forty miles. These pipe lines cross the Coatzacoalcos River, and this feature involved great engineering and construction difficulties. The cost of the two pipe lines and other improvements which the company has made recently in that part of Mexico was approximately $4,000,000.

OIL ACTIVITY RUNS HIGH IN SHALE HILLS

Drilling in Undeveloped Kern Section Reported Unusually Lively

TAFT, June 15. (Exclusive)—Supported by the belief that the territory lies in a direct line with the sands uncovered in the Kettleman Hills and the Belridge fields, the Shale Hills, heretofore a little developed and untested part of Kern county now, is enjoying an active prospecting and drilling campaign which may result in a new high-gravity oil field.

Four operators are in action at Shale Hills. Three of them have wells drilling and one has passed the 1000-foot mark, having uncovered sand which is said to test higher in gravity than any heretofore produced in the county.

The latter is Watkins No. 1 on Sec. 28, 26-18, owned by Nick Girard. He is building a steel derrick to make deep drilling possible. Recently it was reported that considerable gas developed in the well. The small amount of oil produced tested 52-deg. gravity.

Huntington & Hawthorne have spudded in on Sec. 35, 26-18; Tom Carney of Los Angeles has spudded in on Sec. 1, 26-18, and another well is projected by other parties who have land holdings in the district.

Paul P. Goudkoff, geologist, made tests of the formation cored in the Girard well and declared that the present depth is between the Temblor and Vaqueros sands. The Shell Oil Company has a large acreage in the area and it is reported that drilling will be done on it soon.

Shale Hills first was drilled more than a decade ago. About a dozen wells were started, but all were shallow jobs, and few found commercial production. All were on government property and outside the territory which is now being tested for a new light-oil field.

CHIEFS EXPLAIN MINE SHUTDOWN

SUPERIOR (Ariz.) June 15. (Exclusive)—In a report to the stockholders, one signed by Secretary Arthur J. Smith and Consulting Engineer Ira B. Joralmon, is given explanation of the stoppage of operations on the local property of the Belmont Copper Mining Comany.

This corporation was organized in 1925, to take over property that had surface ore indications in small copper and silver veins. In addition to pioneer prospecting, it had been worked, after 1913, by the Calumet and Arizona Mining Company, by the North Butte Mining Company and by a syndicate headed by the late F. S. Stephen.

In the Belmont operations have encountered a number of veins of value, some of the ore shipped to the near-by Magma smelter and some worked in a small mill, purchased from the Magma company. Development was pushed to the 1600-foot level, with drilling below to 2400 feet in one instance.

This drilling was done under great difficulty and at large expense, owing to heavy pressure from hot water, coming from a dense silicious material. There also is reference to the purchase of a controlling interest in the adjoining United Magma property and to development of that ground on the Belmont 1450-foot level, with drilling, that found about the same conditions as in the Belmont.

After commercial ore had not been found in satisfactory quantity in the Sandal vein of the United Magma, there was decision to close down. Since organization, the company had spent about $1,000,000 in development of the two properties, exclusive of purchase costs.

It is declared that the stoppage should not be considered abandonment and that the present plant will be left intact. Prospecting will be continued to the eastward, at less depth, in a district believed of promising nature. The company's main owners also have a large interest in the Queen Creek property, which now is developing well.

MINE SHOWINGS INSPIRE HOPES

Developments in Tom Reed's Workings Cheer

Existence of Ore Deposit at Depth Held Proven

New Lease on Life of Oatman District Forecast

OATMAN (Ariz.) June 15. (Exclusive)—A more hopeful feeling prevails here than for years past, because of the demonstration that ore of value here exists at depth. Tom Reed's 1100-level cross-cut is about 400 feet out from the shaft and is expected to reach its objective ore body by the end of the month.

This ore has been well developed on upper levels and is expected to run $50 a ton. It can readily and cheaply be handled to the mill through the company's new shaft and there is prediction that new bonanza times are coming to Reed owners, who already have taken millions from the property.

Large benefit has come in improved ventilation by the connection of the 950-foot Tom Reed and 1000-foot level of United American. Now the Reed management is cutting ground to the eastward on this level, doing a bit of exploration work, while American also will cut eastward toward an outlined ore body of value. The latter's ore will be handled through the Reed shaft.

Somewhat delayed by a big cave, Big Jim now is about 200 feet down in retimbering its main shaft and the management expects to have everything clear to the 600-foot level within sixty days. Then is to be lateral development and deeper sinking, in hopes of results similar to those in Tom Reed.

This week is to witness fresh operation on the Western Apex and Lexington mines, now held by the Imperial Mining Company of Los Angeles. The first work is to be a western extension of the 700 level. Westward the 700 workings run to the United Eastern ground.

LABOR SKY THREATENS IN SONORA

Efforts of Operators to Cut Output Meeting Strong Opposition

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) June 15. (Exclusive)—From Northern Sonora points are coming reports of labor troubles in the mines, in which American operators are endeavoring to curtail production, as has been done north of the line. It is asserted that a number of companies have appealed to the Federal authorities in the City of Mexico, asking authority for laying off a number of their men and that they have been unable to secure such permission. It is reported that, under Mexican laws, native miners must be given three months' notice of a lay-off.

A number of employers have been endeavoring to reduce their costs by discharging men for violation of rules, drunkenness and other causes, but government inspectors are said to be frowning upon such practices and to be threatening summary action against the companies, with resultant fines and restoration to pay of the employees who have been dropped.

It is reported that the main trouble lies in the Sonora labor offices and not with the Federal authorities. This situation is believed to have had little to do with the murder of an American foreman, Charles Koehler, at the Silver Plume mine, near Cananea, a property from which a score of disaffected miners had been discharged.

Colombia Mine Operator Tells of Rich Estate

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) June 15.—A remarkable tale of mineral wealth has been brought from South America by Joseph C. Erman, for years an Arizona mining operator, who helped sell the New Cornelia property to John C. Greenway.

He now is working in the mountains of Colombia, fifty-five miles from the seaport of Santa Marta, his ore packed fourteen miles on muleback and sent the rest of the way to the coast by rail, for final reduction in Swansea, Wales.

The mine, known as the Pueblo Viejo, before the great war produced 2500 tons of ore that realized $524,000, some of it running up to over 60 per cent copper. Much native copper still is found. Labor is exclusively Indian and is quite satisfactory, with strong similarity to the Yaquis of Sonora.

Copper Values in Eagle Gold Reported Rich

CLIFTON (Ariz.) June 15. (Exclusive)—Copper ore sampling 20 per cent is being shipped here to El Paso from the property of the Eagle Gold and Copper Company, which lies a short distance from Morenci. The mine is next to the well-known Dover property and its ore is believed a continuation of the Dover deposit.

The Eagle now is being worked by leasers, J. M. Savage, E. C. Bunker and J. W. Anderson, who have been handicapped by faulting conditions. The new ore was found in drifting twenty feet from the bottom of a sixty-six-foot shaft, in a lime and porphyry contact. Assays run up to 40 per cent. The mine is an old one, with a record of production of silver ores a dozen years ago.

INDEPENDENT REFINERS:—
Our company is interested in selling the gasoline out of our production at Venice, either spot deliveries or for a short-term contract.

Our proposal is to deliver the crude to your plant, charge you 5½c per gallon for the gasoline extracted, and then you ship all residuum in railroad tank cars for our account.

This sales method operates to protect both producer and refiner against arbitrary and unfair price structures quoted by the majors.

The United Power & Light Corporation (of Kansas)

First Mortgage Twenty Year 5% Gold Bonds
Series "B," due February 1, 1947

Price 96½ and Interest, Yielding Over 5.30%

The Company agrees to pay interest without deduction for any normal Federal income tax up to 2%

The following information is taken from official sources:

The Corporation owns and operates long established electric power and light properties in central Kansas, serving more than 35,400 customers in 142 cities and towns, including Hutchinson, Salina, Manhattan, Abilene and Junction City. The Corporation supplies water and ice to some of the larger cities and operates approximately eight miles of street railway. About 85% of the present net earnings is derived from the sale of electric power and light.

As officially reported for the year ended April 30, 1930, gross earnings were $3,220,856; net earnings $1,512,994, or over two and one-half times the annual interest requirements of $587,680 on the $10,643,600 of mortgage bonds, including this issue.

The mortgage securing these bonds is dated January 1, 1924 and provides that all bonds issued thereunder be designated "First Mortgage Bonds." The bonds issued immediately after the creation of the mortgage were secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a first mortgage on all of the Corporation's properties then owned. Subsequently properties were acquired at Hutchinson and Salina, Kansas, which were subject to the lien of $2,755,600 bonds of which $212,000 have since been retired. The first mortgage bonds, now outstanding are therefore secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a first mortgage on the entire property of the Corporation, subject only to the liens aforesaid and the bonds of the present issue will be likewise secured. The Corporation is controlled by North American Light and Power Company.

We recommend these bonds for investment and shall be pleased to send a circular describing the issue in detail

The Kansas Power and Light Company

First Mortgage Gold Bonds
Series B 5%, Due May 1, 1957

Price 96 and Interest, Yielding 5.28%

The Company agrees to pay interest without deduction for any normal Federal income tax up to 2% and to reimburse the holders of these bonds, upon application within 60 days after payment, for the California personal property taxes not exceeding 4 mills per $1.00 per annum

The following information is taken from official sources:

The Company owns and operates electric light and power, gas, ice, heating and street railway properties in northeastern Kansas. The territory served includes the cities of Topeka, the capital of the State, and Atchison, and embraces one of the most important industrial and agricultural sections of the State. The 65 communities served with electric light and power have a population in excess of 119,000.

As officially reported for the year ended April 30, 1930, gross earnings were $3,420,409; net earnings were $1,372,889, or about 2.80 times the annual interest of $490,435 on the total mortgage bonds to be outstanding, including this issue. About 84% of the net earnings is derived from electric power and light.

The First Mortgage Bonds, now outstanding, are secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a first mortgage (dated May 1, 1925) on important parts of the Company's property and by a mortgage upon all the remaining property subject only to $2,317,700 of 5% divisional underlying bonds due 1930 to 1935 (to be reduced as a result of this financing to $1,788,700). These divisional underlying bonds were outstanding against the Topeka and Atchison properties at the time of their acquisition in 1927. The present issue of bonds will be likewise secured. The Company is controlled through ownership of all its common stock by Illinois Power and Light Corporation.

We recommend these bonds for investment and shall be pleased to send a circular describing the issue in detail.

Three Samples

[AL]HAMBRA, May 27. Q.: I am [sending] you some fairly good-looking [illegible] from Calaveras county, [illegible], and think that it might [illegible] ore, or a good prospect. [The] samples consist of No. 1—the [illegible]. The coarse is No. 2, and [the] fine is No. 3. I am very [anxious] to have your report on the [illegible].

J.

A.: The samples carry micro[illegible] pyrite in low percentage. No. [1 is] ferruginous quartz. No. 2 (red) [is a] mixture of sand, some clay, [some] quartz and hematite. No. [3 is] probably average for No. 1, [and is] a mixture of quartz, alum[inum] silicate, and a golden-yellow [mineral] present in microscopic sizes [which] when hammered turns out to [be a] covering sericite, (micro[illegible] orthoclase feldspar.) The [samples] carry no tellurium, free [gold was] not found, and it is [possible] that the sulphides named [are slightly] auriferous. For other [gold] and silver values please con[sult an] assayer.

Wollastonite

[LOS] ANGELES, May 28.—Q.: Is [the enclosed] chip of mineral wol[lastonite], or pectolite? I will [thank] you for a classification.

L. M. B.

Texas Mineral

[LOS] ANGELES, May 28. — Q.: [I would] like to find out what the [illegible] samples of mineral con[tain and the] exact proportion of mag[nesite] and whatever other miner[als are] present in the rocks. Sam[ples are] from the middle plains [of Texas].

MRS. J.

[A.: No] quantitative analyses [illegible] qualitatively—the samples [are] strictly magnesite. Magne[site] with lime carbonate [illegible]

ORIENT TRAFFIC MAKES STRIDES

Passenger Movement Over Pacific Setting Marks

Trade Conditions Explained by Returning American

Reconditioned Italian Vessel to Enter Run to Coast

BY WAYNE B. CAVE

ALEXANDER KRISEL

The paradox of an unprecedented trans-Pacific passenger movement at a time when the oriental freight trade is languishing was disclosed on arrival of the Dollar liner President Jackson yesterday.

Dollar officials declared June embarkations for the Orient are 80 per cent higher than a year ago, even surpassing January, heretofore always regarded as the record month. For the first time a definite turn is heralded from the usual European trek, in favor of a summer in the Orient, with large numbers of teachers embarking for the latter.

Unfavorable exchange is prompting trade recessions, it was explained by Alexander Krisel, veteran American commissioner for the United States Court at Shanghai, who with his family returned on the ship to visit their old home in New York.

"The normal exchange is two Chinese dollars for one American; now it is four to one," he explained. "That makes it almost prohibitive for China to import. She ought, however, to be favored in exporting, for the same reason, but strife prevents goods getting out of China's interior."

The aforementioned court is one of the foreign embodiments of extraterritoriality which China declared abolished January 1, last. "But we are continuing to handle all court cases involving Americans just the same," Krisel added. All countries except America, Great Britain, France and Japan have acceded to China.

Accompanying him are Mrs. Krisel and their sons, Lionel, Henry and William, whom Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks on their recent visit to the Orient nicknamed "The Three Musketeers," which has stuck by them since.

SKIPPER TELLS OF IMPROVED SERVICE

The California, now reconditioning in Italian yards, will enter the California-Mediterranean run in three months with accommodations for 173 passengers, almost twice that of any liner plying from here to Europe, according to Capt. Figari Prospero, master of the Liberia motor liner Cellina, in from Trieste yesterday.

The latter ship also has added staterooms and baths and now accommodates forty-two, and the liner's three sisterships will undergo like alteration on their successive visits home, he said.

Capt. Prospero on this voyage celebrated his twenty-fifth year at sea, a colorful career that included numerous convoys during the World War, and the command of seventeen successive merchant liners. He wears decorations from nine nations attesting his deeds, one of which involved propelling a ship astern over twenty-three miles in 100 hours.

The Cellina is a Mussolini-inspired ship, from the exalted position given Il Duce's picture to the Fascist salute attending each subaltern's appearance. The liner left yesterday for San Francisco.

The Associated Oil Company tanker Tulsagas was towed into Bethlehem's yards yesterday by Wrigley tugs from near Ventura, where she was bound late Saturday when she lost her propeller. It is understood she also will require a new tail shaft, and probably will be in dry dock four or five days.

When is the Atlantic not the Atlantic? is answered by Capt. M. Mouton and Capt. L. Haldorsen, masters of two ships bearing that name. Both were in port this week-end, straightening out their mails, which constantly are being confused. Mouton's Atlantic is the Isthmian intercoastal steamer; Haldorsen's, the Norwegian tanker Atlantic, which sailed yesterday with Shell oil for Buenos Aires.

The old three-masted Alaska Packing Corporation schooner Metha Nelson now is en route here from San Francisco, reported bought by Fox Film Corporation for production of Jack London's "Sea Wolf." Before the voyage she was equipped with 350-horsepower Diesels, and fitted with accommodations for 120 persons.

The Procter & Gamble company has applied to the War Department for permission to construct a bulkhead 1103 feet long, and a wharf sixty-five feet by 146 feet on Channel No. 2, Long Beach. Hearings based on navigation will be held at the District Engineer's office at Los Angeles at 11 a.m. next Friday. The project is part of a $5,000,000 manufactory to be erected by the company for production of soap and edibles.

Due from Europe in ballast tomorrow the Norwegian motorship Lionel will proceed up-coast and return July 9, next, to inaugurate a new service between this coast and London, Havre, Dunkirk and Antwerp. The motorship Handicap will follow. Both are to be handled by Anderson-Mattoon Company, steamship agents and brokers. Brusgaard Line, recently withdrawn from this service, formerly operated the ships here.

Outbound passenger movements today include the Dollar liner President Jackson with sixty travelers for the Orient, and the Panama Mail liner Venezuela carrying more than 100 for Central America and New York. The Lassco freight and passenger steamer Diamond Head is expected today or tomorrow with her capacity of sixteen passengers and freight from Hawaii.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15. (AP)—Edward T. Ford, president of the Panama Mail Line, announced today that bids on four new electrically driven liners for the company's intercoast service will be opened in Washington July 1, next.

The four vessels, to be built under the Jones-White act, will cost $5,000,000 each and under present plans will be the most modern and completely equipped vessels in the passenger trade between New York and San Francisco. Ford said he expects two of the new liners will be built on the Pacific Coast.

SEATTLE, June 15.—Indicating that the 1930 tourist season is rapidly getting under way, nearly 1500 passengers will embark from Seattle piers this week. Alaska and California are the objectives of most of the travelers, while considerable numbers will be bound for the Orient.

The Dorothy Alexander of the Pacific Steamship Company will establish the season's record when she leaves Tuesday for Southeastern Alaska with a list of 350 passengers for an excursion cruise.

The H. F. Alexander of the same line will sail later the same day for California ports with 500 passengers.

The Northwestern of the Alaska Steamship Company will leave Tuesday for Southeastern Alaska with 200 passengers, mostly tourists, while the Nakawa Maru, Nippon Yusen Kaisha motorship, will take 300 passengers to the Orient on her first trip from this coast.

PORTLAND (Or.) June 15.—Capt. J. Struth, skipper of the British steamer Benecleuch, which every five months steams around the world from London to London and usually finds the winds with her rather than against her, brought his vessel into Portland harbor today to load 1,000,000 feet of lumber for foreign ports.

The skipper said the recent trouble in China has affected seriously the market for all goods. The exchange is down, he said, and the yen, on his last trip, was at 36 cents gold, when it should be 50 cents gold par.

Capt. Struth said that about every five months his vessel covers 27,000 miles, and on an average trip will have carried 20,000 tons of cargo.

TRANS-PACIFIC MAIL

Following schedule of sailing is provided by the Los Angeles Postoffice:

June 17, from Los Angeles. Mail for Japan and Korea.

Cotton Shippers Ask Farm Board to Avert Chaos

NEW ORLEANS, June 15. (AP)—A warning that "chaotic conditions" will prevail in the cotton industry this fall unless prevented by Federal Farm Board action, was voiced by the American Cotton Shippers' Association following a meeting here.

The cotton shippers, referring to the Federal Farm Board as a "public trust," appealed to the board to make a "full, frank and complete statement" immediately regarding its spot holdings and immediate plans. The shippers asked the statement, according to their announcement, "so that a repetition of the present demoralized condition will not again occur and faith may be restored in the integrity of the markets."

SHIP DUMPS AUTOS IN SEA TO SAVE ITSELF

SYDNEY (N. S. W.) June 15. (Exclusive)—So rough was the voyage of the small motorship Beulah from San Francisco to Townville, Queensland, that the deck cargo consisting of five cases of motor cars and 1000 drums of oil was jettisoned and the crew took to the lifeboats, returning to the ship when conditions brightened. It was a tremendous task freeing the cargo as the seas were raging. Even then the worst was not over for the vessel listed ominously. The crew was apprehensive as the seas swept the decks, doing great damage and carrying a lifeboat over. The ship met another storm just before reaching Townville.

FOURTEEN CROATIANS GUILTY OF CONSPIRACY

BELGRADE, June 15. (Exclusive)—The trial of twenty-four Croatians, charged with conspiring against the Jugo-Slavian kingdom, has ended.

The chief defendant, Dr. Wladimir Macek and nine others, were acquitted. Fourteen of the defendants were sentenced to terms ranging from six months to fifteen years.

"TIMES" THEATER GUIDE

MOTION PICTURES

Alhambra, Hill near Eighth—"Ingagi." A novelty animal film which has caused any amount of discussion about the country.

Bard's, Eighth between Broadway & Hill—"The Phantom of the Opera." Redressed in sound this old terror returns for no particular good.

Boulevard, Washington at Vermont—"Arizona Kid." Warner Baxter again takes up his Cisco Kid role and effectively.

California, Main near Eighth—"Beau Bandit." Robin Hood dons a Spanish costume and seeks adventure. With Rod La Rocque.

Carthay Circle, Carthay Center—"All Quiet on the Western Front." A mighty drama of war and its effect. This is one which should not be missed.

Chinese, 6925 Hollywood—"Hell's Angels." It took Howard Hughes four years and $4,000,000 to produce the colossus of the air; and it was worth it.

Criterion, 642 South Grand—"The Divorcee." A daring and well-defined exposition of the modern woman in which Norma Shearer gives one of the finest performances.

Figueroa, Fig. at Santa Barbara—"High Society Blues." Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell take to jazz and not so successfully.

Filmarte, 1228 Vine—"The Great Unknown." A mystery hodge-podge for which there is no solution.

Forum, Pico at Norton—"Slightly Scarlet." Clive Brook and Evelyn Brent give customarily good performances in a melodrama.

Loew's State, Broadway at Seventh—"Not Damaged." A deft comedy amusingly played by Lois Moran as a shop girl who makes her dreams come true.

Grauman's Egyptian, 6708 Hollywood Boulevard—"Paramount on Parade." The little Paramount family displays its latest talents and to some advantage.

Million Dollar, Bdy. at 3rd—"Ladies Love Brutes."

Palace, Broadway bet. 6th and 7th—"Caught Short."

Pantages, Holly'd nr. Vine—"Once A Gentleman." Edward Everett Horton butties his way to laughter in his customary, sure-fire manner.

Paramount, Hill at Sixth—"The Social Lion." Jack Oakie succeeds in stardom as is seen in this bit of delightful amusement.

Ritz, Wilshire at La Brea—"Ladies Love Brutes." George Bancroft has another attack of nobility in the midst of crime.

R.K.O., Hill at Eighth—"Strictly Modern." Dorothy Mackaill and Sidney Blackmer engage in quiet romance to good effect.

R.K.O. Orpheum, Broadway at Ninth—"Captain of the Guard." Reviewed in today's Times.

Tower, Broadway at Eighth—"Journey's End." A fine interpretation of the season's leading war drama. With Colin Clive.

United Artists, Bdwy. nr. 9th—"The Big Pond." An ingenious comedy which provides Maurice Chevalier with plenty of opportunity to display his popular personality.

Uptown, Western at Tenth—"Ladies Love Brutes."

Warners' Downtown, Hill at Seventh—"Hearts in Exile." A lot of money spent in bringing back Russia to popular attention. Dolores Costello.

Warners' Hollywood, Hollywood Blvd. at Wilcox—"Dancing Sweeties." Diverting struggles of newly married love portrayed by Sue Carol and Grant Withers.

Westlake, 638 Alvarado—"Caught Short."

STAGE

Belasco, Hill at Eleventh—"Caprice." Opens tonight.

El Capitan, Holly'd Blvd. nr. Highland—"Nancy's Private Affair." Reviewed in today's Times.

Figueroa Playhouse, Fig. nr. 10th—"A Man's Man." A deft drama of a nice young couple neatly crushed by life. Patsy Ruth Miller.

Hollywood Playhouse, Vine nr. Hollywood Blvd.—"June Moon." Ring Lardner and George S. Kaufman's comedy on the problems of song-writing returns by popular request.

Majestic, Bdwy. at 9th—"The Last Mile." A tense feverish drama of a prisoner's last hour of life. Clark Gables and Eddie Woods.

Mayan, Hill nr. 11th—"Decency." Sordid and tropic is the setting, not to sustain the action, and Katharine Wilson makes the most of her opportunity.

President, Broadway at 8th—"Crime." Opens tonight.

Vine Street, 1615 Vine—"Under a Virginia Moon." Opens tonight.

VARIETIES

Young Suspect Kills Himself

OAKLAND, June 15. (AP)—Rather than submit to arrest as an auto-theft suspect, 18-year-old Richard Dunn of Oakland committed suicide here late last night with a gun. The youth ended his life in an alley where he had been cornered by Patrolman J. M. Healy after a chase of several blocks.

FOURTH CENTENNIAL OF CREED OBSERVED

AUGSBURG (Germany) June 15. (AP)—The quadricentennial celebration of the Augsburg Confession was inaugurated today at the City Hall where delegates from over the world were welcomed by the Bavarian authorities. The Augsburg Confession is considered the basic statement of the Protestant faith. It was at this city that the Catholics and Lutherans, after twenty-five years of religious strife, concluded a peace in 1555.

AUTO VICTIM EXPIRES

TURLOCK, June 15. (AP) — Mrs. Leulla C. Flynn, 51 years of age, of Oakland died in a hospital here today of injuries received yesterday in an automobile accident near this city.

Pioneer Author of West Tales Dies in Arizona

FLAGSTAFF (Ariz.) June 15. (AP) Harrison Conrad, 59 years of age, pioneer of Coconino county and author of poems and stories dealing with the Old West, died in a hospital here today of heart disease.

Conrad was brought here yesterday from his retreat, known as "Robbers' Roost," under Elden Crags, five miles east of the city. His best known book of poems is "Quivira." Many of his short stories have been used in motion pictures.

Conrad was born in Cincinnati and was graduated from San Xavier College there. He came here in the early days and served as superintendent of schools before retiring to "Robbers' Roost" and devoting his time to chronicling his memories of frontier characters. He never married.

War Mothers of California Visit Cathedral

PARIS, June 15. (AP)—Gold Star Mothers and wives from Michigan and California, officially listed as "Party F," spent today sightseeing in Paris, and in spite of intermittent rains were thrilled by their visit to the Sacred Heart Cathedral.

They will leave tomorrow morning to visit the graves of their sons and husbands in the battlefield cemeteries.

Members of "Party E," who arrived the 5th inst. have completed their visits to the cemeteries and will return here tomorrow. They will visit Fontainebleau and Napoleon's Tomb in the Invalides before leaving for the United States.

HYDE JUST SPECTATOR IN FLY WAR

Lack of Funds Limits Federal Aid in Florida to Advice, Says Official

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with the State Plant Board, has resumed work in Florida on the eradication of the fruit-fly pest, Secretary Hyde announced today.

Funds at the disposal of the department, Secretary Hyde explained, will not permit the department to undertake spray or clean-up work. In cases of actual infestation this clean-up and spray work will be done under authority of the State Plant Board, an organization which performed valuable service last season in the eradication campaign.

Intensive clean-up and spray work must be carried out by the growers with the department giving such assistance as is possible in the way of information and service.

Intensive inspections will be continued and it is hoped conditions will justify an order permitting the shipment of citrus fruits originating outside the zones not actually infested without sterilization to the Northeast and Middle West. This will mean—after a reasonable period of "no infestations"—restoration to the status of Zone No. 3 of areas in Zone No. 2 where no infestations are found.

EASTERNER LENDS EAR TO GOSSIP

New York Representative Passes on Rumors About Western Nominee

WASHINGTON, June 15. (AP)—An investigation of Charles E. Allen, recently nominated by President Hoover as United States Marshal for the Western District of Washington, by the Senate Judiciary Committee was urged today in a letter addressed to Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, chairman of the group, by Representative La Guardia, Republican, New York.

Allen has been nominated to succeed E. B. Benn, who, La Guardia said, "Has been exposing conditions and seeking to have incompetent and dishonest officials removed from office."

La Guardia said he was informed Allen "has been actively engaged from time to time as a lobbyist up in Alaska on behalf of the salmon and other fish canneries," and asked for an investigation into this charge.

Tioga Pass Road Officially Open

YOSEMITE, June 15. (AP)—The Tioga Pass road, which was officially opened today, was declared to be in fairly good condition by A. H. Patterson and Nat Woods of Stockton, who drove the first car of the season over the route.

Word of the successful trip was brought here from the Soda Springs ranger station today.

NEWS OF MIDDLE WEST

These news briefs of happenings in the Middle West are collected by The Times' Chicago correspondent, and are sent by leased wire to Los Angeles. Efforts are made to obtain late news which will be of interest to the many former residents of that section, who are now in California.

SOUTH DAKOTA

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Novonty celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary at Tabor. They have fourteen children, sixty-nine grandchildren and twenty-eight great-grandchildren. He is 85 years of age and she is 80. They both read without glasses.

NEBRASKA

Perry M. Wheeler, South Side Omaha attorney, was named municipal judge by Gov. Weaver to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Robert W. Patrick.

Anton Wagner, 78 years of age, was found dead in bed at his home at 3724 North Eighteenth street, Omaha.

A. T. Sigwart, retired Omaha police captain, and his wife, have returned from a six months' visit to the Pacific Coast.

Mrs. Sadie Smith, 52, resident of Omaha fifteen years, died at the home of her son-in-law, Edward J. Barrick, following a brief illness.

IOWA

Prof. John W. Ganaway, Grinnell College, was chosen Grand Master of Iowa at the eighty-seventh communion of the Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M. in Des Moines.

Cornelius Vogelar and R. Vellinga, both pioneers of Orange City community, are dead there.

Three hailstorms visited Ida county causing crop losses of $150,000 to $500,000. One storm cut a swath one mile wide across the county from east to west.

Revised unofficial State totals now place G. C. Greenwalt, Des Moines, 306 votes in the lead for the Republican nomination for Secretary of State.

MINNESOTA

A deputy sheriff and a merchant were kidnaped and threatened with death near St. Paul by three bandits who later tossed them into the woods seven miles from St. Paul and fled in the merchant's automobile.

The city of Minneapolis has obtained a temporary restraining order against the Minneapolis Gas Light Company to halt it from putting higher gas rates into effect.

Indictments were ordered quashed in a ruling of the State Supreme Court against Mrs. Lillian P. Rixon, several years a teacher in Minneapolis public schools, and her brother, Dr. A. G. Phelps, which accused them of setting fire to the physician's former residence at Ogilvie, shortly after the insurance on the residence had been increased to $20,500.

INDIANA

Mrs. Mary Daniels, 80 years of age, mother of Frank Daniels, Sheriff of Madison county, and Arthur Daniels, former Sheriff, died at St. John's Hospital in Anderson. She was prominent in church work and American Legion Auxiliary at Alexandria.

An estate valued at approximately $50,000 was left by David Beverland, who died May 28, according to papers filed in Probate Court, Indianapolis.

Mrs. Lucy Hutcheson, 71, attacked by a cow on her farm southwest of Greencastle, suffered a fractured hip, both arms broken and internal injuries. Due to her advanced age her condition is critical.

Fred R. Bell, former cashier of the Illiana State Bank at State Line, Ind., is in jail at Danville, Ill., charged with having embezzled $25,000. The bank was closed by the State immediately after his arrest. Bell is said to have confessed the shortage.

OHIO

The Pentecostal Church in Bedford township near Pomeroy was rocked and windows blown out by a dynamite bomb set off in the rear of the building while 200 persons were attending a revival meeting. No one was hurt.

W. L. Pinder, 37 years of age, assistant cashier of the Wade Park branch of the Cleveland Trust Company, confessed, according to bank officials, that he had embezzled $60,000 since May, 1929.

KENTUCKY

Stricken by a heart attack as he walked from his home to take a train, George Wilson Prewitt, 60 years of age, auditor of disbursements for the L. & N. Railway, died before he could be given medical attention.

The Bank of Russellville failed to open its doors and a notice posted said its affairs had been turned over to the State Department of Banking for liquidation. The failure is blamed on frozen assets.

MICHIGAN

The W.C.T.U. declared war on the use of women's pictures in billboard advertising and the singing of the "Stein Song" in public schools.

Federal bank examiners were continuing their examination of the books of the First National Bank of Cheboygan following the revelation that Clyde Milliken, manager of the savings department, who killed himself, was short $308,000 in his accounts.

WISCONSIN

More than 10,000 persons drawn from various parts of Wisconsin and South Dakota gathered at dedication exercises at Oshkosh of a monument erected to the memory of Webster Stanley, the first white settler of Oshkosh, who built his little log cabin on the bank of the Fox River in 1836.

KANSAS

The Kansas State Park of Scott county was opened and the Steele Memorial was dedicated at Scott City in a celebration in which many Western Kansas citizens took part. The park, a preserve of 1200 acres of rugged scenery twelve miles north of Scott City, includes a lake of 130 acres.

Rev. Robert L. Layfield, known for many years to nearly all the church people in the Kansas City section as "Bob Layfield, the newsboy evangelist," died at his home at Kansas City, Kan.

MISSOURI

Arthur O. Meininger, cashier of the Night and Day Bank which failed in 1922, due to his misappropriation of $754,000, was released from Jefferson City penitentiary.

Included in the shortage of George A. Lubeley, former vice-president and cashier of the Natural Bridge Bank and Trust Company, St. Louis, are forged notes for $55,500, one of which bears the name of his brother, a priest, and several others the name of the former cashier's widowed sister-in-law. The shortage, it is learned, exceeds $150,000.

PLATICAS DE LOS LUNES

POR EL PROFESOR R. GUERRERO
Encargado de la Sección Española de Este Diario

En el articulo que hemos estado comentando nos habla el escritor de un concejal francés que "ha solicitado la jubilación". Llámase "jubilación" la acción y efecto de "jubilar" o "jubilarse"; y "jubilar" es eximir del servicio, por razón de ancianidad o imposibilidad fisica, a la persona que desempeña o ha desempeñado algún cargo civil, señalándole pensión vitalicia en recompensa de los servicios prestados. "Jubilación" es también el haber pasivo que disfruta la persona jubilada. Llámase pasivo este haber, porque lo percibe un miembro de las clasas pasivas. Entiéndese por "clases pasivas" el conjunto de personas que reciben una pensión del Estado sin prestarle servicio activo, y en razón a que se lo han prestado ellas o sus ascendientes o sus cónyuges.

Tratándose de militares o marinos de guerra, la jubilación se denomina "retiro", voz que denota la situación del militar retirado, como el sueldo o haber que éste disfruta. Existe igualmente el "retiro social u obrero", institución creada para asegurar pensiones a los trabajadores que llegan a la edad del retiro, mediante un fondo que se constitutye con aportaciones del Estado, contribuciones de los patronos, y cuotas obligatorias de los obreros asegurados.

Tomamos de la Enciclopedia de Espasa algunos pormenores sobre jubilación, tal como la preve la legislación vigente en España: Jubilación es la situación de derecho en que queda el empleado civil que cesa definitivamente en el servicio del Estado, bien por su edad o por imposibilidad fisica, y en virtud de la cual el propio Estado le reconoce el derecho al haber que por clasificación le corresponda. Su fundamento radica en la obligación moral por parte del Estado de sostener hasta los últimos dias de su vida al funcionario que, sucumbiendo al peso de los años, o por cualquier otra causa fisica independiente de su voluntad, se ha inutilizado para continuar prestando sus servicios al país.

En España, la declaración de la situación de jubilado corresponde siempre al Ministerio donde el funcionario venga prestando sus servicios; pero la clasificación de los mismos y la fijación del haber pasivo que haya de concedérsele está atribuída a la Dirección de la Deuda y Clases Privadas. La jubilación, según la Ley, es un derecho del funcionario y una obligación de la Administración. Aquél tiene el de pretenderla cuando haya cumplido sesenta y cinco años de edad o cuarenta de servicios; y la Administración la de imponérsela a los mayores de sesenta y siete años y a los que adolezcan de enfermedades que les inhabiliten para el desempeño de sus cargos. El limite de los sesenta y siete años para la jubilación forzosa por edad se aplica como norma general a todos los funcionarios de la Administración civil, y al mismo han quedado expersamente sujetos los abogados del Estado.

El algunos cuerpos y servicios organizados por disposiciones especiales no impera el limite de los sesenta y siete años como determinativo de la jubilación forzosa, y rigen otros dos distintos, a saber: el de sesenta y cinco años para los ingenieros civiles, los empleados de Aduanas, los meteorólogos y sus auxiliares, los empleados de Correos y Telégrafos, y los subalternos de estos ramos; y el de setenta años para los catedráticos y profesores de los establecimientos de enseñanza, y los maestros de instrucción primaria.

Para los jueces y magistrados es forzosa la jubilación a los sesenta y cinco y setenta años, respectivamente, términos fijados por el articulo 239 de la Ley Orgánica del poder judicial e impuestos inexorablemente por la Ley del 30 de Marzo de 1915, que sólo exceptúa de su aplicación al presidente y al fiscal del Tribunal Supremo. La jubilación forzosa de los maestros de arsenales es a los sesenta años.

En la base 8a. de la Ley vigente del 22 de Julio de 1918 se consigna como precepto general que para la jubilación se contarán los años de servicio que haya prestado el funcionario en calidad de aspirante. Este precepto viene confirmado en el articulo 87 del Reglamento del 7 de Septiembre del propio año, que en su articulo 91 fija, como se ha indicado anteriormente, en cuarenta los años de servicios efectivos necesarios para adquirir el derecho a la jubilación. Como disposición especial, merece citarse la Real Orden del 18 de Noviembre de 1925, según la cual los carteros que tengan más de sesenta y cinco años de edad y no reúnan veinte de servicios, podrán completar éstos, para obtener la jubilación señalada en el articulo 65 del Reglamento del cuerpo, con el tiempo servido de peatones o en carterías rurales. Los que en lo sucesivo lleguen a los setenta y cinco años sin reunir los veinte de servicios, y no puedan reunirlos contando los servicios rurales y el servicio militar, pueden continuar en activo.

La cuantia de los haberes de jubilación ha sido considerablemente aumentada por la ley, y ya no se contiene en el limite máximo de 10,000 pesetas, sino que puede llegar a 12,000 y 15,000 pesetas.

GULF STREAM SOON TO BOIL

Tube to Harness Waters Off Cuba Nearly Ready

Power Plant Described as Largest in World

Pipe Line Will be Lowered Into Warm Current

MATANZAS (Cuba) June 15. (AP) The visionary plan of a French scientist of harnessing the Gulf Stream and converting its warmth into energy sufficient to turn the wheels of industry today was declared nearing the stage of a practical demonstration.

After years of costly experiments Prof. Georges Claude said he has completed a tube 1700 yards long which he soon will lower into the sea to serve as a pipe line from the Gulf Stream to a power plant he has erected at his laboratory along the Gulf shore here.

His theory is that the Gulf Stream waters being subjected to vacuum will rise to the boiling point and produce steam sufficient to turn great turbines for generating electrical power.

The tube will rest in the channel on the bottom of the sea. A year ago he submerged a tube of smaller proportions and lesser strength but it was rendered unserviceable by strong undercurrents. Elaborate preparations for sinking the new tube have been made, including the building of a railway track, a mile and a quarter long, over the water.

The laboratory where Prof. Claude has been conducting his experiments covers nearly an acre. At the rear of the main building he has constructed enormous naves, where the mechanical work is being done. He declared the project, when completed, will comprise the largest power plant in existence.

Recently he submitted a paper on his experiments to the Academy of Science at Paris and was assured his plan is practical. A survey of the project was made yesterday by two engineers of the Cuban Department of Public Works, who expressed themselves as elated over its possibilities.

MISS LEE BRIDE OF DIRECTOR

Nuptials of Luther Reed and Player Witnessed by Only Few Friends

Another romance of the studios blossomed yesterday when Jocelyn Lee, actress, and Luther Reed, director, were married at the Hollywood Congregational Church. The ceremony, performed by Dr. James H. Lash, pastor, in the vestry room, before an improvised altar banked with lilies of the valley, was attended by only a few friends of the couple.

LUTHER REED

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fleck served as best man and matron of honor. Following the nuptials, Mr. and Mrs. Reed gave a wedding supper in the Town House.

The couple announced they will depart in the fall on a honeymoon tour of Europe, Reed's work at the R.-K.-O. studios preventing the trip at this time.

Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Macloon (Lillian Albertson,) Anne Caldwell, Ted Parson, Motley Flint, H. Mackaye, Mrs. Eliza Albertson, Victor Barovalle and Grace Kingsley.

Sheriff's Sale Interrupted by Court Decree

A court order to stop the sale of coffin nails, shrouds, caskets, cerements, sarcophagi, and other mortuary supplies, has been issued in the divorce case of Mrs. Tersila Carranza against Cira Carranza, proprietor of an undertaking establishment at 261 North Ford Boulevard.

Although debtors had forced a Sheriff's sale, and an auctioneer was about to place under the hammer a set of choice silver coffin handles, Attorney J. R. Marquette, Jr., arrived just in time with the court order. Superior Judge Crawford had held that the property could not be hypothecated until the question of its community status, raised in the divorce trial, could be settled.

Opening of Bids for Sewer Set

The Board of Public Works on Wednesday will open bids for the construction of Secs. 34-A and 34-B of the north outfall sewer in the San Fernando Valley.

Bids were received by the board several weeks ago, but invalidated when the lowest bidder declared a mistake had been made in his estimates.

U.C.L.A. SENIORS OPEN EXERCISES

More Than 900 Take Part in Service on Campus

Rev. George Davidson Gives Baccalaureate Sermon

Degrees Will be Awarded to Class Friday Afternoon

More than 900 seniors of the University of California at Los Angeles attended the baccalaureate service on the campus grounds and in the auditorium of Royce Hall yesterday. The services marked the first of the six-day commencement exercises which will reach the climax Friday at the Hollywood Bowl when degrees will be awarded.

Clad in caps and gowns the students assembled on the campus and marched into Royce Hall. Dr. Ernest C. Moore, director of the university, opened the services with a Scripture reading. After this Rev. George Davidson of St. John's Episcopal Church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon.

NEW ERA OPENS

In his address Dr. Davidson declared the trend of educational institutions to Southern California "marks only a new era for the Pacific Coast."

"In former days we said, 'We must do this, or we must do that,'" he continued, "but in this day it is the big 'I' in doing things. We must assert our own individuality, and not dependent on some one else to help us along."

Tomorrow at the Masonic clubhouse Dr. and Mrs. Moore will be host and hostess to the graduating class. The reception will start at 5:30 p.m. Prior to the reception the graduates will be guests of fraternities and groups of friends.

BEACH PARTY

Wednesday there will be a "class-day beach party." In the evening a banquet will be given by the alumni association.

Thursday is commencement day practice. The graduates will gather at the Hollywood Bowl at 9:30 a.m. for rehearsal. In the evening the senior ball will be held at the Beverly-Wilshire Hotel at 9 p.m.

The commencement exercises will be conducted at the Hollywood Bowl at 4 p.m Friday. Diplomas will be awarded 997 graduates.

BODY TAKEN FROM OCEAN BY PATROL

Unidentified Corpse May be One of Men Missing After Ameco Disaster

The body of an unidentified man, thought to be another victim of the recent Ameco tragedy, was recovered yesterday afternoon from the ocean at a point about two miles northeast of Topanga Canyon. The county fish patrol boat Cobra found the body after members of a fishing party had telephoned the location to the Santa Monica police.

Police Chief Webb of Santa Monica said the body was that of a man weighing between 155 and 160 pounds and in life had been 5ft. 9in. in height. The body had light brown hair, rather long in front and was dressed in a suit of coveralls that originally had been either tan or olive drab; a cotton undershirt, brown socks and high-topped, laced boots that had been half-soled with rubber. Police believe the best mark of identification was a patch sewn into the overalls over the right breast pocket.

With the exception of four missing, the teeth were in good condition. The body when found was in such an advanced stage of decomposition that the features were unrecognizable.

The Cobra, manned by T. C. Martin, T. E. Cheney and Jack S. Albright, towed the body to the Santa Monica municipal pier where it was taken to the Wilshire Funeral Home. Santa Monica police late yesterday were endeavoring to reach the families of the twelve persons still reported to be missing in the wreck of the Ameco.

The pleasure fishing boat Ameco sank on May 30, when it overturned in a heavy sea near Santa Monica throwing its crowded passengers into the ocean with the loss of four known dead and twelve missing.

Banzais Speed Nippon Flyer on Globe Hop

With rousing cheers from a crowd of 5000 Japanese, Zensaku Azuma, Japanese airplane pilot who has traded his cook's cap for an aviator's helmet, left Los Angeles Metropolitan Airport yesterday at 2:45 p.m. on the first leg of a projected flight around the world.

Japanese Buddha priests in their ceremonial robes gave the plane and pilot their blessing before the flight and attached numerous good-luck streamers to the tail of the plane. Azuma plans to fly to New York by easy stages, where he will take a steamer for Europe, flying over continental Europe to Japan by way of Siberia.

The Japanese pilot, who purchased his plane with the profits of a restaurant he has operated in Los Angeles for several years, was the guest of honor at a banquet Saturday night at the Sanko restaurant, San Pedro and East First streets, sponsored by the Doi Shoten, Japanese oil company, and the Japanese Daily News.

Azuma, who is 37 years of age, was an aviation mechanic during the World War and received his flying instruction from Col. Arthur Goebel, Frank Tomick and Bob Lloyd. He has been flying since 1920.

The assessment district map for the improvement of Council street from Beverly Boulevard to Juanita street has been approved by the City Council.

CITY BUDGET TO BE TOPIC OF PARLEYS

Mayor Porter and Council Members Will Confer in Secret on Items

A secret conclave over the city budget will be conducted early this week by Mayor Porter and members of the City Council. The outcome is in doubt. The secret meetings are inspired, it is understood, by the fear on the part of Councilmen that the income for general government purposes, $25,000,000, has been overestimated, and a lean treasury is in prospect.

Under the charter, the Council must approve the budget and return it to Mayor Porter by Friday. He has five days to consider it, at which he returns it to the Council with any vetoes, changes, deletions or additions he deems fit. The Council then has three days to consider it, and can make further changes by a two-thirds vote.

WALKER FUNERAL TODAY

Earl Walker, Jr., 13-year-old son of Earl R. Walker, deputy-county assessor, will be buried today in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Services will be conducted at 2 p.m. today at the Turner, Stevens & Berry chapel, South Pasadena. The boy leaves his parents, a sister, Miss Grace Walker, and a brother, John M. Walker.

SYNDICATED STUDENT OBTAINS LAW DEGREE

Speaking of bringing home the bacon, here is a young man who procured his bacon in Los Angeles, took it to New York and brought it back here again in the form of an LL.B. degree from Columbia University law school.

He is Russell D. Garner, 25 years of age, of 1637 Freeman avenue, Long Beach. He produced a plan for financing his law education. It made such a hit with business and professional men of Los Angeles that three years ago they underwrote his plan and now he is back with his degree, ready to go to work and earn the money to pay back his benefactors.

Mr. Garner had studied law at two universities here for three years. He could not get locally just what he wanted in the branch of law he proposed to specialize in. He consulted lawyers and educators and was told that he should go to Columbia University. He did not have money to do it, despite the fact that he was working part-time in a local law office.

He was sure he would have little chance to get one man to let him have the money for his education, but he probably could get a group to do it. He drew up a neat prospectus. He had statements from lawyers and others that if he wanted the best in corporation law and finance, Columbia was one place that could give it to him. He had his recommendations, as to character, education, ability, and included his grades. He had the recommendation from the law firm for which he worked, Page, Nolan, Rohe & Freston.

He set forth his estimated expenditures for the three years—$1500. He guaranteed to take out a life insurance policy to indemnify his backers should he die. He submitted a schedule of repayments, to be concluded within four years of graduation.

Armed with this prospectus, Garner tackled his first prospect. It hit

BLAZE SCORCHES LIBRARY

Destruction in Periodical Rooms Laid to Workmen; Gasoline as Floor Cleaner at Fault

Igniting of gasoline from a gas heater was the cause of a fire, according to police, which early Sunday swept through the periodical and magazine rooms of the Los Angeles Public Library, causing damage estimated at several thousand dollars.

The blaze started in the periodical room, according to the report of Officers Dykes and Kempf, where a crew of workmen had been cleaning the floor with gasoline. When the gas heater was lighted to dry the floor the highly volatile liquid instantly burst into flame. In the sudden blast of heat and flame the workmen were forced to leap to safety. No one was injured, the officers said.

Smoke began to pour out of the windows and a citizen, seeing it, turned in an alarm. Before apparatus had arrived, however, the fire had spread into the magazine room and consumed much of the contents. In the meantime, the workmen in the building had closed doors to other rooms and had taken precautions to prevent further spread of the flames.

When members of the fire department finally arrived hose lines were run into the building and the blaze eventually was extinguished. Besides the periodicals and magazines that were burned the interior woodwork and walls of both rooms were badly damaged.

Officials of the fire department yesterday declined to give out information of the fire, other than that "there had been a little fire in the library," and that an investigation is being made.

RINDGE ESTATE INVADED BY BAND OF SQUATTERS

Foray Made by More Than 100 "Claim Jumpers" During Night; Bloodshed Barely Averted

Prepared to execute their plans with one bold stroke under cover of darkness, more than 100 squatters early yesterday invaded the vast Rindge estate on the Coast Highway in an organized and concerted attempt at claim-jumping, and were dispersed by recourse to the law only after bloodshed for some time had threatened to write a tragic finale to the expedition.

The ambitious effort, based on a fifty-year-old act of Congress, was launched early Saturday night from Los Angeles, but did not reach serious proportions until shortly before daybreak yesterday, when a large band of armed ranch employees resisted further activities of the squatters and called on authorities to place them under arrest.

TWELVE SEIZED

The invasion landed twelve of the squatters in custody, all on warrants charging simple trespassing. They are booked as Raymond G. La None, whose address is given as Hollywood Boulevard and Vine street; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Ashton, 6011 Eleanor avenue; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kerr, box 174, Oxnard; Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Linden, 6017 Eleanor avenue; H. D. Dent, box 1430, Santa Monica; Frank H. Webster, 834 Tenth street, Santa Monica; William L. Harris, 1943½ North Vine street; Floyd Willis, 1130 Tamarind street, and Robert T. Kerr, 301 South Clark street. All are at liberty under $10 bail each pending trial at 10 a.m. on the 23rd inst. before Justice of the Peace Webster of Malibu township.

County peace officers who put an end to the siege, following frantic calls from employees of the estate, estimate there were about 135 persons, both men and women, in the party. They assembled quietly in their automobiles about 9 p.m. on Saturday at Las Flores Canyon which marks the southern boundary of the Rindge estate. The caravan then moved slowly northward, its ranks thinning as individuals dropped by the wayside to post copies of a notice on the frontage they had planned to homestead.

"NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT"

The notice, a typewritten form, was dated the 14th inst. and characterized as a "notice of settlement claims of unappropriated land under the act of May 14, 1880."

"To whom it may concern," it read. "Notice is hereby given by the undersigned, Raymond G. La None, that he is a qualified entryman and a World War veteran; that he claims prior rights to entry under the act of May 14, 1880, of the following described lands, to-wit: All unapportioned, unsurveyed lands both north and south of the State highway lying between the southerly boundary of the Rancho Topanga Malibu Sequit and the mean high tide line of the Pacific Ocean in Los Angeles county, California, and bounded on the east by a line drawn through Station No. 1103, plus nineteen, at right angles through the center line of said State highway, and on the west by a line drawn through Station No. 915, at right angles to said center line and shown on County Surveyor's map No. 8658, records of Los Angeles county, California; the distance between said stations along the center line of the highway being about 18,819 feet.

"I will record this notice together with an affidavit of intention in the official records of Los Angeles county on June 16, 1930. The stations above referred to are engineer stations of the center line of the State highway.

"RAYMOND G. LA NONE,
"Los Angeles."

DEPUTIES CALLED

Shortly after midnight, when the squatters had strung themselves out on a twenty-one-mile front extending from the Las Flores Canyon bridge to the Ventura county line, a truckload of lumber arrived at a point in front of the palatial estate of Mrs. Rhoda Rindge Adamson, one of the Rindge heirs, about three miles north of Las Flores Canyon bridge.

Sensing the purpose of the invaders, which, according to officers was the hasty erection of claim shacks, D. Van Tol, general superintendent of the Rindge estate, notified the Sheriff's office and a detail of twenty deputies led by Deputy Sheriff Bob Cook of Fairfax substation, and Deputy Sheriff Thompson, moved toward the scene of operations. They were joined at the bridge by Constable McNabb of Malibu township.

Meanwhile a score of Rindge employees had mobilized themselves into a defending patrol, concentrating their reconnaissance in the vicinity of the Adamson property. Some commanded an adjoining hillside, others entrenched themselves behind a stone wall that fringes the estate and still others kept vigil

MOTOR CRASHES FATAL TO THREE

Two Lose Lives at Nearly Same Spot on Highway

Trio of Boys Seriously Hurt in Other Accidents

Several Seized on Charges of Drunk Driving

Automobile accidents at approximately the same spot on Foothill Boulevard near San Bernardino yesterday took the lives of a woman resident of Los Angeles and a man from Hermosa Beach while a third crash resulted fatally for another man, resident of Long Beach.

The dead were Mrs. Bessie Gerjansky, 38 years of age, of 2101 Brooklyn avenue, W. I. Bradbury, 45, of 37 Seventh street, Hermosa Beach, and T. D. Cleek, an oil-well driller, 115½ East Market street, Long Beach.

Week-end mishaps also accounted for serious injuries to three boys, and the arrest of three motorists on charges of driving while intoxicated.

INJURED IN CRASH

Mrs. Gerjansky received her fatal injuries in a head-on collision twelve miles west of San Bernardino, between Etiwanda and Muscat. She was riding with Alexander Smith, when his car crashed into a machine carrying two Mexican laborers. The accident occurred about 2 a.m. and Mrs. Gerjansky died an hour later. The three men escaped with minor cuts.

Smith told San Bernardino police that Mrs. Gerjansky was the wife of a prominent Los Angeles clothing man, and that he was driving her to Las Vegas, Nev., where she was to meet her husband. The body was taken to the Mark B. Shaw Mortuary, San Bernardino, where an inquest will be conducted at 10 a.m. today.

CRUSHED BY TOW CAR

Bradbury succumbed to injuries received when a tow car crushed him against his own machine. His car had broken down and he was standing behind it, making it fast to the tow car, when a third automobile rammed the tow car. He died on the way to San Bernardino. His wife, mother-in-law and four children, who were seated in the disabled machine, escaped unhurt.

Cleek, according to police, drove his car into an ornamental lighting standard on Long Beach Boulevard near Fifty-first street, Long Beach. Other motorists extricated him from the wreckage, but he died in an ambulance en route to the Community Hospital. The body was removed to the McFadyen Mortuary, Long Beach.

BICYCLISTS HURT

John Vanderzee, 12, and Paul Atkinson, 14, were struck by an automobile while riding a bicycle near their home at 216 West One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street Saturday evening. Both were taken to the Southwestern Hospital, where their condition was reported critical. The driver of the car, according to a Sheriff's office report, was William C. Schranz of 537 West One Hundred and Eighth street. After the car hit the bicycle it swerved into a tree causing slight injuries to Schranz, deputies stated.

Hit by the automobile of an unidentified driver Jackie MacWilliams, 5, was taken to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital with a skull fracture which may result in his death. The accident occurred near the boy's home at 2235 1-8 West Fourteenth street. The lad was removed to the General Hospital.

AUTO HITS POLE

After he had driven his automobile into a telephone pole at Colorado Boulevard and Windemere street, Chester H. De Haven, 47, an artist, of 1340 Gower street, was taken into custody by Officers Moore and Cox accused of driving while intoxicated. The officers reported

PURE WATER PLANS PUSHED

Conference Will be Held by Two City Groups to Map Campaign for Greater Safeguards

A conference between the Health Committee and the Board of Water and Power Commissioners to consider plans for safeguarding the purity of the city's water supply is to be held shortly as the result of another declaration by H. H. Mathieson, sanitary engineer for the health department, that such action is imperative.

Mathieson, in a communication to the health department, points out various recommendations which have been made during the last four or five years, but which have been held up by the water department on the plea of lack of funds. With the carrying of the recent water bond issue he says that there now is no longer any excuse for not making the necessary improvements, which he lists as follows:

An adequate by-pass around the upper and lower San Bernardino reservoirs to protect them from contaminated surface waters entering in time of storm.

An adequate by-pass around the upper and lower Franklin Canyon reservoirs to prevent polluted waters from entering these distribution reservoirs during storms, and one around the north and west sides of the Chatsworth reservoir for the same reason.

A sanitary sewer along the west side of the Franklin Canyon reservoir to carry sewage from the families living at the north end of the lower Franklin reservoir at the power house and also to provide an outlet for sewage from the territory above the reservoir now in process of development.

by Harry Carr

WE HAVE moved the summer capital of the Carr family to Point Fermin at San Pedro.

I get a kick out of the never-ending parade of ships, steaming slowly and relentlessly in and out of the harbor.

At night the harbor is a gray mystery stabbed by green and red lights. At regular intervals the beacon from the lighthouse flashes from a black-gray curtain. It seems more like a frightened gasp than a flash. Far beyond, across still waters, the lights of Terminal Island glow in a long, low line that looks like a burning snake.

MY WHALING CAREER

When I was a little boy I had many happy days at San Pedro.

Old man Timms of Timms Point was still living. We used to go to see Mrs. Boesky of Boesky Island; she was our nautical consultant, being the wife of a sea captain.

I had a toy boat that was modeled after an old whaling schooner. I carried it in my arms in a Pullman train all the way from Rhode Island. It had been made by a crazy old whaling captain who used to sail it in Narragansett Bay.

I was an ambitious seaman. I spent most of the summer putting on new jibs and lengthening the bowsprit. Then the craft had too much head sail and wouldn't answer the rudder, and I would have to piece out the main sail. Mrs. Boesky became quite discouraged.

HE ENDED WRITING PIECES

I don't know what became of Mrs. Boesky or Boesky Island; or old man Timms—or even the model of my whaler. But I can still look down into the harbor and see a timid little boy with a boat with too many jibs—dreaming dreams of the roar of the typhoon, the lash of the deep-sea rain; of pirates; or coral reefs; of ships, and the whine and clank of the rigging blocks—and the little boy was I.

THE FISHERS

One of the first jobs I ever had as a kid reporter was to report the San Pedro yacht races. The "yachts" were fishing boats—double enders with lateen sails sailed by Portuguese fishermen from the Azores—who were after the $10 prize. They never went out beyond the channel to fish.

The fishing fleet now consists of hundreds of ships, many of which are ocean steamers costing from $80,000 to $100,000. They follow the tuna as far as Panama. Next year they are going to the South Seas. What has made this possible is the electric refrigerator.

SARDINES

So many sardines are packed in San Pedro that, if the cans were placed in a row—end on end—they would go around the world twice and a half.

That is just one season's catch. Heaven pity the poor fisherman who sails the sea if young married couples ever give up kitchenettes.

SETBACK LINES ON SAN PEDRO PROPOSED

The City Council has instructed the City Attorney to prepare a resolution of intention for the establishment of setback lines which will provide eventually for an eighty-foot street in San Pedro street from Thirty-eighth street to Florence avenue.

DRY RAIDS MADE IN DRUG STORES

Four Pharmacies Included in Places Visited by Police

Fourteen Men and Woman Taken in Custody

All Charged With Violations of Wright Statute

Four drug stores were raided by the Central police vice squad this week-end and one woman and fourteen men were arrested on various charges of violation of the Wright Act in other raids.

The pharmacy raids were led by Officers Irvine and Evans. At 4894 Huntington Drive the squad arrested George A. Herzer and reported confiscating five quarts of alcohol. At 1801 Glendale Boulevard Morris Goldberg was taken into custody on a charge of possession of one pint and part of a gallon of alcohol. Charles Milne, 60 years of age, pharmacist, was arrested, but denied knowledge of the liquid.

A one-ounce bottle of alcohol was found in another drug store at 900 West Second street, according to the officers, and Raymond S. Townsend was arrested. The fourth pharmacy raided was that of Sam Arnold at 4855 Huntington Drive, where the officers said they found one and a half gallons of whisky.

WOMAN'S HOME ENTERED

After she is said to have made a sale of liquor, Mrs. Refugio Nafere's home at 200 North Mission Road was entered by a squad of officers and one gallon and one pint of red liquor, and thirty-seven quarts of home-brew beer were confiscated. Mrs. Nafere was arrested on a charge of sale and possession of liquor.

Gabriel Monteverde, 24, was seen selling pints of liquor to sailors in a dark lot at Ninth and Main streets, according to the arresting officers. He had two pints in his pockets and sixteen more in his car parked near by, the officers said.

Possession of one quart of gin tucked under his belt was the reason why John C. Adams, 33, of 7506 Norton avenue, was arrested at Gower street and Hollywood Boulevard as he was about to step into his automobile, the police reported.

HOTEL SCENE OF ARREST

As they walked out of a hotel at Third and Figueroa streets, Charles N. Perkey, 28, of 1342 East Seventy-sixth Place, and Earl J. Nesbit, 26, of 1530 Glendale Boulevard, were taken into custody with twenty-three pints of whisky in their possession, according to another police report.

Eddie J. Anderson, 36, sold a quantity of liquor at his home at 428 O'Farrell street, vice squad officers said, and was arrested on a charge of sale and possession of one-half gallon of whisky.

Possession of thirty-seven quarts of home-brew beer and fifteen gallons of brew in his apartment at 233 North Flower street resulted in the arrest of Jose Villasenor, 26, police reported.

GARAGE RAIDED

At 6768 Yucca street officers reported finding a garage being used as a place to dispense liquor and, in a raid late Saturday night, arrested Jerry Haines, 30, of 6617 Francis Court and confiscated twenty-six quarts of gin, forty-five pints of whisky and fifteen gallons of whisky.

Others taken into custody on similar charges are George DeCook, 42, charged with sale of one pint of whisky, and Robert Jennings, 46, and John W. McBroom, 38, of 637 East Fifty-second street, accused of possession of two pints of whisky and twelve quarts of home brew beer.

One squad augmented its arrests with the raid of a hotel room at 430 South Main street where the officers said they found five Mexicans gambling at stud poker. The sum of $2.40 was confiscated. Manuel Gonzales, 30, booked for conducting the game, said he paid 50 cents a day for the room and that his friends had only been playing for nickels and dimes.

CONVENTION FUND ASKED

The Chamber of Commerce has asked the County Board of Supervisors for $10,000 to add to the chamber's donation of $15,000 to get the 1931 convention of the American Legion for Los Angeles and the board is expected to act on the request today.

Characterizing the American Legion convention as "the most colorful event in the nation," the communication states that local interests will benefit by at least $6,000,000 from the convention in addition to indirect advantages of even greater advertising value. It is estimated the convention will bring at least 100,000 visitors to the city.

RINDGE ESTATE INVASION FAILS

from horseback. Spokesmen for the employees approached the lumber truck and advised the squatters to unload no more lumber on the property.

Opposition to the unloading operations precipitated heated haranguing which threatened to develop into violence until 3 a.m., when the deputies arrived armed with tear gas bombs, and a sheaf of John Doe and Jane Doe warrants issued by Justice of the Peace Webster whom they had routed from his bed en route. Supt. Van Tol's name appeared on each warrant as the complaining witness.

The deputies placed the twelve squatters nearest to them under arrest and then proceeded north to the Ventura county line, admonishing others to refrain from trespassing and to settle the controversy in a civil court. By daylight the last of the aggregation had vacated the premises and departed for home.

It is understood the squatters launched their claim-jumping offensive on the assumption that old Spanish land grants did not include beach frontage and that Mrs. May K. Rindge, the present owner of the vast domain, is holding title to it illegally, the property belonging to the government. They also are said to have started organizing more than a year ago, each subscribing $2500 to a fund in anticipation of carrying their case to the Supreme Court.

Brainerd B. Smith, registrar of the United States Land Office here, yesterday described the claim-staking attempt as "foolhardy." The Senate Land Commission, he pointed out, conducted an exhaustive investigation of the title last year and held it to be free and clear.

"The present owner's title to the property is beyond dispute," Smith said. "Only government lands can be homesteaded; therefore, if this land is not government domain, squatters have no right there."

Efforts to obtain statements from persons associated officially with the Rindge Estate were unavailing yesterday.

The estate is administered by the Marblehead Land Company, for which Mark F. Mitchell is attorney. A portion of the property is being subdivided by the Harold G. Ferguson Corporation. The value of the entire beach frontage is said to approximate $500 per front foot.

Some time ago under conditions similar to those prevailing early yesterday, another group of squatters staked out claims on the Broome Ranch in Big Sycamore Canyon, Ventura county, but to date no action has been taken to eject them. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kerr, who were members of the Rindge expedition, were members also of that party, deputies said.

FIGHT FOR LAW SCHOOLING WON

ommended another business man. And so on, until fourteen men had signed up.

Garner worked hard at Columbia. Part of the agreement was that future payments were conditioned upon his obtaining "perfectly satisfactory" marks. He worked too hard. He was nearly a physical wreck at the end of his first year. He spent the vacation back here recuperating on the beach. He also found that he would need an additional $1000. He got several additional men to finance the $1000. Back he went and plunged into work at school again.

A few days ago he took his degree and landed in Los Angeles. Last semester he wrote a paper on "Stock Purchase Warrants and Rights" that has received high commendation. Now he is going to open a law office of his own here. He plans to teach a few nights a week. He has to pay the $2500 back in four years.

He has a girl, but he cannot get married just yet, he said. But it may be that his backers, who probably will receive due notice of the opening of a new law office in Los Angeles, will find it to their advantage to turn a few cases over to the young lawyer.

And who knows but what a young wife might make a good secretary in her husband's law office?

PENSIONERS' PICNIC DATE ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Mary R. CANINE CARRIES GANG ON STROLLS

Peter the Great, Jr., Serves as Conveyance for His Pals

They're All Buddies

When Peter the Great, Jr., goes out for a stroll he likes his buddies to go along. But since a German shepherd dog, a toy fox terrier and white king pigeons cannot stroll very evenly together, Peter, the shepherd dog, has found a clever way out of their difficulties. He offers himself as the conveyance and with Queenie, the terrier and the pigeons perched atop his back, the strange group frequently is seen taking a daily outing along the highways near Culver City.

The animals belong to John Stiglitz of 11000 National Boulevard, who was the trainer of Peter the Great of cinema fame. For the past four years, ever since Peter, Jr., was born, Stiglitz has devoted his entire time to training him and the dog appears to understand perfectly all of the commands spoken to him, whether in English or in German.

When shut up together in their yard, Stiglitz says that Peter, Queenie and the pigeons curl up together in the sun and spend hours in perfect communion. Peter keeps the yard cleared of all other birds, but never once, Stiglitz says, has he attempted to harm the pigeons. And as for Queenie, from the way she dogs his footsteps and regards him with adoring eye, it would not be hard to diagnose her case as one of hero-worship in its most advanced stage.

WATER PURITY PLANS PUSHED

Cesspools to the north of the upper San Fernando reservoir to be discontinued and sewage from the power house and families of employees to be cared for by chemicals.

Chlorination for the outlet of the Chatsworth reservoir, the Chatsworth high line, the Maclay high line, the outlet of the Encino reservoir, also for the main filtering gallery and the high line gallery at Griffith Park.

Treatment, chlorination and filtration for all the water supply of the harbor district to remove color and provide a potable water supply for the district.

"Filtration of the Aqueduct supply should be provided," Mathieson's report states. "At present the waters from the Aqueduct are not clear and clean as they should be and the bacterial count is very high. Chlorination will reduce the bacterial count. This, however, calls for an excess use of chlorine, therefore filtration is the only solution for providing clean, clear potable water from this source."

In response to these recommendations, Dr. Carl Wilson, in charge of sanitation for the water department, said that most of the improvements already have been planned and some of them initiated by the water department.

STUDIES UNDER WAY

Dr. Wilson holds that the nearest cesspools at the power plant and camp are 300 feet away from the tailrace and that it would be unwise to substitute chemical toilets and that the State Department of Public Health has approved this conclusion.

He reports that studies have been under way for some months to determine the most practical and economical way of coagulating and filtering the entire Aqueduct water supply, but that this is going to be an expensive improvement and cannot be accomplished quickly or without sufficient funds.

"Preliminary studies indicate that from present appearances the recommendations will eventually include radical departures from the present-day filtration practice," Wilson states.

He reported it is quite probable an experimental treatment plant will have to be placed in operation as a part of the study.

Another Leaves Stage for Films

GAVIN GORDON

Another New York stage star has forsaken Broadway for Hollywood in the person of Gavin Gordon, known for roles in which he has appeared in recent dramatic successes of the East. Called to Hollywood to appear opposite Greta Garbo in her recent picture, "Romance," Gordon has rejected an offer to play in a forthcoming production in New York and will make his permanent home here.

Gordon is one of the latest of the younger leading men to be won over to pictures. Heretofore he has preferred to remain in the ranks of New York players and refused several offers in pictures, until inducements were made to bring him here for the male lead in Garbo's new picture. He announced yesterday that he will continue to appear in pictures.

MANY AT MUSICAL TEA

CAROL HAS ROLE IN NEW NEWSREEL

Departure From Paris Depicted in "Times" Film, With Other Features

The departure of Carol of Rumania from Paris on his recent spectacular coup d'etat is one of the outstanding events of current interest depicted in the latest issue of The Times-Universal Newsreel, now being shown in leading Southern California theaters. In the film, Carol is shown boarding the plane that took him to Bucharest, where he was acclaimed by the people and restored to the throne he once renounced. Graham McNamee, the talking reporter, gives a graphic description of the incident from the screen.

Other recent events included in the latest issue of the newsreel are the reunion of Confederate veterans at Biloxi, Miss., the record-breaking dash of Frank Wykoff, University of Southern California sprinter; Gallant Fox's victory over Whichone in the Belmont Park Stakes; the visit of Gold Star Mothers to the graves of their sons in France, and the plunge of a giant air liner into the waters of Boston Bay.

The schedule may be obtained by calling up Newsreel Book at REpublic 3171 and asking about Newsreel No. 47.

finding De Haven lying on the fender of his wrecked machine and that he was intoxicated. Hospital records showed him not intoxicated.

Officers Friend and Tassey reported finding Charles A. Hadden, 38, of 1235 Gower street, driving his car on the wrong side of Santa Monica Boulevard at Gower street, and arrested him on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Fred A. Coppins of 560 North Hill street, arrested on a similar charge, drove his automobile into a parked car at Alpine street and Broadway, Officers Doxtater and Bromley reported.

San Pedro Death Still Mystery

Police are attempting to ascertain whether Merle Brockslesby, owner of an auto repair shop at 398 West Fourth street, San Pedro, was murdered, or killed accidentally by a shotgun which was found beside his body last night. The charge of the gun had entered the man's heart.

The gun lay a few feet from where the body was sprawled on the floor of the shop. Several brushes and cleaning rags were near the body. San Pedro police were unable to determine whether Brockslesby accidentally shot himself while cleaning the gun, or was shot by someone else. He lived at 1351 West Eighth street, Los Angeles. An inquest will be conducted this afternoon.

Ordinance for Sewers Asked

The City Council has approved the assessment district map for the construction of sewers in the West Channel Road district and has instructed the City Engineer to draw plans and ordinances for the construction of sewers in the Tesla-avenue and Rokeby-street district, the Belle Porte-avenue and Two Hundred Fiffty-third street district, and the Borel-street and Raynol-street district.

Molokane Faith Church Opened

What was said to be the first church in the United States of the Molakane faith was dedicated with colorful ceremonies at 153 Utah street yesterday. The sect arose in Russia about the middle of the eighteenth century and has many followers in Los Angeles. Their meetings have been held in private homes. Members are devout Bible students who repudiate rites and abstain from the eating of pork.

SET-BACK LINES ON TWO STREETS ORDERED

On recommendation of the City Planning Committee the City Council has established ten-foot set-back lines in Serrano avenue and in Hobart Boulevard between Eighth street and San Marino street.

McGROARTY HONORED BY THOUSANDS OF FRIEND

Friends and admirers of John Steven McGroarty, writer and playwright, to the number of approximately 10,000 gathered yesterday at a picnic in his honor at Monte Vista Park at Sunland near the home of the philosopher of Verdugo hills.

The informal program, which was featured by Spanish music and dances and addresses by Mayor Porter, City Prosecutor Nix, Burr McIntosh, G. Allison Phelps and the honored guest, was a means of announcing the coming presentation of our plays by Mr. McGroarty.

Under the spreading oak trees near the McGroarty home Tujunga and Sunland, it is to present the plays the first open-air August 9. The plays to are "El Dorado," a story of of '49, which is entirely Glorinda," "Osceola" and "The one and a half-hour gram was successful and very, very happy affair," said in describing the afternoon and demonstration. I was highly pleased at the words of each speaker in ing the plays to be offered the summer festival."

Missing Girl Reported Seen

Fresh clews in the disappearance of Bernadine A. Giddens, 23 years of age, Los Angeles amateur actress who was mysteriously missing from a coastwise steamer when the vessel docked in San Francisco, May 28, were in the hands of Bay City police yesterday.

A report that the girl was seen in an automobile in Seattle a few days ago, naming the car owner and license number, was wired northern police by her brother, Ray A. Giddens, who lives here. The telegram was sent to the father, A. W. Giddens, who immediately turned it over to police.

Maria Jeritza to Sing in Four Operatic Roles

The return of Maria Jeritza, after an absence of two years, for four performances in the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association's season in the Shrine Auditorium September 29 to October 13 is one of the many notable achievements of Gaetano Merola, director-general of the Los Angeles and San Francisco associations, David T. Babcock, president of the group, said yesterday.

Jeritza has four important roles in this year's repertoire. She will appear in "Tannhauser," "Salome," "The Girl of the Golden West" and "Cavalleria Rusticana."

Increase in Air Mail Reported

An increase of 15,662 pounds of air mail was carried on planes during May over the poundage in April, E. J. Fluke, superintendent of mail for Western Air Express, learned from authorities in Washington.

The daily average for May was 26,425 pounds as against 25,882 pounds in April. The total airmail poundage in May reached 687,052 pounds, while during April it was but 671,391 pounds, the report showed.

Court to Learn of Check-up on Mrs. Westmore

Just what sort of conduct on the part of Mrs. Veoda Westmore, first wife of Ernest Westmore, whose present wife is Ethlyn Clair, induced court investigators to conclude that the first Mrs. Westmore is not a proper custodian for her 7-year-old child will be revealed in Superior Judge Westover's court today.

Westmore, who was served with alimony papers by his first wife as he marched from a Hollywood church to the strains of the wedding march after his second marriage, had charged that Mrs. Veoda Westmore is not a proper person to have custody of the child.

Attorney Reuben Licker, who filed the petition, sent Miss Mary Gindra to "check up" on the first wife and a report was submitted to the court that a young man acquaintance was being entertained in the presence of the child.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION MEETS NEXT WEEK

Los Angeles City Library officials, in addition to being hosts to the 2000 delegates to the fifty-second annual convention of the American Library Association here next week, will serve in important official capacities during the six-day convention, according to Everett R. Perry, city librarian, who is vice-president of the association. The address of welcome is to be given by Orra E. Monnette, president of the Board of Library Directors. The four other members of that body are also serving in official capacities.

RULING AWAITED IN ODD TANGLE

Question of Notes and Loan Pondered by Court

Two Interlocked Concerns Involved in Dispute

Suit, Just Ended, Brought to Recover $215,000

Whether a business concern can execute a series of notes and then, when sued, show that the transaction was not a loan, but that the money was received for investment purposes, is the question that has been submitted to Superior Judge Yankwich for a decision following trial of a suit lasting five days. The ruling is awaited with interest by money lenders and financial concerns.

The problem submitted to Judge Yankwich came up in the trial of the action brought by the District Bond Company against George H. S. Haly and others as stockholders of the defunct Syndicate Company.

Among the prominent persons whose names appear in the court record as defendants and as stockholders of the Syndicate Company are O. P. Adams, John S. Baker, Julia M. Baker, C. C. Conkle, Jonathan S. Dodge, C. J. Fox, Jr., I. W. Jones, Adah E. Losey, John G. Mott, W. D. Richards, L. J. Selby, Gladys V. Smith, Joseph B. Webber and Edgar L. Webber.

AMOUNT INVOLVED

By the complaint the bond company seeks to recover a total of $215,000 from the stockholders.

It was asserted by the officers of the bond company at the trial that between November 20, 1925, and June 21, 1926, the Syndicate Company borrowed sums for which they gave three notes of $70,000 each and one note for $25,000, on which the balance of $215,000 still is due.

It appeared at the trial that the two companies had some common stockholders, directors and officers. One of the interlocking directors, Harry Lee Martin, served for a while as president of both companies. He testified that the transaction was not a loan.

TRANSACTION EXPLAINED

"The bond company," Martin declared, "had money on hand. We thought that it would be to our mutual advantage to allow the Syndicate Company to invest some of our money in deeds of trust, using their appraisal facilities. We had no such facilities. My instructions were that, as these trust deeds were bought, notes were to be executed by the Syndicate Company as a memorandum to show what money had been advanced. They were not intended as notes, as the transaction was not a loan, but an investment.

"I told the bond company bookkeeper to carry the transaction on the books as an investment. As such, we reported it for taxation. As such it was spoken of at our directors' meetings."

Martin maintained that all he did was with the knowledge of and approval of the directors of both companies.

WITNESSES DIFFER

Two directors, B. L. Haines and Austin O. Martin, corroborated the testimony of Harry Lee Martin. Two others, however, William Hicks and George A. Rogers, stated that their recollection was that the transaction was an outright loan.

"The important question," said Judge Yankwich at the end of the long trial, "is whether the transaction was a loan or an investment. I am inclined to think, at present, that it was an investment.

"The important questions that remain to be settled are: Did Martin have authority? And, if he did, are the stockholders barred from denying liability by the fact that the notes of their company were given?"

The District Bond Company was represented by Attorneys Dryer, Castle, McConlogue and Richards. Attorneys Mott, Vallee and Grant represented the defendants.

SALVATION ARMY LIFE RECOUNTED

First Japanese Officer in Religious Organization Speaks at Meeting

Many nations and races were represented at a mass meeting held by the Salvation Army in its Army Temple yesterday, when Commissioner Gumpei Yamamuri of Japan spoke on his life work as the first officer of his race in the Salvation Army. The commissioner told of his rise from the ranks beginning in 1895 as a private, and continuing until he was made first Japanese commissioner, in charge of the entire army in the islands.

"It was not an easy road to travel," he said. "It meant living for a long while on 4 cents a day, and even that stopped, so that in my early training I went for twelve days without food. Then the secretary of the school sent for me and made me doorkeeper. Now I know when a man comes to me and says, 'I've had nothing to eat for several days,' exactly what he is going through."

The Japanese official said that twenty years after he was given the job as doorkeeper, which saved him from starvation, he visited the Mayor of the capital of Korea, who was the man who gave him the job and told him what he had done.

Reciting the events which led to his embracing Christianity the commissioner said he found that too many Christian missionaries were preaching a gospel far above the common people.

Brig. James C. Bell, commanding officer of the Los Angeles and South Coast division, presided. Commissioner Adam Gifford, in charge of the eleven western States and Hawaii, will preside at a meeting of all officers this morning. Commissioner Yamamuri will speak.

Today's Bible Text

Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. Let all your things be done with charity.—1 Cor. xvi:13, 14.

KEEPING 'EM DOWN

Woman lost more than 100 pounds through worry. Probably the explanation of why the producers keep so many of the movie stars on the anxious seat.

SUPPLY AND DEMAND

The man who "bears" the heaviest in the battle to reduce prices is the one who squawks the loudest when it is suggested that his salary be sliced.

BOTTLE BABIES

The Earl of Birkenhead has stirred up a rumpus by predicting that 100 years from now babies will be born in bottles. As a scientist and diplomat, the Earl would seem to be a good bottle connoisseur.

KID GLOVES NEEDED

We suspect that during the next decade the relationships between Cleveland and St. Louis, and their respective suburbs, will be very cordial, on the part of the cities at least. A few annexations would help a lot.

CLEAN-UP

Secretary of the Interior Ray Lyman Wilbur summons the ad men in conclave in Washington, D. C., to clean up the landscapes defaced by billboards. This would seem to be good work for the interior decorator.

VACATION

Possibly the happiest vacation enjoyed by the American people this summer will result when Congress knocks off for a few months. The entire nation will feel relief and have a complete rest. These interims help to make life worth living.

SNAKE BITE

The Public Health Director for California, Dr. Walter M. Dickie, says that whisky is no good for snake bite and that it distributes the poison through the body. This will be bad news for some fishermen. Now what will they do for wet bait?

GOT HELL

"Pluto" has been accepted by Roger Lowell Putnam of the Lowell Observatory, Flagstaff, Ariz., as the name of the new Planet X. He feels that the lineage of Roman deities after which the other planets are named should not be broken. Pluto was an unfortunate god that drew lots with his brothers, Jupiter and Neptune, for the kingdom of heaven and the infernal regions. He got hell. Pluto's recent hot reception at the hands of other astronomers was in line with mythology.

FOOD AND FOLKS

The recent census recalls the gloomy forbodings of Thomas Robert Malthus about a century and a half ago. He foresaw the time when the world would not be able to sustain its inhabitants. His prophecy was called the Malthusian theory.

At the rate of growth enjoyed by the United States, some predict the point of saturation in a few decades. The human family has doubled the past century and is now well over 2,000,000,000.

And yet with our increase of population, we are embarrassed by overproduction of foodstuffs. Some property owners are land poor and some husbandmen are food poor. The great demand of farm relief is enough mouths to consume the crops. Legislation does not appear to touch the trouble. Mussolini may have the right theory in demanding larger families.

However, nature usually rights matters. America is settling rapidly, yet the rate of growth is slowing down about 1½ per cent a year. Authorities see the time in the near future when the population of our country will be stabilized at about 150,000,000.

While science is saving from disease and lengthening the span of life, it is also devising new machinery to enlarge the output of the farm. One farm hand today does as much as thirty or forty a few years ago. America has $23.10 worth of machinery per person. China and India have but 30 to 40 cents worth of machinery per individual. This largely accounts for the disparity of grain and other edibles in these backward countries.

OUR EXTREME MODESTY

Since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, Californians, and more particularly Angelenos, have had the reputation in other parts of the country of being gross and flagrant exaggerators of everything pertaining to their neck of the woods. We have been branded as a community of brazen hyperbolists, of having willfully and without due cause eliminated from our vocabularies all locally applied adjectives and adverbs save those in the superlative.

More particularly have our claims to rapid growth drawn the fire of the eastern funny man. When, a few years ago, a prominent real estate man prophesied that Los Angeles would shortly have a population of a million he was laughed to scorn everywhere save in Los Angeles and even here many of the more conservative shook their heads and intimated that we would do well to keep a tighter rein on our publicly expressed optimism.

With the publication of the 1930 census figures, however, Los Angeles finds herself in the situation of Warren Hastings when he declared himself "amazed at my own moderation." So far from being the extravagant claimer of everything in sight which she was alleged to be—a charge which she may have secretly felt to have some slight foundation—Los Angeles may well be surprised at the extreme modesty which she is now shown to have displayed. The actual facts have so far surpassed the most roseate prophecies of, say, twenty-five years ago that the Los Angeles of that day appears more like a shrinking violet than the boastful hoyden she has long been called.

We have proven ourselves poor long-range prophets, but we have erred on the side of conservatism. Predicting the future of Los Angeles is still one of our favorite indoor sports, however, and, in light of their past dismal failure to forecast the actuality, our Chamber of Commerce soothsayers may be excused if, from now on, they take the sky as the limit.

Persiflage aside, there is a more solid basis now for predicting an enormous future growth for Los Angeles than there has ever been in the past. Not even the most hardy prophet, for example, would have dared declare in 1880, when Los Angeles had 11,183 people and was one hundred and ninety-ninth in the list of American cities, that in fifty years she would be the fifth metropolis with a population of 1,231,830. To predict now that in another fifty years Los Angeles will be the second or even the first city of America is modest by comparison. In other words, the economic and social factors contributing to great and rapid growth are much more numerous and much more definitely discernible in Los Angeles today than ever before in her history.

Only one possible handicap has existed—and in the last few years it has been a very present one—to check the growth of this Southwest metropolis, to hinder the continuous expansion of which we are otherwise assured. That handicap was a prospective shortage of water. The progress of the Colorado River project, plus the action of the Los Angeles voters at the May election in legalizing with almost complete unanimity the issue of bonds to tap the Mono Basin and to enlarge the aqueduct, has removed that solitary obstacle. We know now that we shall have an ample water supply to fill the probable interim of ten years before the waters of the Colorado are brought to the gates of Los Angeles.

That trouble disposed of in the resolute Californian way of meeting all difficulties, we can now begin to count up the various agencies pointing to another phenomenal increase in our population and prosperity during the next decade, to go no farther. The airplane industry is now in much the same state of development that the motor-car industry was when Henry Ford made Detroit the automobile capital of the world. For climatic, geographical, economic and other reasons Los Angeles is fast coming to the front as the world's center of aviation. What the motor car did for Detroit the airplane may do for Los Angeles before the taking of the next census.

Signs are not wanting that American vacationists are tiring of annual excursions to the old show places of Europe and are turning with awakened interest to the new show places of their own country. In this shift of travel Los Angeles bids fair to become the holiday Paris of America. And unlike their compatriots who visit France, many Americans who come to our playground of the West will choose it later on for a workshop, too. The year of 1932 will bring here to the Olympic Games many of the leading sports lovers from many nations and when they see what we have to offer our city will become the Mecca for another most desirable class of citizens.

The semicentennial of our own university, U.S.C., and the eager registration of students for U.C.L.A. at Westwood demonstrate the strides education is making in the Southwest, an influx destined to increase with the educational and athletic honors won everywhere by California collegians. Los Angeles has long been a favorite convention city, but has suffered from not possessing a hall of the first magnitude. Before the end of next year Los Angeles is assured one of the finest and largest auditorium buildings in the United States. Conventions are recognized boosters of population.

To mention only a few of the economic factors which make for record-breaking growth, Los Angeles produces in her immediate environment a fifth of the world's oil, four-fifths of the world's motion pictures and one-third of the world's citrus fruits. Los Angeles has the first harbor of the United States in intercoastal and second in oceangoing tonnage. We have the beginnings of the steel industry that built Birmingham and Gary, Ind.; the oil industry that shot Oklahoma City and Tulsa upward, the rubber industry that accounted for Akron's great growth, besides the fruits and films and airplanes that are more peculiarly our own.

These are some of the high points from which to start conservative guesses on the expansion of Los Angeles and surrounding territory before the taking of the 1940 census. Whatever the total may reach by that time, it is likely again to astonish not only the world in general, but—what is more remarkable—even ourselves.

To enlarge on the event so long ahead of time our modesty forbids.

GREAT MEN AT PLAY

Herbert Hoover fishes on the Rapidan—for trout and violet rays. A few hours in the open and he feels fit again. He is primarily an outdoor man. His busy life has largely been in the open. When he does not fish, he hones his appetite on the medicine ball on the White House lawn.

Calvin Coolidge began to fish for fish late in life; but he became famous in a few years for his piscatorial adventures. They threw considerable sidelight on his character and helped to keep him sane and normal amid the hectic brainstorms of the capital. He also rode a mechanical horse in the White House cellar in a race with disease, and won.

Secretary Stimson combated the British and the other powers in the recent parity conference with Indian clubs. We shall soon see whether Congress approves the Indian club as a weapon for smashing an enemy. It would be a remarkable reversal of form to have an Indian club produce peace.

William Howard Taft played golf. It must have embarrassed him at times to have his scores published next morning over the world. However, it is barely possible that some of his opponents extended the same privileges to him that were given the Prince of Wales recently as he helped Bobby Jones win in that game. The Prince is also a great horseman. While he falls from his mount occasionally, he tumbles off only after his horse has stumbled first. So he gives the Prince a break! John D. Rockefeller is still a worthy antagonist both in golf and oil.

Theodore Roosevelt was a tennis player and a boxer of parts. It is not generally known that he suffered the loss of the sight of one of his eyes in a fistic encounter.

Chauncey Depew never went in much for athletics. He said he got his exercise by acting as pallbearer for his friends who were eternally taking exercise of one form or another.

LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

A TRUCK piled high with hay was lumbering down Broadway.

This is not a Forty-Years-Ago item. If you will turn to your Buyers Guide you will find five hay dealers listed—and something over twelve columns of automobile equipment dealers. Over on Aliso street you may see trucks of hay any day. But though the traffic cops often shout "Hey!" you see very little of the baled kind on Broadway.

BARLEY!
CLOVER!

So everybody stared at it. But even in that well-dressed up-to-date crowd one could see how close we are to our beginnings. For in the days when hay wagons were numerous, a gentle and harmless superstition flourished. One made a wish as he looked at a load of hay and then if he turned his head away and didn't see the hay any more his wish would come true.

We remembered that and began to scan the faces of the passers. As they first caught sight of the hay their faces showed surprise and amusement. Then something from memory's vaults flashed over them. They stared hard at the hay, their lips moved a moment and then they resolutely turned their heads away from it.

We knew just what they were doing, because we were doing it ourself.

Grown-Up Wishes

Of course, we never have believed that wishing on a load of hay would change our destiny. But we always did it because it was a rather mind-beguiling thing which couldn't possibly do any harm. Some people say prayers in the same spirit.

But the incident made us realize how one's wishes change between boyhood and middle age. We used to wish, when we passed a load of hay, that our football team or baseball nine would win and that we would acquit ourself well in the game. Then we used to wish for the acceptance of the poems or stories we'd sent away to editors—and how many, many loads of hay failed to make good!

ALFALFA!
OATS!
AH! 'TIS A BEAUTIFUL SIGHT!

Here on Broadway our first half-formed wish was that a certain business arrangement would result to our profit. But we didn't let it fully form. We woke in time to the realization that a few dollar successes more or less are the least important things in life. So, we fervently wished that we might write something really worth writing, something readers might find worth preserving, something to enlighten minds or sweeten hearts now and perhaps in years to come.

And then we hurried on up Broadway, with our head turned so far askew, to keep from seeing that load of hay again, that we bumped into four people before we'd gone half a block.

How silly we used to be in the days when we were superstitious!

Plenty of 'Em Here

Charles P. Beebe, publisher, Topeka, Kan., sends us the 1930 issue of "Kansas Facts," from which we learn that the meadow lark is the State bird of Kansas.

No wonder 300,000 Kansans now feel perfectly at home in Southern California and more are coming by every train.

Know Their Alphabet

Our friend the traffic cop says a lot of women must drive these U-drive cars, the way they're always making U-turns, and quite a few must use S-drives and Z-drives, too.

Not Chinese Herbs

Not all the children of Santa Monica are sophisticated, even since so many picture folks moved out that way.

"Oh, mother," cried a 10-year-old, "that new store's run by Chinamen."

"Why, how can you guess?"

"Hop is a Chinese name, isn't it?"

"Yes, ordinarily."

"Well, look at their names on the window."

The sign on the window read: "Malt & Hops."

London and Los Angeles

Where ignorance is bliss, sooner or later somebody who really knows is bound to bob up and upset the ignoramus.

A couple of years ago, in the city engineer's office, an employee from whom we were getting information told us that Los Angeles is the largest city in the world, in area. We included that assertion in our story then and the other day referred to it in another article.

AH! DEAR OLD LONDON, IT HAS BEEN YEARS SINCE I—

Then Nuda Veritas just couldn't stand it any longer. He writes us that we're all wet—that London has 250 square miles more than Los Angeles has and cites the Encyclopedia Brit and Nelson's Encyclopedia to prove it.

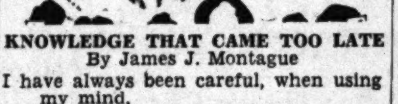
The latest issue of the Encyclopedia Britannica says: "London . . . is the largest city in the world, containing in the administrative county and the ring of suburbs an area known as Greater London of about 693 square miles. The 'outer ring' which is included within Greater London and the metropolitan police area comes under the jurisdiction of one or the other of the counties of Middlesex, Essex, Kent, Surrey and Hertfordshire, although each district has its own local administrative authority."

The Americana says: "Modern London consists of the city of London as the nucleus and the occupied surrounding parts of about 120 square miles taken from the counties of Middlesex, Surrey and Kent." This authority gives the area of the city and the twenty-eight metropolitan burroughs as 74,616 acres, or less than 120 square miles. That, however, was published in 1925 and gives London a population of less than 5,000,000, whereas now it is 7,742,212. So London may have officially annexed many more square miles since then.

But there still seems some room for argument as to the precise status of Greater London. Greater Los Angeles would include many more square miles, too. Officially, under one Mayor and City Council, Los Angeles has 441.6 square miles, without any greaters.

I CAN PROVE ANYTHING WITH THIS!

And we're still sure Los Angeles is the only great city with more than 10,000 square feet ground space for every man, woman and child in it.



KNOWLEDGE THAT CAME TOO LATE

By James J. Montague

I have always been careful, when using my mind,
To avoid any overdue strain
Because of the fear that I shortly might find
I had wearied and weakened my brain.
I shunned mathematics in all of its forms;
But little of Einstein I read;
I feared that discussions of such things as norms
Would give me a pain in the head.
But of muscular labor I was not afraid
And I spent many years with a pick and a spade.
My teachers would often implore me to seek
To acquire some classical lore;
They urged me to study both Latin and Greek
And to con Aristophanes more;
To study the books of Spinoza and Kant
As well as the music of Grieg,
But my knowledge of such is uncommonly scant—
I was wary of mental fatigue.
Though always ambitious for fame and renown
I was still more afraid that my brain would break down.

And so, through a long and unstudious life,
I've remained almost wholly untaught.
I have never indulged in cerebral strife,
Nor valiantly struggled with thought.
Too late I have learned that psychologists find
That to gain educational spoil
By prolonged and continuous use of the mind
Is less fagging than manual toil.
So, lacking in wisdom and college degrees,
I must toil for my bread on the typewriter keys!

CHOOSING YOUR CAREER

XXII

BY FREDERICK H. ECKER

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

[This is the twenty-second of a series of twenty-four articles designed to help young men and women find careers which appeal to them and for which they are fitted. Frederick H. Ecker is president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. He began his career with that company in 1883. He was educated in the public schools.]

To those of you who may aspire to a career in life insurance, two fields of wide opportunity are open, if you possess the industry that is necessary to progress in either of them. But the one great and general qualification for success in this business of ours is industry, application to the job, willingness to work hard, steadily and intelligently at it.

It is possible for you to enter the life insurance business through the field, or production end, or through the home office, the administrative end.

The field end has to do with the actual canvass for and sale of insurance; the home office with the approval of applications and the issue of policies, the receipt of premiums and the investment of assets, the payment of claims and all of the actuarial functions that are necessary in determining premium rates and policy forms, calculating tables of mortality and the like.

Possibly the field end offers greater immediate opportunities to those of you who can meet its preliminary qualifications and who have the stamina to persist in the face of its not infrequent disappointments. As an agent, a man is largely his own boss; he is not strictly bound by hours or confined at all times to an office; the amonut of his earnings are almost altogether within his own control.

To qualify and succeed as an agent, you should possess at least a high school education, a reputation for absolute honesty—since you may be called on to handle considerable sums of money in the form of premiums—and you will find that most companies prefer to employ married men, since that gives evidence of their stability. Past experience in some form of salesmanship is always helpful.

It is not enough that you have merely the ability to meet people easily. The really successful salesman of insurance possesses a personality that enables him to gain the entire confidence of his prospects and policy holders to a point where they are willing to reveal to him even their most intimate financial affairs. You must promote much the same relationship as that of lawyer and client or doctor and patient, for if you are to advise or prescribe intelligently on insurance matters you must know the complete case history.

Such a personality is founded on sincerity of purpose and thorough knowledge of the subject. If you cannot be sincere in wanting to study a man's insurance problems with him and advise a solution that will be to his interest rather than to your own, if you are not willing to study exhaustively the methods of insurance and the policy provisions so that you will be in a position to advise intelligently, then you can never hope to be more than mediocre in the business.

Since you are largely your own boss, you must possess sufficient self-discipline to plan your work systematically and hold yourself rigidly to your plan. And though you will not be bound by hours, you must accept the fact that successful insurance salesmanship calls for considerable evening work, since there are many prospects who cannot be seen advantageously at any other time.

If, on this basis, you have it in you to become a real insurance adviser, you can, within a short time, build up an income through commissions and renewals that will be steady and, on the average, well above the rate of pay for comparable work in your community and limited only by the number of canvasses you are able to make. Because of the size of most life insurance companies, opportunities for promotion to executive positions are frequent, and there are plenty of company officials who have come up from carrying a rate book.

For the younger person who is just out of school, the home office offers more opportunity, for there are few of this generation who are able to qualify for the field. Without some special training, you would enter the administratice end as a clerk and your progress would depend largely on your ability to learn the job ahead of you while carrying your own.

Here again the size of the organization requires an almost constant flow of new blood into the more advanced positions and most companies have set up regular training courses through which the rank and file of clerical help is fitted for the future jobs that appeal to them and for which they may indicate that they are best adapted.

LETTERS TO The Times

What of the Enumerators?

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Now that the feasting, cheering and speeches over the result of the Los Angeles census are over, what about a little thought for the enumerators — men and women who did the actual work?

What is delaying their pay? The vouchers of nearly 90 per cent of them were sent to San Francisco four or five weeks ago. Cannot something be done to facilitate payment of them?

I saw in a newspaper where a man in New York in making out his census report, under the heading, "Marital Relations," wrote the word "precarious." I had a man in my district, Beverly Hills, whom I believe, considering this age of chain marriages and divorces, should be entitled to a niche in the Hall of Fame. Under the same heading he wrote the word "Happy." Can you beat it?

ENUMERATOR.

Her Inspiration

LOS ANGELES, June 12.—[To the Editor of The Times:] A speaker quoted in your issue of June 11 was mistaken when he implied that Mrs. Eddy had "only a smattering of Bible knowledge."

Mrs. Eddy came of a devout family and was deeply religious by nature. Even as a child she read the Bible constantly and during her girlhood and early womanhood she showed an unusual knowledge of the Scriptures. It was to the ninth chapter of Matthew that she turned in 1866 when suffering from an accident regarded as fatal, and from that chapter she received the inspired glimpse of Christ Jesus' teachings which cured her immediately of the injury and resulted in her discovery of Christian Science.

She states that for three years after her discovery she "sought the solution of this problem of mind healing, searched the Scriptures and read little else, kept aloof from society and devoted time and energies to discovering a positive rule" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, page 109.) In the many subsequent years when she was actively engaged in healing sin and disease by spiritual means, in elucidating her discovery and in establishing the denomination she founded, she turned continually to the Bible for inspiration and guidance.

Her works testify to the profundity of her understanding of the Scriptures.

Down to the Minute

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—[To the Editor of The Times:]] Following are a few interesting facts concerning the population of Los Angeles which you may use as you see fit:

Population of Los Angeles, 1930, 1,231,830.

Population of Los Angeles, 1920, 573,673.

Increase of population in ten years, 655,157.

Average increase of population per year, 65,516.

Average increase of population per month, 5460.

Average increase of population per day, 179½.

Average increase of population per hour, 7½.

In other words, the population of Los Angeles increased one person every 8 minutes 1.6 seconds during the ten years, 1920-1930.

WIN A PRIZE

BY GREENVILLE TALBOTT

This $150 prize offer is for letters about cars. Tell the editor of Popular Science Monthly what actually goes on under the hood of your automobile. Did you buy for style or service? Do you pry into the innards of a car, etc.?

Letters in this contest will be judged on neatness, skill and accuracy. Also, you must own the car about which you write, and your letter should contain about 300 words.

For full information, without cost or obligation, write to Martin Bunn, Popular Science Monthly, 381 Fourth avenue, New York City.

(If you are interested in writing a novel, you should read the prize awards announced under the heading, "Win a Prize.")

Pocket Knife of the Vikings

In the course of some recent investigations near Tilsit, in Germany, a burial ground was uncovered, part of which is said to date back to the time of the Vikings, and some interesting material has been turned up. What is regarded as one of the most valuable finds is a pocket clasp knife, the blades of which may be folded into the handle just as is done with the modern implement. This knife is said to be at least 1080 years old.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

famous "bathroom baritones" coming out into the open at Here is an excerpt from an ap ing letter to the radio editor:

"My wife doesn't seem to mind singing while I take my shower morning. Now I take it about and please indicate in your what male quartets you have hour. I have trundled the into the bathroom—and while I look for the Why can't some one bring to the Rockies and have with—please."

since the ordinary citizen to his own voice, he has confined his singing to If, however, radio can a long-sought male want— others to join in his ablu- it should do so. the length, breadth, and what have you of this float, splash and warble from grandpop down to Willie while mother the breakfast. National systems have missed program — that of a 'mike' at the tub of a baritone—just so the other baritones could listen and laugh at their unsuspecting brother.

Radio station feature directors might help by casting male quartets in the early morning instead of in the evening, or a duty to their flag and their country will be neglected. It isn't spring dances virile American men want—it is some one to sing with' even if the tune has to be carried in a bucket.

ON YOUR DIAL TODAY

KHJ at 4:30 this afternoon again sets its microphone at liberty for "Bally Hoo." A time at which any and all of the KHJ staff 'take a crack at it' and promise a half-hour of 'irresponsible song and comedy.' At 5 tonight the original mountain cabin, which for years gathered in its thousands of guests nightly to be entertained by Mac's songs and stories is back again on KHJ. This act, which first came on the air yearly five years ago, is said to be one of the real hits of the air. This week Mac will sing his songs, many of which have been made into recordings. At 6 p.m. Raymond Paige and his symphony orchestra, with Robert Bradford, Vern Isom and Mona Content, guest artists, will be heard in a repertoire of concert music, including compositions of Leoncavallo, Rimsky Korsakov and others. This half-hour is followed by thirty minutes of organ music by Jesse Crawford of the CBS network at 6:30. Lovers of music will dial at 7 again when the Inglewood Park program brings "Venetia" as its opening number, on another Paige concert program featuring Carl Omeron, mixed chorus and the organ.

The police should be called out at 8 tonight when the Blue Monday Jamboree crashes in for a two-hour visit—if all of the novelty and comedy is as good as they guarantee it to be. Try the riot.

KFI at 6 tonight opens with "Three Caucasian Sketches," by Ippolitow-Ivanow. This comes from WHAM, Rochester. Mrs. Rae Potter Roberts, contralto, is the soloist, offering "None But a Lonely Heart," by Tschaikowsky. At 8 p.m. the Shell Symphonists, Dobbsie and some of his friends, are programed. Rudy Seigers will wield the baton. The regular "Soiree Intime" at 9 tonight with Virginia Flohri, Duci De Kerekjarto, Zhay Clark, Jose Rodriquez and Clyde Lehman, promises one and a half hours of pleasing music and song composition.

CLASSIC NUMBERS

KECA at 5:30 p.m. brings an NBC all-Spanish program including solos by Countess Albani. Her offerings will include "Princessita," "Seguidilla" and "Clavelitos." A marimba orchestra will contribute two selections. At 9 tonight Jeanne Dunn as soloist and Van Dyne's orchestra will be heard in classic and semi-classic compositions, while Felipe Delgado, Spanish baritone, at 10 p.m. will sing for you.

KNX recommends its players at 8 tonight in a skit entitled "Sauce for the Gander." Another concert by the Luboviski violin choir of ten players with Claire Mellonino, pianist, offers compositions of Beethoven, Kreisler, Sarasate and French at 8:30 tonight.

KMTR offers a variety of evening half-hours devoted to almost any type of music you prefer. At 7:30 international dance music to be followed by talkie song hits at 8, then the compositions of Friml, Raff and Colerage-Taylor by a string quartet at 9 p.m.

KTM at 9 tonight offers Gladys Johnson's violin, cello and harp trio, with Stewart Bair, baritone, guest soloist. Grainger's "Country Garden," Godard's "Adagio Pathetique," and Galloway's "The Gypsy Trail" will be among the numbers heard at this time.

Chile imported nearly $56,000,000 worth of American products last year.

CHAMBER AIDS JOBS HUNT

Directory of Free Employment Agencies Issued and General Committee Formed

The Chamber of Commerce has issued a directory of free employment agencies here who are co-operating with the chamber in an effort to give first consideration to residents of the city who are out of work.

Several thousand copies of the directory will be mailed by the chamber's domestic trade department today, to business and industrial firms in the city, requesting that they call upon these agencies first when hiring men and women, according to E. F. MacDonough manager of the department. Agencies listed in the directory have been formed into a special employment committee by the chamber as a move to obtain their co-operation in endeavoring to procure work for those residing in the city before consideration is given the transient unemployed.

The agencies listed include Associated Apparel Manufacturers, Bureau of Vocational Service, Central Casting Corporation, Church Federation, Frank Wiggins Trade School, Goodwill Industries, International Institute of Y.W.C.A., Knights of Columbus, Los Angeles County Welfare Department, Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, State Free Employment Bureau, Urban League, Veterans' Employment Bureau, Volunteers of America, Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A.

BAR TODAY PICKS BENCH CANDIDATES

Association Will Indorse Eleven Leaders for Jobs in Superior Court

Today marks the close of the Los Angeles Bar Association balloting on candidates for the Superior Court. The ballot count begins at 5 p.m. in the presence of a special committee of members of the association headed by its secretary, all candidates or their representatives, the presidents of the various bar associations within Los Angeles county, representatives of the press, and others.

The ballots and biographical data were sent to all bar association members in the county a week ago, giving the members an opportunity to investigate the qualifications of the thirty-nine candidates for judicial office.

On completion of the certified count, the association will indorse the eleven candidates receiving the highest number of votes for the positions to be filled.

Used Papers Large Item in Foreign Trade

Rapid growth of the trade in old newspaper through Los Angeles Harbor is shown in a survey just completed by the Marine Exchange of the Chamber of Commerce, recording the fact that the shipments last year show an increase of nearly 26,000,000 pounds over the previous year of 1928. The shipments of old newspapers for 1929 reached the staggering total of 100,951,633, as compared with 75,221,774 in the previous year.

Hongkong is shown to have been the heaviest consumer, buying 35,262,820 pounds. Manila is second, with purchases amounting to 9,339,408 pounds, and Tsingtao, China, being third with 8,920,400 pounds. Tien-tsin is close to the latter with 8,339,360 pounds. Sixty-one world ports are buyers of old newspapers shipped through this port, the most of which are scattered through the countries of the Orient.

Once in the Orient the newspapers are sold in small parcels to the native tradesmen who use them for wrapping paper and a small percentage find their way into the Chinese firecracker factories.

TRAFFIC CONTROL ASKED

Some sort of traffic control should be installed at East First and Cummings streets, Henry T. Bultman has informed the City Council. Bultman's appeal was referred to the Board of Police Commissioners and to the Traffic and Street Lighting Committee.

ORATORY FLIGHT TRUE METAPHOR

Indiana Contest Contender Takes Plane Here

Rehearsing Theme En Route Lends Sweep, He Says

Journey Youth's Initiatory Aerial Experience

If an airplane flight half across the continent will enable a college orator to become more eloquent, then Franklin P. Cole of Greencastle, Ind., representing De Paw University in the finals of the National Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest which will be held at the Biltmore Thursday evening, has a chance of winning.

FRANKLIN P. COLE

While Cole was arriving by airplane another contestant, Louis Arthur Larson, a junior of Augustana College, Sioux Falls, S. D., holding a record of first place in forty debates in intercollegiate meets, reached here ready for his entry in the national finals.

FIRST OF SEVEN

One of seven, representing the pick of speakers from colleges and universities all over America, Cole arrived here yesterday on a T.AT. plane, getting his first airplane trip in a jump from St. Louis to the field at Glendale. He has chosen as his subject "The Constitution and National Progress."

LOUIS ARTHUR LARSON

He was met at the airport by A. C. Denman, president of the Better America Federation, Lieut.-Col. Le Roy Smith, director of the speakers' bureau of the federation, and Prof. Caspar Harvey, national director of the contest.

FLYING ENTHUSIAST

The Indiana youth was enthusiastic about his trip. "I had for stagesetting giant mountains and desert valley; and the high silver clouds above me. I was exhilarated by the flight. I repeated the phrasing of my oration over and over and as we bored steadily westward I felt more and more confidence. I hope the contest will be as thrilling as the ride out here and I am sure it will.

"Flat tires apparently are not avoided—even on airplanes. We got a puncture at Winslow, Ariz., and it seemed funny to me but it probably wasn't."

LARSON BIOGRAPHY

Larson was born at Sioux Falls, S. D., on July 4, 1910, and is the son of Judge Louis Larson. He is accompanied by Prof. Hugo A. Carlson, his debating coach, who directed him to victory in the State contest of the national peace debate.

This year at Wichita, Kan., at the national debate and oratorical contest of Pi Kappa Delta, Larson won second plce in oratory and third in debate after having spoken in thirty-seven contests in the preliminaries. He is preparing for the ministry.

AID PLEDGED CONTEST

President Denman of the Better America Federation, under whose auspices the contest is waged each year, is jubilant over the help given by the National Junior Chamber, which voted at the Brooklyn convention to get behind this annual event and help it along as much as possible.

Turner Eats Up Miles to Boise

Capt. Roscoe Turner yesterday flew from Los Angeles to Boise, Idaho, in four hours and twenty minutes, Gilmore Oil Company officials announced. The distance is approximately 800 miles. Turner, flying a company plane, accompanied by William G. Julier, an official of the company, and his lion cub mascot, took off from United Airport at 10:40 a.m.

JUDGE WOERTENDYKE WILL GIVE LECTURES

A series of three lectures will be delivered this week by Judge James H. Woertendyke of Kansas City, at the Gospel Tabernacle Church, Eighteenth and Georgia streets. Judge Woertendyke will speak Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 7:30 p.m. The speaker is one of the directors of the Fundamental Congress now in session here and a Pacific Coast organizer. He enjoys the distinction of having done platform work with the late William Jennings Bryan, on a nation-wide speaking tour.

ACTRESS ENGAGED TO PUBLICITY MAN

Dorothy Lee

Dorothy Lee, stage-and-screen actress, and James Fidler, publicity man, yesterday announced their engagement at an informal party in the beach home of the bride-to-be. They admitted it when Sue Carol made known her suspicion of it by suggesting a toast to "Hollywood's newest engaged couple." No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Lee was born and educated in Los Angeles, but made her stage debut in New York. She appeared here recently in a musical comedy. At present she is under contract to R.-K.-O. studios.

TWO DEAD IN SHOOTING OVER GIRL

Admirer of Japanese Miss Kills Her Father and Self; Mother Wounded

Following a triple shooting late Saturday night in which Tanaka Tamura shot Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shirikihara and then himself in Shirikihara's rooming-house at 418 North Figueroa street because he was not allowed to marry Shirikihara's daughter, Tamura and Shirikihara died at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital early yesterday morning. Mrs. Shirikihara is recovering from a bullet wound in her chest at the Japanese Hospital.

SHIGUKO SHIRIKIHARA

Tamura, according to Detective Lieutenants Hickey and Baggot, had been employed by the Shirikiharas. He sought the hand of their daughter Shiguko in marriage. This match was frowned upon by the parents and, in the resulting disagreement, Tamura was discharged.

Seeking vengeance, according to the detectives, Tamura called at the Shirikihara home and confronted Mr. and Mrs. Shirikihara in the kitchen. A brief argument ensued and when Tamura was ordered to leave he drew a revolver and shot Shirikihara. Then, though the mother carried an 8-months-old baby in her arms, he leveled the weapon at her and fired a second time. The bullet struck the mother in the chest. As she fell Tamura fled down the hallway to a room he formerly had occupied and shot himself.

Fundamentals Association Ends Session

Philadelphia was selected yesterday as the 1931 convention city of the World's Christian Fundamentals Association at the closing session of the organization, which was held in the Bible Institute of Los Angeles. Dr. Paul Rood, president of the association, said the date for the convention has not been set, but thought that it probably will be held the first week in June.

The present condition of the church was the subject of an address by Dr. W. B. Riley at the closing session yesterday. Dr. Riley gave an historical sketch of the background of the Christian churches and sketched its progress to modern times.

Haste Betrays Bandit Suspect After Robbery

Vigilance of police officers early yesterday morning resulted in the capture of a bandit a few moments after he held up the night clerk in the Monarch Hotel at Fifth and Figueroa streets, Central Station report discloses.

Shortly after midnight H. N. Willey telephoned central station that he had just been held up by a lone bandit and robbed of $26.

Officers Doyle and Williams, on patrol, observed a man running through an auto park near the hotel. They chased and caught him in an alley half a block away. Noticing that a flying squad car had stopped at the hotel they took their prisoner there, where he was identified by the clerk as the bandit who had held him up.

The suspect gave the name of George H. Hall, 24 years of age. He said he is a recent arrival in the city.

"HILL BILLY" FLIES EAST

Zeke Craddock, member of the Hill Billies of radio KMPC, left by airplane yesterday for Louisville, Ky., where, he said, he will look after his claim as an heir to an estate. The flight is being made in the tri-motored Fokker owned by President R. S. Macmillan, of Macmillan Petroleum Corporation, who accompanied Craddock.

BERMAN TRIAL DELAY SOUGHT

Prosecutor Today Will Ask for Continuance

Deputy Needed for Case Now Busy on Another

Defense Expected to Combat Against Any Halt

Although Jacob Berman, accused with S. C. Lewis of wrecking the Julian Petroleum Corporation, is scheduled to go to trial today before Superior Judge Wilson, a continuance will be requested by Dist.-Atty. Fitts pending the arrival of Berman from McNeil's Island where he is serving a seven-year sentence.

Supporting this report, it was disclosed yesterday that representatives of the District Attorney's office contemplate asking for a continuance of the trial, not only because of the fact that Berman cannot be present when the case is called today, but because the District Attorney's office cannot prosecute the trial until it has finished the prosecution of Otto Sanhuber, charged with the murder of Fred Oesterreich.

This point was brought out when it was learned that the deputy who is prosecuting Sanhuber, is the only deputy who is prepared to prosecute the pending Julian cases.

According to the calendar in Judge Wilson's court, John B. Groves and Frank C. Grider are scheduled to go to trial today on charges of accepting bribes to render a verdict favorable to the defendants in the original Julian prosecutions.

But the District Attorney's office first seeks to try Louis Krause, Jacob Berman and Louis Berman on charges of having bribed jurors in the original Julian case, according to attaches of the District Attorney's office.

Inasmuch as one of the District Attorney's most prominent deputies now is engaged in the trial of another case, and also because Berman is not expected in Los Angeles until tomorrow or Wednesday, the trials probably will be continued.

Defense attorneys are expected to oppose any motions for continuance, demanding an immediate trial.

Two Scheduled for Sentence in Bank Fund Case

R. R. Westfall, who pleaded guilty to aiding Frank J. Pritchett, former cashier of the First National Bank of Culver City, and E. H. Grose, jeweler of that city, in the defrauding of the bank out of $138,000, is scheduled to appear today before United States District Judge Cosgrave. The shortage was made good by the directors.

While Westfall, a broker, pleaded guilty and admitted his part in the various transactions, for which Pritchett and Grose were convicted and sent to Federal prison, it was intimated that his sentence will be light, in view of the fact that he testified on behalf of the government in the trial of the other two. Pritchett was sentenced to twenty-five months at McNeil Island Federal prison and Grose was given a term of fifteen months in the same institution.

County Civil Service Tests Will be Given

Examinations to fill many county positions are announced by the County Civil Service Commission.

Among the positions for which eligible lists must be compiled are those of assistant probation officer, watchman, assistant property man, ranger, assistant storekeeper, junior efficiency investigator, assistant court clerk, laboratory and shipping assistant, deputy constable for Calabasas and Redondo townships, assistant storekeeper, clerk, assistant hollerith operator, graduate nurses.

Information and application forms can be obtained at Room 1002, Hall o' Records.

Fees of Humane Department Net City $121,847

Total receipts of the humane department for dog licenses, pound fees and sale of stock for the fiscal year to date amounted to $121,847, according to the statistical report of the department, which shows collections for the month of May as $7051.50.

A total of 699 dogs was impounded during May and 559 were destroyed. Cats impounded numbered 690 and 677 were destroyed. Nineteen dogs and no cats were redeemed. Ninety-four dogs and thirteen cats were sold.

Noted Musician's Widow Expires

Mrs. Katherine Hraba, 77 years of age, widow of John Hraba, musician of the Imperial Royal Opera at Vienna, and mother-in-law of Ernest Huber, member of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, died yesterday after a month's illness at the Huber home, 4916 Sixth avenue.

Funeral arrangements will await the arrival here of Dr. Jenny Hraba, a daughter, of New York City, and a son, Dr. John Hraba of Boston, Mass. They are en route here by airplane. The body is at Garrett Brothers' mortuary, 921 Venice Boulevard.

HOPKINS ASKS ANOTHER TERM

Veteran Assessor Announces His Candidacy

Aid Pledged in Efforts to Amend Revenue Laws

Square Deal to All Classes of Taxpayers Promised

Ed W. Hopkins, County Assessor, yesterday announced his candidacy for re-election to that office for the sixth successive term. Hopkins has been Assessor for Los Angeles county for twenty-three years, having been appointed to that position in 1907 to fill a vacancy. He has been elected five times. Previous to his appointment, he served as a deputy for twelve years.

E.W.HOPKINS.

Last year the Assessor's office valued all varieties of property in Los Angeles county at more than $4,500,000,000, or more than three times as much as any other county in California. A permanent office force of 260 people and 1200 seasonal workers were needed to compile the data necessary for the fixing of the tax rates. When Hopkins first entered the office, the permanent staff consisted of twelve people, with forty during the inventory season and the property value was less than $100,000,000.

BACKS LAW CHANGES

In announcing his candidacy, Hopkins declared that he planned to continue his present policy, if re-elected, of endeavoring to amend and to correct the present revenue laws, to insure an equitable assessment roll.

"I wish to express to the taxpayers my appreciation for their confidence in me as evidenced by their united support over a long term of years," he said in making his announcement. "I have no futile promises to offer as to the accomplishment of the impossible. Under the law, the assessor is limited to certain functions, beyond which he has no authority. I stand squarely upon my record of thirty-five years of service in the assessor's office and will continue to give every taxpayer and every class of taxpayers, the same square deal, without fear or favor. I will, as in the past, endeavor to amend and to correct the revenue laws in order that, as nearly as possible, an equitable assessment roll can be written.

FAIRNESS PLEDGED

"It is needless to say that I do not represent, and have no alliance with, any faction, clique or interest, and I will administer the laws pertaining to this office as I have done in the past, in an impartial manner that insures a square deal to every property owner and taxpayer.

"While this office has no control over special assessments, I will assist in the revising of these laws that we may be able to proceed in a safe and sane manner."

MANY WILL GO TO BOWL BREAKFAST

More Than 250 Expected at Council Day Gathering Tomorrow Noon

More than 250 reservations have been received for the Hollywood Bowl council day campaign breakfast tomorrow at 12 o'clock noon, according to Glenn M. Tindall, business manager.

The day is named in honor of the Los Angeles City Council. Every Councilman is expected, and is to bring a delegation from his district. The Councilmen have been named honorary chairmen in their districts for the sale of tickets to the concerts, which start July 8. This, and other breakfasts, are open to the public, and reservations may be made by telephoning Bowl headquarters.

Mme. Margaret Matzenauer of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company, who will appear as soloist at the Bowl, will be guest of honor. Her daughter, Adrienne, also will be present. Among the guests will be H. R. Donovan, Evelyn White, Mrs. Marshall Laird, Mrs. Charles Haas, Mrs. Edgar Norton, Celeste Nellis Ryus, Alice Mosher and Roland Paul.

Robert Noble will be chairman. Dr. Clinton Wonder, executive manager of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, will deliver the principal address following the invocation by Dr. Harold Griffis, pastor of the Wilshire Boulevard Christian Church. Arrangements for the council day breakfast are being made by Mrs. Elizabeth Holbrook, chairman of the residential committee, under direction of Mrs. Grace Widney Mabee, campaign chairman.

SCHOOL PROGRAMS PREPARED

Junior Red Cross programs are to be presented this summer at sessions of normal schools and teachers' colleges in Long Beach, San Diego, Santa Cruz, Santa Barbara, San Francisco, Berkeley, Stockton, San Jose, Huntington Lake and Chico, it is announced by D. C. McWatters, chairman, Los Angeles chapter, American Red Cross. Detailed information may be obtained at 402 Patriotic Hall or by calling WEstmore 0211.

COMEDY LINES BRIGHTEN PLAY

'Nancy's Private Affair' Well Cast and Clever

Minna Gombell and Ernest Glendining Amuse

Wife Wins Back Husband in Smart Little Show

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

The efforts of a wife to win back her husband turn out to have a refreshing smartness in "Nancy's Private Affair," which opened yesterday at El Capitan Theater. Very large audiences attended the first profferings of this play by Myron C. Fagan, and enjoyed themselves more than when witnessing any comedy presented here in perhaps several months.

An unusually good cast, a play that is more piquant by far than those generally offered under Duffy auspices, and a great deal of gayety surrounding stage happenings, proved the responsible factors in eliciting a genuinely pleased response.

One can vote "Nancy's Private Affair" clever, if not altogether unique. Recollections turn to "Let Us be Gay" and possibly another plot or two about the re-establishing of marital harmonies, where one views this new piece, but for all that it may be reminiscent, it has situations and characters that conjure persistent merriment. And the repartee, which is often true repartee, is very exceptionally bright.

The wife, who has allowed herself to take domesticity as a matter of course, even to the extent of neglecting her personal appearance, finds herself facing an apparently unavoidable divorce. The husband, a playwright, has been caught in the toils of a brittle little gold-digger, and her designing mother. The husband's money is naturally the attraction.

The wife makes the best of the complications, accepts, with seeming confidence, the implied ultimatum of a legal separation, and asks a few apparently negligible concessions.

Then she sets to work. She acquires beauty and an English peer. She arranges a house party at which the husband and his fiancee are to be present. She herself drops into the little gathering as if wholly unaware of the intrigue she has instituted. She announces an engagement, trumps up admiration from another man besides the peer, and otherwise appears in most desirable wise to her ex-mate. She also succeeds in unmasking the materialistic ambitions of his intended, and of her maternal parent.

All of this is slender, not to say slight material, even for comedy. But "Nancy's Private Affair" keeps moving zestfully along, with only a decline here and there in its interest. It is distinctly an engaging little show, fortified as it is with Minna Gombell, who plays the same role that she did in New York; Ernest Glendinning, in a rare comedy portrayal, and various others.

Miss Gombell exhibits plenty of spirit in her interpretation of the wife. She is a resourceful actress at all times, and has a keen sense of comedy. She is starred in the production.

Glendinning was a constant inspiration for laughter, as the advising friend of the wife, whom she decides shall be her ostensible suitor. He plays the role broadly enough for musical comedy at times, but the funny results seem to justify even this. He received a tribute of applause for the pleasure that he brought.

Much to be credited also are Kathryn Givney and Effie Afton as mother and daughter. Both gave their roles marked reality in the playing. Miss Givney's final scene was strikingly good. Donald Douglas enacted the husband, and Layland Hodgson was the "diamond king" who served eventually to engage the attention of the gold-digging young lady and her mamma.

"Nancy's Private Affair" should please with its smart mirthfulness and its capable cast.

Palace to Show Spanish Talkie

On a program arranged for Saturday midnight, the premiere of the all-talking Spanish version of "The Big Fight" will be presented at the Fox Palace Theater, according to an announcement.

Plans are being made to make the occasion a gala one for the city's Latin screen followers, with stars of the picture presented from the stage, and other Spanish film celebrities and diplomatic notables attending as guests of honor.

NOTED ACTRESS IN DRAMA AT MAYAN

Katherine Wilson

"Decency," now playing at the Mayan Theater, will continue throughout this week, according to an announcement. The engagement will terminate Saturday night.

Katherine Wilson, noted actress from New York, is enacting the leading feminine role in "Decency," and is supported by Arthur Clayton, G. Pat Collins and other popular players. The next play booked at the Mayan Theater is "Molly Magdalene."

Distinguished Star Returns

Fay Bainter

Will be warmly welcomed tonight at the Belasco Theater, where she will enact the leading role in "Caprice," a Viennese stage comedy. Miss Bainter last appeared here in "Jealousy."

BASTILE'S FALL SET TO MUSIC

"Captain of Guard" Opens at Orpheum; John Boles in Leading Role

BY PHILIP K. SCHEUER

Fanciful, factual and operatic, "Captain of the Guard," a spectacle from the Universal studios, finally arrived in town Saturday. The new feature at the Orpheum Theater, it has for its leads the virile-voiced John Boles and Laura La Plante in a dark wig. Doing time with it is a variety of short films, the most notable of which is a grand "Silly Symphony" cartoon entitled "Night." The others are "Hooked," picturesque resume of fishermen's luck, a Pathe Sound News and a Checker comedy with Richard Carle.

Set to the music of Charles Wakefield Cadman, "Captain of the Guard" is a movietzed conception of the birth of "La Marseillaise" and French liberty. Boles is first introduced as a tutor, sent by Bazan, the King's counselor, to instruct Mary Mornay, a village belle to whom Bazan is betrothed, in singing. A romance develops; but it is interrupted when Boles is recalled by Louis XVI to assume his rightful position as head of the King's guards.

Mary Mornay is won to the revolutionists when her father, an innkeeper, is shot down by Royalists. She becomes a sort of "symbol for freedom;" is locked in the Bastille, and freed when Boles, or Rouget De L'Isle, composes "La Marseillaise" for the mob. The scene, symphonically scored, in which De L'Isle is inspired to pen the flaming notes of his country's anthem is quite the best of all.

For the most part, the film adheres to the methods conspicuous in an earlier day. The incomparable canvas of the screen is employed to advantage in depicting the contrast between court life and that in the abodes of the masses; but the effect of the whole is injured by the interruptions, now and again, for the sake of vocal excursions. I do not mean that the tunes interpolated are dragged in with particular irrelevance, but rather that they nullify the visual flow of the narrative by lulling the listener into forgetfulness of whatever stakes there are at hand. It is still a fine point, this musicalizing our movies.

Several sequences have been excellently photographed, especially those of the court bacchanale, and the later march of the torches. The revolution, in general, however, is somehow maneuvered sluggishly and without the divine fire which must have sent it blazing on its way. The chorus work is more responsive and lifting.

The theme song is "For You," a charming melody first heard as it comes from Boles's lips, and repeated constantly by the orchestra and then by Miss La Plante. The erstwhile commedienne has a simple, unaffected manner vocally, and her performance otherwise is in the same key. It is amazing how the sparkling vivacity of this player is obscured here, as though the hirsute transformation extended through all her person.

Boles appears to best advantage as captain of the guards, with a white wig, and replendent in the braided uniform of the hussars. His contribution is less forceful than the one he made to the Whiteman revue, nothing in it being comparable to his "Song of the Dawn" in that picture.

In the large cast, Stuart Holmes and Evelyn Hall portray the King and Queen, respectively; and Sam De Grasse, De Witt Jennings, James Marcus, Lionel Belmore may be mentioned for other roles.

Direction is credited to John S. Robertson. The story is an original by Houston Branch, with dialogue by George Manker Watters, who wrote "Burlesque" and apparently is more at home in imagining what actors talk about than Kings and their subjects. His speeches, like the operatic interpolations, are hardly calculated to heighten the illusion of a nation seething within itself.

"Captain of the Guard" is often colorful, but it has not been dipped deeply enough in red. One's acceptance of it hinges largely on one's receptivity to musical dramas as motion-picture entertainment.

CANNON AT BALBOA

Raymond Cannon and his cast for "Ladies Must Play," have been at Balboa this week filming scenes at the summer colony and along the coast for this sophisticated farce.

NEW SOUTH LOCALE IN STAGE PLAY

George Fawcett, Producer, Presents Percy Haswell in Comedy at Vine Street

A garden in the modern South is the setting of "Under a Virginia Moon," the comedy-drama which starts a run at the Vine Street Theater tonight.

George Fawcett, producer, has assembled a noteworthy cast for this unique offering which combines humor and romance with music. Miss Percy Haswell, comedienne, plays the leading role. Heading the supporting cast are Vernon Steele, Dulcie Cooper, Pierre White, baritone, and Randolph Scott.

Blossom Room Plans Welcome for Ben Bernie

Tuesday night Ben Bernie and his orchestra, who were recently selected by Maurice Chevalier to appear with him in his local show, will begin a limited engagement in the Blossom Room of the Roosevelt Hotel.

Noted as a premier dance orchestra, the Bernie organization has played in most of the leading resort cities of America and Europe. In New York they were the attraction at the Roosevelt Hotel for several years. In the Blossom Room Monday night, a colorful farewell evening will be tendered Irving Aaronson and his Commanders.

Whispers in the Wings

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

LOS ANGELES has given birth to and sent on its way, on the road or direct to New York, many a fledgling show during its days as a theatrical center. Among them have been such efforts as "So Long Letty," "Abie's Irish Rose," "White Collars," "Topsy and Eva" and others.

Now it appears Los Angeles is to stand sponsor for a Shakesperean company. An organization calling itself the Shakespeare Guild, headed by William Thornton as principal player and Sigurd Russell as manager, announces a "transcontinental tour" starting from this city within a few months.

The first lap of the tour will take the company on a circle through the West, beginning in San Diego early in September, closing in Vancouver, B. C., in December. A Los Angeles engagement is scheduled for October, after the opera season; a San Francisco appearance in November.

The Guild repertoire will include "Hamlet," "Romeo and Juliet" and "The Merchant of Venice." "Hamlet" in modern dress will also be played. Production details and casting are now under way. Thornton is a young actor who has specialized in the classical drama.

Gillette Coming Here

William Gillette's "Sherlock Holmes" which, as a revival, stirred great interest in New York this past winter, will be seen in Los Angeles this fall, I hear. Mr. Gillette's visit will be made under the Erlanger auspices, and will follow some trouping through the principal cities of the Middle West where his name, in the past, has been the signal for packed houses.

In fact, a correspondent in New York is authority for the statement that the new season's bookings for the Erlanger theaters (the Mason and the Biltmore here, of course) are heavier than they have been in the past several years.

If George Arliss decides to forsake the movies temporarily, and again appear on the stage, he will come this way on Erlanger time.

"Caprice" Given Good Start

Santa Barbara critics, who very often have a delightful time razzing the Los Angeles shows which try out in that town, took to "Caprice" with open arms. All sorts of superlative adjectives found their way into printer's ink following the opening there Friday.

"Caprice" with the glamorous Miss Fay Bainter, with Reginald Owen, Lily Cahill, David Scott (an unknown,) and others, comes to the Belasco tonight. One of the most brilliant first-night audiences on record has signified intentions of being present.

Opening Also

The curtain rises for the first time, also, tonight on two other shows. "Crime," a crook play, comes to the President. "Under a Virginia Moon," a new musical effort by Margaret Fawcett, daughter of George, will be premiered at the Vine Street Theater. Percy Haswell, Dulcy Cooper, and Vernon Steele are among the principals.

ACTRESS TAKES TRIP

Lola Vendrell, petite Mexican actress, who was seen recently in Sono-Art's Spanish talkie, "Asi es la Vida," has gone to San Diego on a short vacation.

HOMILY ON FATHER'S DAY DRAWN FROM PRODIGAL

Reverse Side of Subject Presented by Salvation Army Speaker at Special Service

Father's Day was observed in many Los Angeles churches either by sermons or by reference to the occasion during yesterday's services. At the Salvation Army Temple last night Brig.-Gen. James C. Bell, commanding officer of the Los Angeles and south coast division, took for his theme the story of the prodigal son.

"There is a moral obligation owed by the father to his son," he said. "This begins with the need of the provision of a good home for him. And in the case of the prodigal son we find that there was a good home awaiting him on his return.

"There is a great deal of difference between a housekeeper and a home keeper, but too many modern folks have not learned that distinction. Modern ideas and ideals, or lack of ideals, are all wrong in this connection. What we need is a return to those ideals which gave the boy his rights to live a good life with encouragement, but when he went wrong welcomed him back and helped him in his struggle to make good.

"The prodigal's father saw him when he was yet a great way off, ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. Gave him a ring of restoration, put shoes on his feet and killed the fatted calf. That was forgiveness."

SALVATION SEEN AS DAILY EXPERIENCE

"One of the tragedies of history is that men have so misunderstood religion and so misrepresented God that thousands of excellent persons are afraid that they have not been and will not be saved," declared Dr. Sheldon Shepard in his sermon yesterday at First Universalist Church.

"Thousands of other fine folks are so disgusted with the whole theological business that they have, apparently, dropped all thoughts of religion from their lives," said Dr. Shepard. "As a matter of truth, life is an endless procession of being saved. To say a man is good, of noble character and large service and yet is not saved is to utter the rankest contradiction. Salvation is not a theoretical condition to be revealed at some future time when secret records are uncovered. Salvation is a fact, an experience, a condition of life, a daily achievement.

"If one is afraid, angered, irritable, sick, critical, prejudiced, then he is not saved from fear, anger, nervousness, disease, unkindness and prejudice. Salvation may not be recorded in the Book of Judgment, but it is unerringly written in the fibers of the nerves, the cells of the brain, the traits of character, and the experiences of every day. With the degree of salvation he has achieved shall every individual walk through the door of death and continue at his task."

CREATOR LOVER OF BEAUTIFUL THINGS

"The laws of nature are the habits of God and the objects of creation are the thoughts of God," declared Dr. John Snape in his sermon yesterday at Temple Baptist Church.

"God loves beautiful things," said Dr. Snape. "For this man should be grateful. Wouldn't it be too bad if all roses were black, the sky a dull brown and all grass a heavy yellow? God is a poet and an artist. He knows how to mix the colors in His paint box. There is something wrong with a person who has no love for flowers. Roses suggest the frailty of life. Homer calls man a leaf. Pindar calls him a dream of the shadow. Old Jeremiah Taylor calls him a morning mushroom. The flowers suggest not only the frailty of life but the brevity of opportunity and the fragrance of sympathy. Flowers suggest the beauty of a regenerated love, sharing in redemption and glory. New graces shall be discovered in Christian character and all the products of the grace of God shall flourish in the desert of the world."

SORROW UNNECESSARY TO LIFE'S PROGRESS

"The root of sorrow lies in the lack of heroism in the ego," declared Bramachari Nerode in his sermon yesterday at Mt. Washington Center. The speaker said in part:

"Some aristocratic vision of life is almost a necessary postulate to overcome intellectual defeat and spiritual dismay, out of which arises the specter of sorrow. Sublimity alone can conquer sorrows and this sublimity is the echo of a refined and detached ego. Sorrow is not necessary for the progressive march of life, although it appears that the birth of joy and greatness come out of pain. Conditions of life are neither good nor bad, but neutral, ever reflecting the mind of the warrior. Therefore a Christ-ego is the only bulwark against the invasion of sorrows."

GROWTH DESCRIBED OF LUTHERAN FAITH

Dr. Leander S. Keyser preached at Hollywood Lutheran Church yesterday on "Our Historic Confession, Augustana." He said in part:

"It was a great historic event when the evangelicals presented their confession before the diet at Augsburg in 1530. While it had a small beginning 400 years ago, it soon spread throughout Germany, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Iceland and other countries. In the seventeenth century it came to America and then to South America, Africa, India, China and Japan. Thus the world historic meaning of this great confession stands before us. From Augsburg the confession spread into all countries. The small band at the diet has now become a host of 92,000,000—more than 50 per cent of the Protestant world."

DR. PHILPOTT TALKS AT BIBLE INSTITUTE

The baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Bible Institute was preached yesterday by Dr. P. W. Philpott at the Church of the Open Door. Dr. Philpott spoke in part as follows:

"The one and only way to find the divine will for your life is the way that Paul discovered it—by an absolute surrender of yourself to God's will. I believe that the great need of the hour is preachers like the Apostle Paul—men who will speak with authority—men who have a positive message. We are sometimes told that we have plenty of preaching—some may cynically say we have too much of it. But the fact remains that it 'pleases God to save men who believe through the foolishness of preaching.'

"There are literally thousands of persons in a great city like this who haven't the faintest idea of what the church stands for—what the message of the Gospel really is. Indeed, I feel free to say that many of them have never heard the Gospel story. Your task and mine is to make Christ known, especially to those who have not heard the Gospel."

LESSON PRESENTS GOD AS PRESERVER

A Lesson-Sermon on "God the Preserver of Man" was presented yesterday at all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. A Bible selection in the Lesson-Sermon included the following verses from the ninety-first Psalm: "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress; my God; in Him will I trust. . . . He shall cover thee with His feathers and under His wings shalt thou trust; His truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; . . . A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee." A correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, stated: "Accidents are unknown to God, or immortal Mind, and we must leave the mortal basis of belief and unite with the one Mind, in order to change the notion of chance to the proper sense of God's unerring direction and thus bring out harmony."

FOREST VISITOR FINED FOR FIRE

Camper Learns Regulations Covering Camp Fires No Dead Letter

It cost J. C. Hampton $10 to find out that the government prohibits the starting of a camp fire in a national forest, except in regularly established camp grounds.

He was arrested by Forest Patrolman Fisher in Tie Canyon, near Acton, and taken before Justice Perkins at Newhall and fined $50, of which $40 was suspended with a warning.

MISSIONARIES TO SPEAK

Dr. and Mrs. Mott Keislar, missionaries from India, will be the featured speakers at the First Methodist Church, Hollywood, tonight at 7:30 o'clock. The couple recently completed twenty-eight years of missionary work in India. Following their talk tonight they will answer questions.

LAST HUNDRED DAYS THE HARDEST

But Vacation Beckons From Fortnight Away Now

MORE than half a million school children in Los Angeles county see happy days again just around the corner. Nearly all of them are still in school but by the end of next week they will all be out for their summer vacation. The last few days are the hardest for them.

There is the case of Douglas Jones. He meant well and took books along for home-work, but he just couldn't get his mind off the coming days and every thought was like a bubble with some vacation sport predominant and never a care for school days.

Castles in the Air

"He's forever blowing bubbles," as the old song puts it. Douglas Jones means well by his home-work and that "A" grade depends on it, even in these last days of school. But the coming event casts shadows of the old fishin' hole and vacation informality of dress, or of lying under the trees just doing nothin' at all—a welcome prospect after the strain of the strenuous modern education.

Noted Southland Architect Dead

William J. Dodd, a former member of the State Architects' Board and widely known as the designer of many Southern California buildings and homes, died Saturday night after an illness of a week in a local hospital.

Mr. Dodd recently returned to Los Angeles from a tour of Europe, leaving his wife there. Funeral services for the designer will be delayed pending the return of Mrs. Dodd, who is en route to Los Angeles from Europe.

Art Commission Report Issued

During the first five months of the present year the Municipal Art Commission has considered plans for various structures valued at $4,972,844, according to Miss Elizabeth Black, general manager of the commission. The commission considered plans amounting to $509,545 during the month of May.

Plans considered and approved include the $300,000 Lincoln Heights jail and bridges aggregating $2,541,360.

DESPONDENT HUSBAND HANGS SELF IN HOME

Despondent over business difficulties, Walter S. Stein, 42 years of age, of 1954½ Rodney Drive, hanged himself with a belt from a hook in a closet of his home last night. Stein had eaten dinner with his wife and had gone to the living-room apparently to read, according to Mrs. Stein. An ambulance squad was unable to revive him.

BEN LYON AND BRIDE ON SECRET HONEYMOO

Only an intimate friend or two knew the whereabouts yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lyon as they spent their first day of wedded life on a honeymoon which started immediately after the two screen players were married Saturday night.

When the now Mrs. Lyon, formerly Bebe Daniels, changed to traveling costume after the ceremony and subsequent reception at the Beverly-Wilshire Hotel she hinted to a confidante that they expected to take a motor trip up the coast. The ultimate destination of the honeymooners is the secret of the newlyweds, as also is the day of their return.

The romance of Bebe Daniels and Ben Lyon, culminating in the wedding Saturday night, dates from an acquaintance of years. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lyon, Sr., of High Point, N. C., and the bride the daughter of Mrs. Phyllis Griffin Daniels.

In forwarding a handsome check as a wedding present Lyon, Sr., invited the couple to spend their honeymoon at the Lyon home, and in commenting on the marriage he said:

"Bebe's different. girl and we are all Their romance, years' courtship, They love each other should their affair Neither has been and I predict for marriage packed with

BRIDE OF YEAR VISITS FOLKS

Former Angeleno Here From Spain

[Shaneau Monsen]

Mrs. Owen Gains

MRS. OWEN GAINS returned last week to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Priest, at their home, 2225 Chaucer street, San Marino, and formerly of Hudson street, Los Angeles.

Mrs. Gains, formerly Miss Katherine Priest, bride of a year, and her husband have been residing in Bilbao, Spain, where he is in the consular service of the United States. Their wedding took place in Porto, Portugal, climaxing a romance begun in Nicaragua, where Mr. Gains was stationed as Vice-Consul. Following three months there, they moved to Madrid, where he served as Vice-Consul for the winter, and subsequently moved to Bilbao.

Mrs. Gains visited friends in Paris, and her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Gains, and sister, Mrs. J. F. Clegg, in Atlanta, Ga., while on her way to California. She plans to leave for New York July 10, next, sailing on the Alphonso XIII for Spain July 21. Her father is president of the Los Angeles Heavy Hardware Company, and, with his family, moved to San Marino eight months ago.

MODES OF THE MOMENT

by Honore Booth

FASHION EXPERT OF HARPER'S BAZAAR

BY HONORE BOOTH

The very word godet seems inextricably tangled in most of our minds with the era of Godey's Ladies Books, we beg your indulgence for our little pun. But it is true and noteworthy that fashion terminology has reverted to the 80's and 90's to keep pace with the increasing complications of cutting, designing and draping. Godets are everywhere. Especially in evening wardrobes, they reign with unquestionable surpremacy. I described an organdie dress to you that had pressed godets. The effect was very novel and amusing. All materials seem to lend themselves to the new, or more accurately, the revival of the old usages.

News of fans and fan plaitings comes simultaneously. Scallops are varying what threatened for a time to be a seriously even hem-line. In fact, the bottoms of dresses are dipping and behaving extremely frivolously. Even when they seem most sedate and even, a little examination reveals that it is all an optical illusion. For example, intricate panels, set low on the skirt with shirring, create a false impression of an even hem. Analysis of clothes is, for reasons such as this, increasingly difficult, and the clothes themselves are increasingly gracious and amusing.

Plaits are the order of the day, and often of the night. They are used for all types of costumes, and are ably varied. Unpressed plaits are extremely important. Lingerie has the incredibly tiny plaits which make it at once so charming and so impractical. But practicality is anything but the keynote of the present mode. We have lived efficiently for some years past in clothes that no activities or climate could affect. Now we must resign ourselves bravely to a time of expensive upkeep and frail dreses.

Wool, Lace and Cotton Net

I have discussed before the greater specialization of tweeds. That is, tweeds are not being worn for every occasion now, from golf to afternoon tea, as they were last season. There is much room for new and interesting semisport materials. Cotton mesh, for active summer sports, has taken an important place for the hot weather. It is practical, extremely cool, durable and smart. Of even greater importance is the arrival of wool lace. This, as its name implies, is a lace, far larger meshed than what we ordinarily think of as lace, in fine colored and white wool. It makes a very soft and also a very cool material. The variations in the design of the lace make it rather more dressy in feeling than a tweed. Also, the swirling, curving design adds greatly to the grace of the frock cut from this medium. It drapes beautifully on account of its pliancy, and lends itself to intricate skirt treatment very successfully.

Chef Wyman's RECIPES

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

STRAWBERRY BLANC MANGE

One cupful of crushed strawberries, one-half a cupful of sugar, one and one-half cupfuls of milk, one-fourth of a teasoonful of salt, five level tablespoonfuls of cornstarch, the whites of two eggs. To the crushed strawberries add one-half of the sugar, scald one cupful of the milk, mix the remaining sugar, salt and cornstarch with the remainder of the cold milk. Slowly pour this into the scalded milk and cook slowly for fifteen minutes, until the mixture is thick; remove from the fire, add the berries and fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites, turn the mixture into a mold, allow to chill and serve with cream.

ICE BOX GINGER CREAMS

One cupful of shortening or butter, one cupful of brown sugar, one-half a cupful of white sugar, one-half a cupful of molasses, one-half a cupful of corn syrup, one cupful of boiling water, one teaspoonful of soda, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, four and one-half cupfuls of flour, two teaspoonfuls of cinnamon, two teaspoonfuls of ginger, one-half a teaspoonful of salt, three eggs. Cream the shortening and the sugar, add the molasses and syrup, then the boiling water, the lemon juice and one teaspoonful of grated lemon rind, sift the flour with the soda and spices and salt, add to the other mixture and lastly add the well-beaten eggs; this batter is very thin; set it in the ice box overnight, drop by small spoonfuls about two inches apart on an oiled and floured pan, returning the remainder of the batter to the ice box in between the baking.

CARROT FRITTERS

Two cupfuls of cooked, mashed carrots, one teaspoonful of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of salt, two eggs well beaten, a seasoning of white pepper and one-half a cupful of flour. Mash the carrots while hot, add the sugar, salt, pepper and eggs. Beat in the flour and shape in the mixture into rounded tablespoonfuls. Fry in deep, hot shortening. Drain and serve with melted butter.

RUSSIAN CUCUMBERS

Three medium-sized cucumbers, one and one-half cupfuls of thin cream, a seasoning of salt and pepper, one tablespoonful of butter. Peel the cucumbers and cut them in quarters, arrange them in a baking dish, cover with the cream, add the seasonings and butter, cover tightly and bake for thirty minutes. Remove the cover and allow to brown.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

—Peter Rabbit.

Peter Rabbit sat on the bank of the Smiling Pool, hoping that Jerry Muskrat would reappear. Jerry had just startled Peter so that Peter had nearly jumped into the water. But though he waited and waited he saw no sign of Jerry Muskrat. The little ripples that Jerry had made when he dived gradually disappeared. The Smiling Pool lay quiet and peaceful. In it Peter could see reflected the blue, blue sky and the drifting fleecy clouds. The Big Hickory tree seemed to have its double in the water.

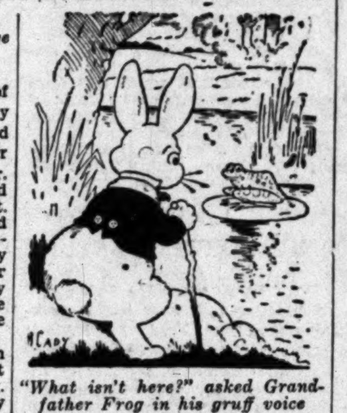
Peter looked over to the green lily-pads and there on the biggest of them sat Grandfather Frog. Grandfather Frog was looking very fine with his green coat and white-and-yellow waistcoat. Even as Peter looked Grandfather Frog opened his great mouth and a foolish green fly disappeared. "Chug a-rum!" said Grandfather Frog with a great deal of satisfaction.

Over in the alders near the head of the Smiling Pool, Redwing the Blackbird was singing joyously. On a stone on the edge of the Smiling Pool, Teeter the Sandpiper was bobbing up and down in that funny way of his. Rattles the Kingfisher, with his top-knot standing up straight, making his head look as if he were top-heavy, was sitting on a branch of the Big Hickory tree that overhung the water. Peter knew that Rattles was watching for fish.

Suddenly it came to Peter that the Smiling Pool didn't seem to be quite what it should be. All these things were as he had seen them many times, but he had a feeling that there was something odd about the Smiling Pool. Peter slowly scratched a long ear with a long hindfoot.

"It seems to me," said he thoughtfully, "that I miss something. I don't know what it is I miss, but I miss something."

He sat up very straight and looked the Smiling Pool all over. There was the Big Rock on which he had so often seen Jerry Muskrat, or sometimes Billy Mink. There was the Laughing Brook coming in at the upper end and leaving at the lower end. There were the green banks, high in some places and low in others. It was all very, very familiar. Still Peter had a sense of missing something.



"What isn't here?" asked Grandfather Frog in his gruff voice

Then, quite abruptly, it popped into Peter's head what it was he missed. "It isn't here!" he exclaimed right out loud.

"What isn't here?" asked Grandfather Frog in his gruff voice.

"Jerry Muskrat's house!" cried Peter.

"Of course it isn't here," replied Grandfather Frog. "Have you just discovered that?"

Peter nodded. "Yes," said he meekly. "Has it been gone a very long time?"

"Ever since the spring flood," replied Grandfather Frog. "You don't use your eyes very well. You've been over here times enough to discover long ago that Jerry Muskrat's house is missing."

"It's too bad, isn't it?" said Peter.

"What is too bad?" inquired Grandfather Frog in his deepest voice.

"Why, that Jerry Muskrat hasn't any home," replied Peter.

"Who says he hasn't any home?" demanded Grandfather Frog. "Who says he hasn't any home? I didn't say it."

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

DANGER SIGNALS

If you are in good health you should be totally unaware that you have any internal organs. Your stomach and heart and liver should do their work so easily and smoothly that you are unaware of their functioning. Whenever you feel that "cutting up," you may be sure that there is some derangement of their function which you should give your attention to and correct. Pain and distress are always friendly warnings to tell you of impending danger.

Many sick people fail to get well because they fail to distinguish between getting rid of the pain and getting rid of the cause of the pain. If you can make yourself understand that pain is a warning indication you will readily see that getting rid of the pain is not as important as getting rid of its cause.

Suppose a baby had a needle imbedded in its flesh. Would it be sensible to give the baby something to kill the pain? Rather, wouldn't it be the wise thing to remove the needle which is hurting? The next time you feel a stomach ache or a headache, think this over. If you have a headache it is caused by some harmful condition in the body. It is no doubt a good thing to get rid of the headache, if at the same time you do not neglect getting rid of the original trouble.

Whenever nature sends you such a warning, do not fail to heed it, and try to study out what error you have committed in breaking health laws. Go back over your living habits, and especially the details of your last few meals. Find out the mistakes you have made in selecting and combining foods, and consider if you are exercising enough or sleeping enough to maintain good health. Be honest with yourself if you wish to be helped by the danger signals of pain.

You cannot expect to be permanently cured if you are satisfied only in relieving symptoms. There are lots of trick treatments which will make a pain disappear, but you should remember that these treatments are only for relief, and the real trouble which is overlooked will continue to become worse until finally it may become incurable.

If you do not cure the original cause it will return soon again with either similar symptoms or with other symptoms which at first thought might seem to have no connection with the former trouble.

Some people are satisfied to have one operation after another when all this would be unnecessary if they really found out what was wrong with themselves and learned how to live so as to avoid further trouble. I urge you to give more thought to the cause of disease in your body than you do to the effects.

Many of the more serious diseases do not give much warning just before a fatal termination, but I am sure that these diseases gave warning time after time in their incipient stages, and these warnings being ignored, perhaps hundreds of times, resulted in toxic accumulations and destructions of tissues which became irreparable.

The next time you feel a pain, try to discover the cause. If you will do this I feel sure that you will be greatly rewarded in increased health and more complete freedom from the danger of recurring and more serious signs of ill health which are the unavoidable results of attempting to suppress symptoms.

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

WHAT DO YOU WANT TO KNOW?

Some questions pop up so constantly and are answered so often that we sometimes forget to include them in the column. Because we meet them daily, we think all mothers are conversant with them. If you haven't asked these typical questions in the past, you've no doubt wondered about them.

"I am writing to you again," says Mrs. A.M.M., "to ask you some questions. Baby is 11 months old and weighs twenty-one pounds. When he is getting one quart of whole milk, should it be boiled? Need it be warmed for him to drink?

"When can I discontinue putting water in his orange juice?

"Up to what age should baby have sieved vegetables and fruits?"

BOIL MILK DAILY

Boil the milk daily during the summer months, especially if you are not using pasteurized Grade A milk for the baby or are uncertain of your milk supply or do not have large quantities of ice.

Always do this when you get milk from a city dairy, or from a small-town dairy where hygienic measures may not be strictly enforced or when baby changes milk for any reason, even for the day.

Boil the milk in hot weather. There is no one rule so eminently advisable to follow.

After the milk is boiled it should be cooled rapidly and kept ice cold until used. When a child is being fed vegetables and cereals and other warm foods at a meal the milk need not be served hot. The child of 1 year should be taking his milk by cup, and a cup of hot milk is not as appetizing as a cup of cold milk. When the milk is taken from the ice box let baby's cupful stand for a moment in a pan of hot water until it is just cool, and not ice cold. If baby is still taking a bottle at night, that bottle may be warm as warm milk is soothing and sleep-provoking.

ORANGE JUICE PLAIN

Plain orange juice without water can be given after baby is 6 months old, providing it is mild, naturally sweet orange juice. If the oranges are sour (some of them are at this time of year) dilute the juice to make it more agreeable to baby.

There are no set dates at which vegetables need not be sieved. Usually after about the fourteenth month the child of good digestion can manage unsieved vegetables if they are young and cooked until very tender. Cellulose, which makes up a large proportion of most vegetables, is practically indigestible. This is the portion that gives bulk to the stools and thus stimulates bowel activity. In large quantities it might be irritating to the child, so for young babies this indigestible element is best sieved out. Try some unsieved vegetables for baby and if he takes them easily and shows no unusual bowel activity because of them, cook them well and mash instead of sieving them.

Takes LESS TIME to make coffee by the BEN-HUR Drip Method

Tens of thousands are making their Ben-Hur Drip Coffee easily and quickly—an advantage that you too can enjoy. Read the excerpts below taken from a few letters out of thousands received. They tell of interesting time-saving experiences making BEN-HUR Drip Coffee with the Ben-Hur Healthful Coffee Maker.

"For the business woman, whose breakfast often consists of toast and coffee, Ben-Hur Drip Coffee is a godsend as it is so easy to prepare and can be "dripping" while the toast is being made. It is not necessary to watch it to see that it does not boil over or percolate too long. There is no guess work about it, for after it has all dripped through, the coffee is ready—a clear, golden brown in color with no sediment or dregs. And it tastes as good as it looks." Sarah R. McKay, 218 Hollywood Security Bldg., Hollywood, Calif.

"It it so much easier to prepare, quicker, and more economical, that everyone can enjoy real coffee for health, as well as for pleasure." Mrs. Leland W. Hill, 2961 East Colorado Street, Pasadena, Calif.

"... my coffee troubles are over. Breakfast is not half the work when your coffee is done in less than five minutes. No waiting for it to 'perc', and no waiting for it to cool, because coffee made by the Ben-Hur Drip Method is just right to drink." Gertrude S. Winter, 710 North Pickering, Whittier, Calif.

In addition to its HEALTHFUL advantages, NO KNOWN PROCESS of roasting or vacuumizing will produce and hold a flavor and mellow richness superior to

NEWS OF SOUTHERN COUNTIES

DISTRICT PLANS HIGH SCHOOL

Loma Linda Students Now to Complete Course There

New Structure Ready for Occupancy Next Year

Medical Evangelist College Commencement Saturday

LOMA LINDA, June 15.—Plans for expansion of the schools of the Loma Linda district were announced here today, including a high school for the district, at the same time that plans were completed for the College of Medical Evangelists' graduation exercises.

The College of Medical Evangelists will conduct baccalaureate services for the 1930 medical and dietitian classes at Bovard Auditorium, University of Southern California, at 11 a.m. next Saturday. Frederick Griggs, representing the far-eastern division of Seventh Day Adventists, will give the principal address.

COMMENCEMENT ON SUNDAY

Commencement exercises will be held in the outdoor theater at Loma Linda next Sunday at 6:30 p.m. The address will be by Carlyle B. Haynes of the South American division.

The same students attending the Los Angeles baccalaureate service will come to Loma Linda for graduation. There will be sixty-eight fifth-year students, who have been interned in various hospitals, given their degrees, the registrar believes. There are seventy-seven seniors expecting diplomas and twenty-two are expected to receive their graduation certificates from the dietitians' school.

Students in the College of Medical Evangelists study at Loma Linda during their first two years. They spend their junior and senior years at the White Memorial Hospital, Los Angeles, then serve as internes in various hospitals during their fifth year.

At the same time that graduation plans were announced, Loma Linda officials yesterday announced that a high school will be opened in the community next year with approximately seventy-five students. In the future, no day students from Loma Linda will be taken to La Sierra Academy, south of Riverside, although that institution will continue to accommodate boarding students.

PRINCIPAL RETIRES

W. F. Hardt, for four years principal of the preparatory school at Loma Linda, is retiring from the position, and an eastern man is expected to head the elementary school and the new high school. Hardt intends to become a chicken rancher.

In past years, there have been 175 students at the Loma Linda preparatory school. After leaving the tenth grade, the students have either entered Redlands High School or the La Sierra Academy. Now the students may remain in Loma Linda until they have finished the entire twelve grades, qualifying them for college.

A few students will be admitted to the new high school from outside the Seventh Day Adventists Institution, it was indicated yesterday. Some high-school students from the Mission district are expected to take advantage of the new opportunity.

Craemer Going to Conventions of Publishers

SANTA ANA, June 15. — As a director of the National Editorial Association, Justus F. Craemer, Orange newspaper publisher, has left for the Texas Press Association convention and the convention of the national organization at Milwaukee, announcing a move to bring the national editorial convention to California and possibly to Orange county in 1932, while the Olympic Games are in session.

Craemer will be one of a western delegation at Milwaukee to try for the national convention in 1932. En route to the national convention he will stop at Corpus Christi, Tex., to represent the national body on the program of the Texas Press Association convention.

Hot Dog Gets Man New Car

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, June 15. Richard Lechlitner of 11176 Huston street went for a day's vacation to the beach at Venice. When he left here he rode in one of the Pacific Electric cars. On his return he was driving a 1930 auto coupe. The new machine had cost him a dime.

While at the beach Lechlitner got hungry and bought a hot dog sandwich from a vender, who also gave him a coupon.

"Stick around," said the vender. "The pasteboard's good for an up-to-date coupe, and we're going to call numbers in about a half-hour."

Lechlitner said he put the coupon in his pocket and promptly forgot about it. An hour later when passing the hot-dog stand he saw his name posted as the owner of the new coupe.

VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL IN ONTARIO

ONTARIO, June 15.—Annual vacation church school opens here Monday, Rollo Dunham, director of religious education at the First Methodist Church, announced today. The school will continue four weeks for children 4 years of age to 12 years. School is held each day except Saturday and Sunday. Four churches are participating. They are First Methodist, the Presbyterian, Congregational and Church of Christ.

BISHOP ADDRESSES RALLY

Rt. Rev. John J. Cantwell Heard at Inglewood Where Thousands of Holy Name Society Convene

INGLEWOOD, June 15.—More than 10,000 members of the Holy Name Society, Southern California Diocese, in annual assembly here yesterday, were admonished by the Rt. Rev. Bishop John J. Cantwell of the diocese of San Diego and Los Angeles, to be ever-mindful of the obligations of their membership in the society and to be always alert for opportunity to spread the influence of the high ideals to which the organization is dedicated.

"The upbuilding of a greater reverence for the Holy Name among the people," he declared, "will have a far-reaching effect on all morals. The comparatively small effort which your obligation as members of the Holy Name Society carries with it, will reap a larger return in ennobling the people at large, than perhaps any other one effort so simple and yet so dignifying."

Bishop Cantwell also stressed the need of constant vigilance to avoid the many pitfalls of modern life, citing examples of noble historic characters who found their work of overcoming temptation the means by which they scaled higher the ladder of spiritual attainment.

In referring to the fundamental purpose of the Holy Name Society, Bishop Cantwell congratulated the Southern California group on the splendid work they are doing, and assured them that the rapid decline of profanity in recent years represents in large measure the fruits of their endeavor.

Bishop Cantwell's speech was preceded by a brief address of welcome by Mayor Hugh B. Lawrence, who was introduced to the conclave by Rev. James P. Buckley of St. John's Catholic Church.

The ceremonies of the day, which began at 2 p.m. with an elaborate and gigantic parade through the city streets in which 6000 participated, were concluded by a simple and informal banquet in St. John's Hall, when the executive board of the Southern California diocese were entertained by the Altar Society of St. John's Church, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Gormley, chairman in charge.

State Plans to Pave New Rose Canyon Road

SAN DIEGO, June 15. — Plans for paving the new Rose Canyon highway are being prepared by the State Highway Commission and the road may be paved before the next rainy season, according to reports received today. The grading job on the road was formally accepted last Friday and the highway will be opened to traffic tomorrow morning, almost three months before the contract date of completion.

Opening of the road for traffic will be without any ceremony, although all who have seen the new road declare it a wonderful piece of work. The R. E. Hazard Contracting Company did the grading work, while De Ward & Sons had a bridge contract on the new road.

As reconstructed, the Rose Canyon Road is not merely an old road widened, however. The new grade departs from the old route to seek an easier gradient and more satisfactory terrain. This change in location of part of the grade gives the road wide-angle turns and much easier gradients. The present plans will permit use of the road until the work of paving is started by the State.

No date for award of contract has been set by the State, but it was understood here that bids soon would be called for. The paving job will be a good-sized one, as the Rose Canyon Road is 29,000 feet or almost six miles in length.

Supervised Play for Two More Ventura Places

VENTURA, June 15.—Augmenting the three supervised playgrounds to be conducted here through the summer months, the Ventura-avenue school district will support the playfields at the E. P. Foster and Avenue schools, it was made known today by W. K. Cobb, physical education director for the county schools.

Cobb and Leslie Heilhena, coach at the Avenue School, are to be in charge of the playgrounds. The Foster School field will be the main grounds, while the Avenue-school grounds will be used when swimming is possible in the irrigation reservoir at the rear of the school, Cobb said today.

The places will be conducted as community recreational centers, and parents as well as children will be urged to take advantage of the facilities offered. An attempt will be made to make them cultural as well as physical centers, Cobb declared, with woodwork for the boys, handicraft for the girls, hikes for both, and story hours for smaller children.

Farm Bureau's Picnic Enjoyed

CHINO, June 15.—Annual picnic of San Bernardino County Farm Bureau was down on the books today as the greatest get-together event the organization has yet enjoyed. The picnic was held all day Saturday in Chino City Park with more than 500 members from all parts of the county present. Leon Whitsell, director of the State Railroad Commision, was the principal speaker on the short program. Whitsell spoke on "The National Farm Problem," at 9 a.m. The program started with horseshoe pitching, rolling-pin-throwing contest, nail-driving contest, baseball games between 4-H clubs and other athletic events. A lavish picnic lunch was spread at noon. S. C. Edwards of Colton, president of the County Farm Bureau, presided over a short business meeting and Roy Sebring of Chino and J. P. Hertel, assistant farm adviser, were in charge of the sports.

Noah Beery Sees Son Act Part in Play at School

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, June 15. Drama students of the North Hollywood High School Friday night presented an elaborate performance of Shakespeare's "The Merchant of Venice," the stage colorings, fidelity of Elizabethan costumes and the elocutionary effects of the young actors being the outstanding features of the play.

In the audience and among the enthusiastic leaders of applause was Noah Beery, film comedian. Young Noah Beery, Jr., played the role of Gratiano, one of the "fat" roles of the comedy. He evinced an inherited stage presence and appearance, and read his lines in an excellent manner.

Miss Margaret Fritz was Portia; Robert Hosler, Shylock; Stanley Gotter, Antonio; Edward Like, Bassanio, and Mayme Proctor, Launcelot. None of the large cast is more than 18 years of age. The performance was most creditable. Some of the scenes smacked of professional perfection, it was declared.

Playgrounds in Ontario Open

ONTARIO, June 15.—At 8 o'clock tomorrow morning the youngsters of this community will receive instruction in the best way to play.

The city's supervised playground program is to get under way for the summer months under supervision of Bert Heiser, member of Chaffey Union High School athletic staff. He will be assisted in the afternoons by Miss Mary Graber, student of physical education at Pomona College.

Tomorrow morning's opening sessions will be devoted largely to determining the types of games the youngsters from 8 years of age up desire. Heiser proposes a varied program of games, baseball, handball, volleyball, tennis, croquet, putting golf stunts and swimming. The play program will be launched on Chaffey campus but if sufficient youngsters take advantage, the program will be widened to other school grounds of the city, according to Tom Logan, chairman of the playground committee.

BOYS SENT TO PRISON CAMP

Two of Three Youths Who Staged Theater Robbery in San Diego Sentenced; One Still at Large

RIVERSIDE, June 15.—Saving them the disgrace of terms in San Quentin Prison by granting probation, Superior Judge Morton yesterday, however, refused to turn loose without punishment, two of the three boys who staged the bold Golden State Theater safe robbery, and sentenced them to serve terms of six months at the junior division of the county prison camp in the San Jacinto Mountains.

The third boy, who became separated from the other two now in custody while they were riding freight trains across Arizona in their flight from the scene of the crime, is still at large and being sought widely. Bulletins carrying his photograph and description have been mailed from the Sheriff's office here to police and sheriff's authorities throughout the West but chiefly in Arizona. The bulletin says the boy was last seen in company with a man who said he was a Chicago gangster.

Judge Morton severly rebuked the two 17-year-old boys for the serious offense. He also expressed the hope that work at the camp will bring them to a realization that only through devotion to hard work and loyalty will they succeed. The boys, believed to have been inspired to the safe robbery by a third, returned to their homes here two weeks ago after being missing for several days. Their parents surrendered them to the juvenile authorities and they have been held at the County Detention Home at Arlington since that time, awaiting a decision by the probation officer and Juvenile Court as to the disposition of the case.

The three boys gaining entrance to the Seventh-street theater building through a balcony door, wheeled the safe to a side fire exit and onto a platform. They were frightened away by a door opening in a nearby cafe and fled, but returned forty-five minutes later, toppled the safe into a car they had stolen, and drove away.

The safe was left in the car on a lonely West Riverside quarry road. There it was discovered about eight hours later by officials of the theater who started out in search of the strong box and became suspicious upon seeing the three boys returning from West Riverside.

Fearing they were suspected, the three fled to Arizona. The third youth got off the freight train to get a drink and was left. Pricking consciences set the other two back to their homes.

GIRLS SET ATTENDANCE MARK

Five Citrus High Students Honored

These Graduates Haven't Missed School for Years

This quintet of attractive members of Citrus Union High School graduating class, in addition to receiving diplomas, were awarded additional honors on commencement night for their long and unbroken attendance records in both high and grammar schools. From left to right, back row: Dorothy Ott, Mildred Moon and Iwalani Ray. Front row, Jane Rasmussen and Vera Eggers.

AZUSA, June 15.—Of the seventy-five students graduated from Citrus Union High School, of the Azusa-Glendora school district, five girl graduates, in addition to their diplomas, were awarded special honors for perfect attendance records during the entire four years of their high-school course.

The girls not only set an unusual and difficult record for high-school attendance, but were credited with perfect attendance during the last three years in grammar school, according to Supt. F. S. Hayden.

As far as other school records are concerned, many grammar school students in Azusa, Glendora, Covina and other cities, have had perfect atendance cards for several years, but records are rare where students combine both grammar and high-school years in attendance honors, school officials stated today.

The young women claiming the honors and the records they have set as a precedent for other students at Citrus are: Dorothy Ott, four years high school, and four years grammar school; Mildred, Moon, four years high school and three years grammar school; Iwalani Ray, four years high school and three years grammar school; Jane Rasmussen, four years high school and three years grammar, and Vera Eggers, four years high school.

FRANCHISE SOUGHT BY COMPANY

San Diego Electric Railway Files Application With Transbay Council

SAN DIEGO, June 15.—Application for a franchise to operate business in Coronado in addition to street cars has been filed with the Transbay Council by the San Diego Electric Railway Company.

The company has withdrawn its request of May 5 to operate through busses between Coronado and San Diego in lieu of street cars. The new application outlines a loop service for busses. If the franchise is granted, thickly settled sections of Coronado not now reached by the street-car line would be served by San Diego Electric Railway Company busses, which would connect directly with ferries. Filing by the company of the application was the latest development in the much-discussed transportation problem in Coronado. Several months ago the Transbay Transportation Company submitted a plan to the Council whereby the city would lease, with option to buy, from the company automobile busses for municipal operation. The suggested plan calls for operation of busses on a through scheduled between Coronado and San Diego over the boats of the Automobile Ferry Company of Coronado. This and other plans were discussed at a citizens' mass meeting at Coronado the 4th inst. The new application by the San Diego Electric Railway Company probably will come before the Council at its meeting tomorrow afternoon.

Benefit Planned to Aid Children

MONTEBELLO, June 15. — A theater party to be given Monday evening is being sponsored by the local Lions' Club under the direction of Henry Giller, president, in an effort to raise funds to continue the milk fund for the undernourished children of the local schools. This is an annual event and the funds raised will help carry on the work for the next year. The work accomplished by the club along this line is highly praised by the local school board.

ONTARIO BOYS WILL GO INTO CAMP SOON

ONTARIO, June 15. — Several carloads of boys will leave here early in July for Jenks Lake in the San Bernardino Mountains, where the annual Y.M.C.A. boys' summer camps are to be established. Elmer F. Coble, "Y" secretary, announced today the first camp will be from July 5 to 15. The program will include baseball, volleyball, swimming, fishing, boating, hikes, track meets, treasure hunts, camp-fire stunts, study and song. The camp is open to boys of all faiths and creeds. Coble will be assisted at the camp by W. H. Montague, boys' work secretary for the local "Y," and Charles Smith. Camp will be in two divisions, for boys 9 to 12, and 12 to 15 years of age.

STUDENT BODY PICKS CLARKE HICKERSON

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, June 15. Clarke Hickerson was elected president of the student body of the North Hollywood High School, following the annual election at the school. He will begin his term of office at the beginning of the new year. Marian Bolling was chosen secretary and Robert Anderson, business manager. The School Alumni will give a dance to the graduating class on the evening of the 27th inst. Commencement exercises will be conducted on the evening of the 26th inst.

Californians to Speak to Beach and Shore Body

LONG BEACH, June 15.—Addition of two prominent Californians to the program of the American Beach and Shore Preservation Convention was announced today. B. B. Meek, director of the California State Department of Public Works, will present a paper on "State's Interest in Beach and Shore Preservation."

President Clyde Doyle of the Long Beach Playground and Public Recreation Commission will present a paper on "What Long Beach Has Done."

The convention, which will draw official delegates from all parts of the United States, will be held here and Los Angeles July 15 and 16, with visits to San Diego, Santa Barbara, Venice, Ventura and San Francisco on July 17 to 19.

MRS. F. A. KELLOGG TO RUN FOR LEGISLATURE

VAN NUYS, June 15.—It is stated here today that it is highly probable that Mrs. Fred A. Kellogg, member of the Republican County Central Committee, founder of the San Fernando Valley Republican Women's Club, its past president, and one of the best known women in the valley, will within the next few days formally announce her intention to make the race for the Republican nomination for the State Legislature from this district. Mrs. Kellogg has resided in the valley for nineteen years and in civic and political matters always has taken a leading part.

VALLEY VARSITY CLUB ELECTS H. MORRISON

VAN NUYS, June 15.—Harold Morrison was elected new president of the San Fernando Valley University Club at the monthly meeting of the club conducted at the Hollywood Country Club on Ventura Boulevard. Miss Florence Attix was chosen secretary. The retiring president is J. P. Inglis, principal of the Van Nuys High School.

ODD FELLOWS ELECT

HUNTINGTON PARK, June 15. The Odd Fellows' Encampment of Huntington Park has elected Roy L. Smith, Chief Patriarch; G. R. Chapman, High Priest; C. W. Lembright, Senior Warden; F. L. Erwin, Junior Warden; C. J. Klinker, Trustee; J. T. Duckett, Treasurer; W. H. Bartmus, Scribe, and J. J. Derkin, Drill Captain. The installation will be held on the evening of July 22.

HUGE CONTRACT TO BE LET

Successful Bidder on $350,000 Santa Clara River Protection Project May be Known Tomorrow

VENTURA, June 15.—The successful bidder on the Santa Clara River protection project will be named probably on Tuesday. Eleven bids have been opened and a committee appointed to take them under advisement. Bids were opened at the Security-First National Bank of Santa Paula before committee members from the city of Los Angeles and Ventura county.

The committee to which the bids were referred is composed of H. A. Van Norman and H. L. Jacques of Los Angeles, and Charles W. Petit, Ventura County Engineer. These men, it is understood, are to study the technicalities of bids Monday morning and then make their recommendations to the general committee at a meeting Tuesday.

It is estimated the work, which consists of construction of jetties, levies, and piling along the Santa Clara River banks, will cost in the neighborhood of $350,000.

Other committee members at the meeting were Lucius Green and E. W. Pugh, attorneys for the city of Los Angeles; Roger G. Edwards, Howard Pressey, Richard Bard, A. F. Walden and John McNabb of Ventura county.

Jasper Barry Candidate for State Office

VENTURA, June 15.—Jasper Barry of this city, former County Assessor, today announced himself a candidate for the State Board of Equalization, as a member from the southern or Fourth District, subject to the votes at the August primaries.

Four members comprise the State Board of Equalization, which acts as an advisory board to the different county assessors and virtually has charge of the State assessors. The members from the Fourth District, the post being sought by Barry, represent the ten Southern California counties from Santa Barbara county to San Diego county.

Barry, a native of this city, was chief deputy Assessor and later Assessor for the county for some twenty years. He was an officer in the Navy during the World War, and later was the first commander of Ventura County Post, No. 48, of the American Legion.

Until recently Barry has been connected in an engineering capacity with the harbor at San Pedro.

Golden Bridal Event Observed by Ontarians

ONTARIO, June 15.—Celebrating an event that took place fifty years ago today, Mr. and Mrs. William Siemon of 657 West D street, kept open house this afternoon for their friends and relatives who dropped in to wish them well on their golden wedding anniversary. Seventy-five relatives and scores of friends called on the happy couple during the reception.

For twenty-three years, Mr. and Mrs. Siemon have lived here. Nine children of the family were among those present today. They are Alfred Siemon of Bakersfield, Pro Siemon of Piru, Miss Lida Siemon of Bakersfield, Miss Grace Siemon of Ontario, Porter Siemon of Whittier, Mrs. Bertha Waterman of Upland, Fred Siemon of Bakersfield, Miss Mattie Siemon of Whittier and Joe Siemon of Santa Barbara.

Several golden gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Siemon.

Disabled Men Meet Tuesday

REDLANDS, June 15.—At a joint meeting of Disabled American Veterans of the World War chapters of Ontario, Riverside, San Bernardino, Redlands and other cities, to be held here next Tuesday evening, State Commander John J. Hayes of San Francisco will be the guest of honor and principal speaker.

Hayes is now visiting numerous Southern California posts of his organization, and his appearance here next Tuesday night will be the last of the present tour before starting for New Orleans on Wednesday. He will head the California department delegation to the 1930 national convention of the Disabled Veterans' organization, to be held at New Orleans.

HEN ADOPTS ORPHAN KITTENS AT MAYWOOD

MAYWOOD, June 15. — Having no family of her own, a motherly old hen, at the local fire station, has adopted three little waifs—a trio of black kittens, and seemingly, is very contented with her adopted family of youngsters. The real mother of the little tabbies was poisoned some time ago and later the hen took the orphans under her care. Every night as darkness draws near, the kittens find a snug place under the wings of Mother Fowl, and knowing she is a real mother to them, they remain all night. If one of them becomes restless and starts to leave its night's shelter, the mother hen will brush it back, where it remains until daylight.

NEW BUS LINE PLANNED

HUNTINGTON PARK, June 15. The new bus line to be operated by the Los Angeles Street Railway Company, with terminals at Los Angeles and in this city, will begin operation Sunday, the 29th inst. when twenty-minute service will be given, according to information received here. The line will operate between North Main and Workman streets, in Los Angeles, to Pacific Boulevard and Clarendon street in this city.

Launch Piloted by Dr. Damron Breaks Down

LONG BEACH, June 15.—Word that his motor launch had been disabled was received yesterday by wire from Dr. M. H. Damron of the Long Beach Emergency Hospital, now cruising Alaskan waters on a hunting trip and scientific expedition for the University of Southern California.

The telegram was received by his mother, Mrs. O. L. Damron of 2238 California street, Walnut Park. Dr. Damron wired that damage to the rudder of the launch, in which he had cruised from Seattle, forced him to take to a river steamer from Wrangell, where he was.

He left this city on May 19, last, to seek specimens for the Trojan institution and to hunt bears. Accompanying him are his father, C. L. Damron; his son Phillip and Jerry Ingalls and E. A. Monroe. They motored to Seattle, and then chartered a launch in which they reached Wrangell.

Police Explain Why Film Star Dogs Are Stolen

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, June 15. Being a film star's dog isn't altogether easy going. Not so much as is to be supposed. Valley police frequently file complaints made by actors who have their homes in San Fernando Valley, that their pets are missing and probably have been stolen.

The latest complaint is from Charles Farrell, who resides at 9918 Toluca Lake avenue, here. He reports a suspicious stranger was seen near the curb of the lawn of his home. Of a sudden the man leaped out of his auto and grabbed Farrell's prize black-and-white setter and made off with it. Valley police assert that the value of dogs that have been stolen is not always the cause of the thefts.

Some of the thieves who have been apprehended are a certain kind of "film fans," and they steal the pets, the police say, to keep them as their own simply because they get an odd joy in knowing the dog once belonged to somebody in the film colony.

PATROLMEN TO WATCH PAPER-STREWN LAWNS

VAN NUYS, June 15.—Capt. C. A. Hodson, commanding San Fernando Valley police, today took note of the annoying custom of throwing handbills and other advertising matter on the lawns in front of homes. When people are away these handbills are an invitation to burglars to enter and ransack the house. Capt. Hodson today issued an order to all patrolmen to watch closely homes where the lawns are littered with papers, and on ascertaining that owners are absent on a summer vacation, to take note of suspicious persons seen loitering about the place.

ALHAMBRA ADOPTS PLAYGROUND BUDGET

ALHAMBRA, June 15.—An appropriation of $2500 for the establishment of an all-year playground program has been approved by the Board of Education. The playground plan has been under discusion for a year, originating with the City Playground Commission. The city will be asked to appropriate a like sum for the project. Plans for the playground program will be considered Monday night at a meeting of the Playground Commission. George Baynton, representing the Pacific Coast conference of the Playground Association of America, will be present.

LIFE GUARDS PATROL BEACH

Crew of Two on Duty in Ventura County; Personnel Will be Increased to Five Men at Early Date

VENTURA, June 15.—Patrolling of Ventura county's ocean beaches officially was begun the past week with a crew of two guards, which soon will be augmented to a personnel of five experienced Red Cross life guards, Supervisor A. J. Dingeman of Oxnard has announced.

Harold Mitchell, student at the University of Southern California, has been appointed captain of the crew, and with Fred Hokin, Jr., of Oxnard began patrolling the beaches last Sunday, Dingeman announced.

Supt. Dingeman was authorized by the Board og Supervisors at its last meeting to hire a competent crew of men and Dingeman immediately appointed Mitchell captain and is adding men to the crew as competent ones are found. Only those who have passed the Red Cross life-saving tests are eligible for the work, Dingeman said.

The beaches which are to be patrolled when the crew is filled out are Rincon below the Fishcamp, Hueneme, Silver Strand and Hollywood-by-the-Sea. The guards will be on duty Sundays and holidays.

MEN WHO WIN

A LARGE SUCCESSFUL FINANCIAL INSTITUTION would like to interview a few men who are tired of finding a new customer every time they make a sale. SUCCESS cannot be built up in this way. We have over six thousand SATISFIED CUSTOMERS who are re-investing every week and month with us. The salesmen who interested them at first with our service are collecting COMMISSIONS on this money, thereby building himself a PERMANENT INCOME.

Why waste the best years of your life by selling people some commodity or other, that does not make good, and which spoils your chances of ever selling them again? The principle is all wrong.

To such men as qualify we will train. Thus fitting them for the work in hand, and helping them to make a success from the very start.

IF you are a THINKING MAN, come up today and see me. It will be the BEST day's work you ever did for yourself.

Mammoth June Sale
Of Homes In Beautiful
Leimert Park

Builders in Leimert Park work on a flat percentage of profit over cost—thus guaranteeing the best of workmanship and full value to every buyer. But they must turn over their homes quickly in order to make money. It so happens that over 30 beautiful homes were completed at the same time. And in order to find immediate buyers, Leimert Park builders are co-operating in this June Sale—offering really sensational price reductions, terms and trades. A few of the values are listed below—but words are weak in describing the beauty of these showplaces, the charm of this country club environment, the indefinable atmosphere that makes Leimert Park such a delightful place in which to live and play. Come out—by all means come out—because the city will not witness another event like this for years to come.

4246 NINTH AVE., LEIMERT PARK. One and a half story modern art home designed by an architect who has done many of the showplaces in Beverly Hills. Two large sunny bedrooms, electric refrigeration, double garage, etc. High studio window in living room. The low price and terms will amaze any one knowing house values. Builder will accept trade.

4102 S. EDGEHILL DRIVE, LEIMERT PARK. Red Seal Electric Home. Take on expert with you—he'll say this superb home is worth at least $2500 more than June Sale price. Completely equipped with electrical features including dishwasher, kitchen fan, refrigeration and electric heat. Three bedrooms and 2 baths, beautifully decorated living room. See this gem. Will accept some trade.

4427 TENTH AVENUE, LEIMERT PARK. French Normandy home with 3 wonderful bedrooms, 2 lovely baths, new-style kitchen breakfast room, large living room. Price $9250. Will take very small down payment.

SEE THESE AND DOZENS MORE today or tomorrow without fail. Enjoy a drive through charming Leimert Park, with its genuine concrete streets, beautiful landscaping, golf courses right at hand, etc. Only 17 minutes from 7th and Broadway with rapid transportation on 7c Yellow car. Grade and junior high schools on the property. Unique restrictions protect the value of your property for all time. Come out to LEIMERT PARK OFFICE, 4322 Angeles Mesa Drive (now Crenshaw) or phone VE. 1176.

Christmas Late at Island
Thirty-eight inhabitants of the lonely Island of St. Kilda, in the Outer Hebrides, will not receive their Christmas gifts until next spring. Scotch touring steamers from the Clyde discontinued their calls at the island last September and will not resume until May. The rough weather has stopped Fleetwood trawlers from making their spasmodic calls to the fishing grounds north of the island, so that St. Kilda will be isolated for many weeks.

STAGE STAR FOE OF LONG SKIRTS

Marie Tempest Against New Style for Daytime

They Should be Worn Only in Evening, She Says

Gloves Declared Needed to Complete Ensemble

BY JOAN LITTLEFIELD

LONDON, June 15. (NANA)—"Long skirts in the daytime? Never! No modern woman will put up with the tyranny her grandmother suffered in the cause of fashion."

Miss Marie Tempest is nothing if not emphatic. There is a fascinating brusqueness about her; she speaks crisply and to the point and one senses the born comedienne in her smile, her tiptilted nose, the twinkle in her eyes

I saw her in her dainty dressing-room at the Haymarket Theater just before the matinee and our talk turned naturally to the vexed problem of dress. For is she not that rare thing, a fashionable woman who is not fashion's slave, whose individuality will always assert itself?

GLOVES NECESSARY

She was wearing her first-act dress—a filmy dream of golden chiffon with a little coatee—and with it a little yellow Bankok hat. And the dress was long.

"But I shall never wear long afternoon dresses off the stage," said Miss Tempest. "One should dress practically in the daytime. But at night when every woman should try to look her best then one should wear long, flowing dresses—and long gloves. I love gloves. No woman looks dressed in the evening without them. I have always worn them. Sometimes I was the only woman at a theater or a dance wearing them But I didn't care!"

I asked Miss Tempest whether she thought the new and more feminine fashion would put an end to uniformity in dress.

"No," she said. "There has always been uniformity in dress and there always will be. I can remember when in Paris years ago every woman bought her tweeds at one shop, her blouses at another and her frocks at another. And when we walked down the Rue de la Paix, one after the other, all looking exactly alike. Mass production, however, is not possible with the newest clothes. They cannot be turned out by a factory. They are too individual. Each garment must be made by a dressmaker to suit each client. Mass production, however, has been a great factor in improving the general level of taste, which has risen enormously in England in the last ten or fifteen years.

AMERICA CREDITED

"I think America has been partly responsible for this improvement. For it was the United States that first introduced mass production. I can remember when I was in New York years ago that every girl on the streets was tastefully dressed.

"The simpler fashions of recent years have killed the supremacy of the Paris dressmakers, though. At one time no one in this country who wished to be fashionable would dream of buying her clothes anywhere but in Paris. But now London dressmakers are just as good. And often their workmanship is better. Personally, I buy all my clothes in London."

I asked Miss Tempest whether she had anything to say on the probalem of the "movable" waist.

"Waists will go higher and higher," she replied. "In a few years we shall have empire styles again."

We then talked about the popularity of "The First Mrs. Fraser," which has been running for nearly a year in London and is being played in many parts of the world.

"It is a success because it is a good play—well-constructed, amusing—human," said Miss Tempest.

HUSBAND APPEARS

Then there was an interruption. Graham Browne, Miss Tempest's husband, who is acting with her in the play, came in to have his hair brushed!

"I always do it myself," explained Miss Tempest, brushing vigorously. "Men never seem to know what suits them and I do like to see his hair brushed together behind like the tail of a duck. There you are and off you go!" (This to her husband as she shooed him off.)

"And now," said I, coming to the most interesting point of the interview, "about the American woman. What do you think of her?"

"Well," replied Miss Tempest with a twinkle, "she's very smart."

"Is that all?"

"Oh, no, there's plenty more. But I really don't think—you see it's a big subject and I'm due on the stage in a moment."

"But surely there's something!"

But the upraised voice of the call boy was too insistent to be denied.

"There! You see," cried Miss Tempest michievously. And, with a flutter of yellow, she was gone.

FOUR CHILDREN BURNED PLAYING WITH POWDER

The accidental ignition of highly explosive powder found in a vacant lot at Waterloo and Mayberry streets by four children last night may result in the death of two of them. Serious injuries were suffered by the other two. Kathleen Kenyon, 15 years of age, and Maurice Johnson, 12, were probably fatally burned when a quantity of powder, the exact nature of which is undetermined, exploded as one of the youngsters allowed a handful to drop on a flaming match.

Rowena Kenyon, 12, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kenyon, 2514 Mayberry street, and George Fults, 11, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Fults, 2510 Mayberry street, were also burned.

Detective Lieutenant Thompson of the Station, said the children found powder near a cave in the vacant lot. One of them touched a match to some of it, finding that it flashed of her playmates matches. One child handful of the explosive it on a lighted match resulting flash all of lying on the ground

Lose in Maine and Minnesota

Senator Leading Over Christianson in Race for Senate

Brewster Losing to White in Pine Tree State Primary

Wet candidates for the United States were ignominiously snowed under at primary elections in two states yesterday.

In Minnesota, in which the recent Literary Digest poll resulted in a large wet vote, John F. Selb, legislator and politician running on a repeal platform, received less than 7 per cent of the total vote. Thomas D. Schall, the Senator was leading Gov. Christianson. Both are drys.

In Maine the wet candidate, D. Dewar, was given an even more overwhelming defeat. In that State Representative White was leading former Gov. Brewster, both drys.

ST. PAUL (Minn.) June 16. (AP)—Thomas D. Schall, Minnesota's blind United States Senator, tonight swung into the lead on the basis of early returns from today's state-wide primary election in his race for the Republican nomination for re-election.

Returns from 576 out of the State's 3698 precincts gave Schall votes to 26,937 for his chief opponent, Gov. Christianson. These returns included 149 from Hennepin county (Minneapolis,) Schall's home. Christianson is relying on rural sections for his main support. John F. Selb, the third candidate, who campaigned on a prohibition-repeal platform entirely, polled with 4221 votes.

Returns were the slowest in years because of intense interest surrounding nominations for county

WHITE LEADS FOR SENATE NOMINATION

PORTLAND (Me.) June 16. (AP)—Representative Wallace H. White, Jr., was leading former Gov. Ralph O. Brewster by 6000 votes in their contest for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate on returns from today's primaries tabulated tonight.

Gov. Gardiner led John Wilson, former Mayor of Bangor, by nearly votes and is assured of renomination.

Dugald B. Dewar, the first "wet" to run in Maine in six years, polled only 4695 votes in the Senatorial

In the only other important Republican contest, the party's nomination in the Second Congress District, Zelma N. Dwinal and
